SUICIDE IDENTIFY

Man Who Shot Himself Monday Night Was Ellis McNew of Riverton.

The young man who committed suicide in Bayliss park Monday night by shooting himself through the head was identified yesterday morning as Ellis McNew of Riverton, Ia. The identification was made by E. G. Cole, a clerk in Morgan & Dickey's drug store, who formerly lived in Riverton E. L. Shugart and wife to Joseph and and was well acquainted with McNew. As Robert Campbell, wig nwi4 12-75-42, and was well acquainted with McNew. As the result of enquiries made over the telephone yesterday morning Joseph Samuels, president of the Nishna Valley bank of Riverton, telephoned Mr. Cole and requested him to call at the morgue and see if the body of the suicide was that of young McNew

W. Bird, was released yesterday after serving twenty days. Justice Ouren suspended the balance of the sentence during good behavior.

The will of George Schindels with the despondency was increased by his failure to at once secure work on reaching Council Bluffs. Mr. Cole, who was well acquainted with McNew, stated the young man feared consumption, but that as far as he knew had never intimated that he con templated taking his life in consequence. McNew visited several barber shops in this city and Omaha looking for work, but without success. Where he made the preparations to hide his identity by removing all the marks from his clothing has not been learned. It is believed that he returned to Council Bluffs from Omaha shortly before he was seen to leave the Grand hotel and walk across the street to Bayliss park where he shot himself.

McNew is said to have had between $25 and $30 with him when he left home, but when his clothing was searched at the morgue only 32 cents were found. Besides the morney, a pipe and a half-filled sack of tobacco were the only things found in his pockets. He had evidently destroyed every scrap of paper which would have been likely to lead to his identification.

McNew was 27 years of age, unmarried and leaves a father, mother and vounger brother, all of whom reside at Riverton. Coroner Treynor decided that an inquest was unnecessary and the remains of the unfortunate young man were sent to Riverton last evening.
