Damaged by Water at New York Docks

1,500 PAIRS FRENCH KID GLOVES

These goods were originally imported by the highest class store in New York, but through carelessness in handling they were slightly splashed with water at the docks in New York City. The steamship company adjusted the loss and turned the gloves over to us at what we considered them worth. They consist of such famous makes as Valliers (washable kid gloves), Alexandria and Tresonne, in every conceivable shade—Street Gloves and evening shades in French suede and dressed, all of the real kid and are positively worth up to $2.50 per pair; the damage on most of them is so slight it is scarcely noticeable. The entire lot goes on sale Saturday at, per pair..... 85c

A Tremendous Spot Cash Purchase

13,500 PIECES EXTRA FINE UNDERMUSLINS
Bought for a fraction of their worth from the Best Known Manufacturer in New York.

This was without doubt the largest cash deal ever transacted by a single house west of Chicago. The maker was willing to take a great loss in order to realize ready cash, so we couldn't resist buying. All the very finest garments are included in this lot. Our display of these undermuslins has attracted no end of attention around our show windows. Crowds of eager buyers are awaiting this sale. It is impossible to describe the thousands of different styles. They are made of long cloth, cambrics and fine muslins, elaborately trimmed with dainty laces, embroideries, etc. Not a garment worth less than $2.00, and up to $5.00. All divided into five great lots, as follows:

FRENCH MONKS ARE EXILED

Police Serve Notices to Immediately Disband Religious Houses.

ECCLESIASTICS WILL CROSS ATLANTIC

Many Expelled by New Law Declared to Seek Freedom Under Stars and Stripes, Where Thought is Not Interfered With.

PARIS, April 3.—The police today commenced their task of turning the religious organizations out of France. The Church of the English Passionist Fathers, which is attended by numerous Americans, was among those visited today and served the Passionists with notices to disband. The Passionist Fathers have arranged to turn over their affairs to secular priests, who will continue to conduct the church.

The Marists, Dominicans, Capuchins, Barnabites, Franciscans, Redemptorists, Gratianists and Brothers of the Sacred Heart and of the Holy Cross also have been notified to disband. Many of the last named order are going to America.
The branch of the Benedictine order at Douai, department of the Nord, has secured twenty-four hours grace, the head of the order having left to confer with the British ambassador at Paris, as the members of the establishment at Douai are mostly Englishmen.
The Deaf and Dumb asylum, maintained by the Monks of the Grandchartre Monastery, has been taken possession of by a receiver appointed by the grenoble court. All the novices have departed and only a few monks now remain in the monastery.

Why not save $25 when buying a vehicle by visiting the wholesale repository of Linsinger & Metcalf Company, corner Sixth and Pacific streets, one block from the east end of the Harney street car line. Over 200 different styles to select from. Save the retailer's profit. High grade, stylish jobs.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES

"The Torador" at the Boyd.
Francis Wilson and company in "The Torador," a two-act musical comedy by James F. Tanner and Harry Nichols; lyrics by Adrian Ross and Percy Greenbank; music by Ivan Caryll and Lionel Monckton. The cast:
Augustus.....Melville Ellis
Pettifer, a dealer in wild animals.....William Hunsdell
Sir Archibald Blackett, Bart.....Joseph Coyne
Rinaldi, Carlist.....Robert A. Evans
Governor of Villava.....Joseph Hatfill
Bandmaster.....G. H. Haynes
Carajolo, a treasurer.....William Broderick
Mr. Frobitz, a solicitor.....Edgar James
Moreno, Carajolo's friend.....William Pullman
Sammy Gigg, a singer.....Francis Wilson
Nancy Staunton.....Miss Elsie Ryan
Dora Selby, a ward in chancery.....Miss Susan
Suzan, proprietress of the Magasin des Fleurs, Grand hotel, Haritz.....
Miss Clara Belle Jerome
Mrs. Malton Hopping, a widow.....
Donna Teresa.....Miss Nora Cecil
Mr. Francis Wilson's present vehicle isn't the most uproariously funny thing he has ever had, but it possesses sufficient of the ridiculous to warrant a good many laughs during the course of its presentation and enough good music to please the lover of harmony. It also has the merit of giving Mr. Wilson an opportunity for doing something else; that is to say, those wonderful legs of his are not the whole of his part. He has shifted the leg work to another of the company who is described on the bill as Pettifer, and who is the commander of a pair of phenomenal nether limbs) and conscientiously undertakes to make fun in another way, and succeeds, too. Sammy Gigg is not at all like any of his other parts, and in this alone appears to be the source of much unalloyed satisfaction to Mr. Wilson. If the zeal with which he enters on his performance may be accepted as an indication. After Mr. Wilson, Mr. Joseph Coyne is easily the hit of the piece, his presentation of the comic English nobleman being particularly good. Mr. Hunsdell and Mr. Broderick also have good parts. Among the women in the company Misses Ryan, Gordon, Jerome, Lawrence and Cecil have much to do with the success of the piece. The chorus is large and has been carefully selected and well drilled. The staging of the piece is particularly good, even in those times when expensive productions are accepted as a matter of course. Last night the Boyd theater was filled with a fashionable audience, and the applause which greeted the numbers evinced the pleasure the people had with the performance. The whirlwind ending of the first act was decidedly effective, and was called for five times. Mr. Wilson had to make a little certain speech in response to the ovation he was accorded.

"The Torador" will be repeated this afternoon and evening.

Many Good Books Stolen

While making his rounds among the pawnshops Friday afternoon Detective

Savage succeeded in unearthing $15 worth of new babies which had been pawned with various dealers during the last few days. The books belong to the C. F. Evans installment company, located at Sixteenth and Howard streets. It is alleged that an employe disposed of the property while representing to the company that he was selling them upon instalments to residents of the city.
