Papa Bill Rourke's Congregation Makes CATCHES HORSE, BUT NOT CASH Initial Killing of 1903.

GETS THE HAPPY HAND AT THE POST

Cordini Crowd Turns Out to Cheer the Season's First Swatting at Vinton Street Fark-Score Four to Three.

At's all over and Papa Bill's boys are the real thing. They let Fred Bradford's Originals monkey along for seven innings and roll up three pice scores and then they fell on Mr. Scully's collection of curves and took three runs out of him in the eighth and another in the ninth and cinched the game for their own.

There was a nice crowd for the opening practice game and it cheered the boys when they came onto the field. The weather was a little chilly, but the bleachers cared not after the game began. For the first four innings Henderson was in the box for the Rourke family, and after the first inning, when the Originals made a single and a two bagger off of him, he settled down and held them down nicely. Then "Big" Johnson from Sloux City took his place, and with Thomas catching started to do things to the Originals-and he did. He gave them bases on balls and then struck them out so as to save the inning when he had spoiled it. Altogether his work was erratic and he seemed soft.

Preston made his debut on the team after having played against it for three years with the Grizzlies, and he made good. A single and a two bagger, besides a run, were credited to him. Wright and Stewart also celebrated the opening of the season with two singles apiece when they seemed to be needed. Creighton succeeded O'Keefe behind the bat in the seventh inning. The OMAHA.

A few finishing touches, such as a coat of white paint for the top sides, some interior fittings and the setting up of this steering sear, will occupy the time until the launching.

Today the tender of Reliance, Sunbeam, arrived from New York. C. Oliver Iselin, the managing owner of the new boat, together with a number of his yachting triends, who have been on cup defenders for the last ten years, were on board. Mr. Iselin, accompanied by Newbury D. Thorne, Captain Woodbury Kane, W. Butler Duncan, ir., and Captain Charles Barr, who will command Reliance, came ashore in the afternoon and made a critical inspection of the new boat. Mr. Iselin did not remain in the shop long, but went to Herreshoff's office, where he had a long conference with Mr. Herreshoff, Later in the day the sixteen members of the crew are expected next week of Reliance, together with the second mate, who have been here since Sunday, went on board Sunbeam, which will be there on board Sunbeam, which will be there on board Sunbeam, which will be there of the crew are expected next week of Reliance, together with the second mate, who have been here since Sunday, went on board Sunbeam, which will be their on the day the sixteen members of the crew are expected next week of Reliance, together with the second mate, who have been here since Sunday, went on board Sunbeam, which will be their of the reward of the reason. Dismounted Jockey Finishes Bad Third, but is Not Placed.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Despite the unseasonably cold weather, a tremendous crowd attended the races at Bennings today. An excellent card developed some fine sport, notwithstanding a heavy track due to last night's rain. Three favorites and two heavily backed second choices won. Interest, as usual, centered in the steeplechase, at two miles and a haif. Seven horses started, five of them fell and only three finished. The favorite, Charley O'Mailey, after leading for nearly a mile and a haif, fell. After R. B. Sack and Monrip had finished Donohue, O'Malley's jockey, caught him, remounted him and went over the course, but the judges refused to allow him third money.

Horses Keep Far Apart,

MEMPHIS, April 4.—The Ardell stakes, a seepstake for 2-year-old filles, was the feature at Montgomery park today. Of the nine named to start only four accepted the issue, with the Schorr pair, Walterin and Mordella, wit; the extremely short price of 1 to 20. The start was good, but it was apparent in the first 200 yards that the local turfman's entry would finish first and second. Builman sent Walterin to the front and, closely follows, by Mordella, the two made the running to the wire, the latter beating Bernice by half a dozen lengths for second money. Codex finished third twenty lengths away.

Out every morning early, driving, shopping or motoring, she has a good morning's work done before many of her English friends are out of bed. Lady Dufferin still takes singing lessons, as her charming voice clearly shows, and by 11 o'clock has had an bour's practice daily, as well as a lesson from her singing master. Lord Dufferin's two little girls have sweet little singing voices and perfect musical ears. Now that Lady Dufferin is out of mourning again she is ordering some beautiful clothes. Among the newest is a little suede coat in her favorite shade of faint being from the hand of the great Spanish gray, which is becoming to her fair beauty. Other exquisite dresses are being made for her in the Dover street shops. She is going to Paris to give the French fitters several fittings for dresses she means to wear expected in Paris to tell of his connection

POLICE CHARGE CROWD WITH SABERS

Republicans Become Active, Roping to Take Advantage of the Situation, Especially if the Disorders Spread.

MADRID, April 4.- The rioting here was continued until a late hour last night. The public joined the mob of students in parading the streets, a black flag was raised and there were cries of "Long live the republic" "and death to the minister of the interior." The police charged with drawn sabers and fourteen students and six policemen were wounded seriously. Many others were slightly injured.

The republican party is active, hoping to take political advantage of the situation, and especially if the disorders spread. All the universities of Spain will hold memorial services for the students killed at Salamanca. The prefect of Salamanca has been dismissed.

Collisions between the police and rioters were frequent during the afternoon. Groups of students incessantly paraded the streets shouting "Long live the republic!" and 'Down with the government!" and singing The Marseillaise."

Women joined a number of rioters in stoning the police who charged the mob. A woman was fatally injured.
