

CITY CAMPAIGN APATHETIC

Indications Point to the Election of Republican Mayor in Lincoln.

OTHER PLACES ARE NOT SO CERTAIN

Municipal League Does Some Quiet Work and Its Effect May Be Seen in Result on Election Day.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, April 5.—(Special.)—After a campaign so apathetic as to be commented upon, both the republicans and the fusionists claim the city election, to be held Tuesday.

The claims of the fusionists are generally taken to be simply in the nature of a whistle to keep up courage. Lincoln is safely republican and no opposing candidate can expect to be successful unless he has a weak man against him.

The issue is the same as that upon which the republican primaries were fought, a high or low saloon license. G. A. Adams, the republican candidate for mayor, stands committed to the present $1,500 license.

The fusionists have erected a platform which, after denouncing "duplicity and all efforts to deceive and that man cannot serve God and mammon," declares for a $1,500 license; municipal ownership of lighting plant; adequate supervision and inspection of gas and electric meters; favoring the granting of franchises on equitable terms; telephone companies pledged to give reasonable rates and adequate service. This is quite a departure for the democrats, who constitute the backbone of the fusion combine.

Municipal League Interested.

While the republicans and the fusionists have made no show of any interest in the contest, work has been quietly done by the municipal league, a reaction from the republican primaries against the saloon men and the friends of a low license. This organization has worked under cover so that it is impossible to say just what it has done.

Another Factor in Fight.

Another factor that is causing some loss in this campaign is who will be the next city police chief, and of the fire department. The municipal league is in favor of retaining the present heads of these departments and it is charged that if the republican ticket is elected Chief Hoagland at least will have to go.

Fights are being made in the Second, Third and Sixth wards.

In the Second the county machine is trying to land William Lawlor over the league and the fusion candidate, Jacob H. North. The latter expects to get many republican votes that were cast for Winnett for the republican nomination for mayor.

Test Given Appropriation.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., April 5.—(Special.)—Notwithstanding the claim that the bill passed by the recent legislature appropriating the sum of $70,000 for the support of the state national guard during the ensuing two years, is not subject to the provisions of the referendum amendment, to the state constitution because it contained an emergency clause, those opposed to so large a sum for the maintenance of the state national guard announce that they will not abandon their efforts to have the matter submitted, under the referendum amendment, to the voters of the state at the next general election.

Catholics Building New Church.

WEST POINT, Neb., April 5.—(Special.)—A new Catholic church of large dimensions is in course of construction in Blumfield township, twelve miles west of this city. This makes a total of ten Catholic churches, with large and wealthy congregations, within a radius of nineteen miles of West Point. In some of the parishes the buildings are already proving too small.

Has Not Given Up Hope.

SEWARD, Neb., April 5.—(Special.)—The report which was current to the effect that P. D. Nelson had found the operation of the Windsor hotel unprofitable and had given it up is an error. Mr. Nelson is still conducting the hotel and proposes to do so in the future.

ENOUGH RUNS IN ONE INNING TO WIN

Fill Up Four in the Eighth Against the Regulars' Total of Three—Creighton Team Tries Today.

Yesterday was a bad day for Papa Bill's children. The weather was not inviting and only a small number of the fans were out to watch the Originals even up for their whipping of the day before.

They made up after Creighton began to do the slab stunts was enough to bring tears to the eyes of a cigar store Indian. Ever since the third inning they had been behind and then they landed in the eighth and dragged in a nice easy margin.

Waller of the Originals was first man up and he drove Mr. Schaffstall's curve out against the left field fence and took three bags for his effort. Bradford sent the ball to Dolan and was thrown out at first. Then Whitney picked out a nice curve and knocked it out to Welly, who gathered it in but could not get it in time to stop Waller from scoring. Saffelder followed with a warm one to the pitcher and was thrown out at first and the first half of the inning was over.

Then It Got Good.

In the last half of the third after one man had gone out, Goding swatted the ball with his crutch for two bases. Schaffstall drove the ball to Saffelder, who carried it and Goding went to third. Carter flew out and Welly ran on third strike, which got O'Keefe's O'Keefe gathered it up quickly and threw wildly to first and when the smoke of battle cleared away Goding and Schaffstall had scored and Welly was resting on third. Then Wright singled and Welly came in. Wright tried to stretch his hit and was caught out at second. This was the last of the scoring for Papa Bill's boys as they never could bunch their hits at the right time after that.

Companion Goes In.

Then Papa Bill erred and placed Companion in the box and the Originals began to do things. Waller took a reef in the ball for two bases and stole third while Bradford was striking out. Whitney singled and Waller came home. Saffelder and Welch each singled and then Taylor drove the ball to Stewart who threw him out at first. Meanwhile Whitney was coming and Wright threw to Fuller to cut him off. When they were through passing the ball around all three runners were home.

ATTENTION!

THOMAS A. EDISON says: "You Can't Beat Nature in the Cure of Disease"

YOU EAT WHAT YOU REAT. E NATURE

NATURE can beat any disease, when you use Nature's remedy. Nature's greatest remedy, beyond question, ever discovered by man in any age is found in Medical Lake. The Indians discovered it and used its wonderful hidden curative properties long before the white man. Its cures are a marvel to this progressive age. The salts and the waters of the Lake have effected greater cures than any other remedy, or any of the great springs or baths of the world. Chemists and physicians are surprised at the wonderful cures made by the Medical Lake remedies.

Another proof of their increasing fame is that druggists are compelled to carry a large stock of them to supply the great demand. No remedy can equal them, for no man can equal Nature. They are pure, sure, natural.

No matter how severe your case—no matter what disease you have—the

MEDICAL LAKE REMEDIES WILL CURE YOU.

They do not simply relieve—they CURE.

In time these remedies will surpass all others. They must, for they are Nature's—not man's.

BALKANS STILL RESTLESS

Russian Consul at Death's Door

Sultan Promises Ambassadors to Send Troops into Disturbed Districts if Trouble Does Not Soon Subside.

London, April 5.—

The rumor of the death of M. St. Cherbina, the Russian consul at Mitrovitza, who was shot by an Albanian sentry proves to have been premature, but the consul's condition is serious and symptoms of peritonitis have appeared. It is reported that the Albanian soldier who shot him has been sentenced to fifteen years at hard labor.

Sultan Promises to Use Troops.

The Austrian, Russian and British ambassadors have had audiences with the sultan on whom they impressed the necessity of suppressing the Albanian agitation. The sultan informed them that in the event of the failure of the mission that he dispatched to Albania, he would take measures for the military occupation of the disturbed region.

The Daily Mail's correspondent at Vienna asserts that Austria has mobilized its Agrarian, Radicals and Temesvar army corps in readiness to occupy Mitrovitza should such a measure become necessary.

The correspondent further affirms that a dangerous agitation exists among the Mohammedan population of Bosnia and Herzegovina which is secretly arming with the intention of attacking the Christians. The sultan informed them that in the event of the failure of the mission that he dispatched to Albania, he would take measures for the military occupation of the disturbed region.

Reminiscences of a Correspondent.

"The Recollections of a Washington Newspaper Correspondent" is the title of a monograph prepared by Francis A. Richardson and read before the Columbia Historical society of this city. The author of this paper came to Washington in 1852 as a representative of the Baltimore Sun and was continually in the service of that newspaper as its responsible head in the capital of the nation until his retirement from the field of active newspaper work in June last. Mr. Richardson in the years that he has been in Washington has enjoyed the intimate acquaintance of more famous men possibly, men who have aided in the upbuilding of the nation, and men who have left the impress of their work upon the statute books of the nation, than any other Washington newspaper man with the single exception of General Henry V. Borst and Major John M. Carson. Mr. Richardson came here a little before the beginning of the first session of the Thirty-ninth congress. The congressional directory of the first session of the Thirty-ninth congress, according to the author of the paper, contained the names of just twenty-six Washington correspondents, he being among the number. When he retired the list of last June there were in the congressional directory the names of nearly 200 regular telegraphic correspondents whose entire time was devoted to newspaper work, and which does not include the multitude of space writers and letter writers numbering perhaps as many more.

among members-elect and senators with the idea of ascertaining just what the probabilities are for preventing the opening of the whole subject of the tariff schedules in the extra session. It is believed that before the president returns from his western trip sufficient knowledge will have been obtained to enable them to discuss intelligently with the president the probabilities and a definite program as to the extra session; the exact date it shall be called will be decided upon within a very few days after the return of Mr. Roosevelt to Washington.

Changes in Land Office.

As a result of the action of congress at its last session some fifty clerks in the general land office on April 1 received deserved promotions through the infusion of new blood in the form of the appointment of twenty-seven additional clerks. With this addition of twenty-seven clerks did not permit of promotions for all of the 216 comprising the office force of Commissioner W. A. Richards of Wyoming, those who were not promoted will be compensated in a measure by the lessening of their labors through the introduction of the extra help. The twenty-seven additional clerks were drawn from the regular civil service rolls, and they will at once be assigned to their new positions and gradually broken in. The work of the general land office, because of a shortage of clerical force, is somewhat in arrears, and congress after repeated appeals at last came to the relief of the commissioner and voted to increase the clerkship accordingly.
