BUTCHER LITCHFORD IDENTIFIES HIM

Patrolman Lorensen Also Says He is Man Who Shot at Him After Breaking Window in Jewelry Store.

W. C. Rogers, the man arrested Saturday night on suspicion of being one of the two highwaymen who shot and killed Saloonkeeper Bert Forney, was identified yesterday by Charles W. Letchford as the man who held him up and robbed him in his butcher shop on South Main street on the night of March 3. Patrolman Andrew Lorone of the two men who broke in the front on Broadway, and while making his escape, fired at Lorensen.

When Rogers was brought from his cell dropped his head and had to be told to look up in order that Mr. Letchford might get a good look at him. The moment Rogers raised his head Mr. Letchford ex-

"That is the man who robbed me. There can be no doubt about it. I am as positive as I am that my name is Letchford."

"When Letchford said this Rogers paled perceptibly and again dropped his head. Letchford then addressed Rogers, saying: "You know me, don't you?" Rogers answered that he had never seen him before and to this Letchford replied: "Oh, yes, you have. You know me well enough. You have good reason to."

Rogers mumbled something about Letchford being mistaken and he was taken back to his cell. Mr. Letchford's experience with the man who held him up and robbed him was quite an exciting one and he had every opporfunity at the time to get a good look at his assailant. Letchford was sitting in his meat market after having counted up his day's cash and prepared to close his shop, when a man entered the front door with his features partly concealed with a handkerchief. The fellow ordered Letchford to hold up his hands and hand over the bag, containing about $55, which was on the bench beside him. After securing the money the robber ordered Letchford at the point of a revolver to go into a back room. Letchford did as he was ordered and the robber followed. Letchford succeeded in wresting the gun from his assailant and fired three shots at him. The fellow fell over on a meat table and begged Letchford not to shoot again, as he was already mortally wounded. Letchford, thinking he had the man safe, went out onto the street to secure help, and when he returned in a minute or two the robber had made his escape by jumping through a rear window, on which blood stains were found. To Be Examined for Scars.

Rogers has a long scar on the back of his left hand, which may have been caused by a cut received when jumping through Letchford's window. He will be examined today to ascertain if he has any bullet marks on his body, as Letchford was almost certain that one at least of the shots he fired struck him. Rogers was known to be in Council Bluffs the day Letchford was robbed, but had not since been seen in the city until three nights ago.

When the night detail reported for duty last evening Rogers was again brought from his cell, and the moment Officer Lorenzen set eyes upon him he declared he was the man who shot at him the night of the robbery of Leffert's jewelry store. Rogers was then made to don his overcost and black slouch hat, and when thus attired Officer Lorenzen was more positive than ever in his identification. The revolvers which the men who robbed Leffert's store dropped in their flight were identified by their numbers as being two of a large number which had been stolen from a store in Omaha a short time previously.

While the police have no direct evidence implicating Rogers in the blowing of the safe in the office of the Evans Laundry comprny on Pearl street two months ago, they know that he was in the city at that time and that he and his partner were in the laundry office that day, evidently siging up the situation. His partner, said to be a well known crook named Burr, is at present under arrest in Clinton, Ia., with five burglaries charged against him.

Doubts About Chaney.

James Chancy, the man who was playing cards with Forney in the saloon the night of the murder, and who is being held at the city jail as a state witness, has not yet been shown Rogers. It is understood he will be confronted with him some time today, as will Wolf Lebovitch, the Main street clothing dealer, who sold each of two men a red handkerchief the evening of the murder. The police have serious doubts about Chaney being able to identify anyone, as he was too badly frightened when the shooting began.

The police feel confident that in Rogers they have one of the men who shot and killed Forney. The man's arrest, it is sa. . was brought about through a tip given the authorities by a well known member of the sporting fraternity, who is said to be well acquainted with the prisoner.

Captain Palmer Writes Hot Springs Sanitarium Contracts to Be Let May 1.

HOT SPRINGS, S. D., April 5 .- (Special.)

-Captain Palmer of Omaha, who is a member of the governing board of the National Soldiers' home, has written regarding the letting of contracts for the national sanitarium and says he does not think they can get the plans ready for letting before May 1. The national board met at New York April 1, when the arrangements was thought that the grading contract, being much smaller than first figured, would be let in conjunction with the building contract. This, however, was to be determined at their meeting. As usual Captain Palmer grew enthusiastic in his letter and declared that he thought that there would be three times as many buildings erected as planned for, and further says: 'Our capacity now planned for is 450 men. There are over 12,000 men in the hospitals that ought to be sent to Hot Springs for treatment. The plan is first to install our civilian employes, doctors, nurses and help, manent residents of this sanitarium. Then to ship 450 men (so many from each home as far east as Togus, Me.), sending them there for treatment with the hope that they will be cured or greatly benefited, so that they can give place to other men within sixty or ninety days. As soon as they are cured or ready to move they will be sent back again, and so we will have men coming and going constantly, probably 1,600 soldiers each way during the first year. If we take the men that are now osting the government $350 per man out of the hospitals and put them back into the home where they cost only $157 to the man we are saving for the government $223 to the man. If we cure the 500 Spanish-American and Philippine soldiers now in

FARM LABORERS ARE SCARCE

State Finds it Difficult to Secure Help on Farms at Various Institutions.

PRIVATE PARTIES PAY HIGHER WAGES

Difficulty is Experienced in Keeping Inchrintes at the Various Asylums, as the Law Permits of No Restraint.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, April 5 .- (Special.)-The state of lowa is for the first time finding that it is difficult to maintain its small army of employes at state institutions because of the sharp competition from private demand for help, and at the state institutions more difficulty is experienced than ever before in securing competent persons to assist in the work. At the various institutions this year much more land will be farmed than ever before, as the state board has added many hundreds of acres to the state farms by reason of the appropriations for that purpose made by the last legislature. It is found to be hard to secure men to manage these farms and especially to take the more responsible positions because the price being paid by farmers for help is so high. Old and competent employes are reported resigning from the institutions this spring to accept employment elsewhere. This extends to almost every department. The appropriations made by the legislature for support of the institutions is found to be not sufficient so that better wages can be paid, and the cost of all materials and supplies made use of by the state is so much larger that the estimates of the state board as to cost have to be watched with the utmost care to prevent a deficft. The board finds it very difficult to meet all expenses under the circumstances. The state will this year raise a larger amount of food and animals. The farm at the Industrial school at Eldora is plentifully supplied with hogs and a large number of pigs are being raised. Cattle and horses and sheep are being raised on many of the state farms and there is much fruit planted, so that in a few years they will be more nearly self-sustaining than before.

Many Inebriates Escaped. The reports made to the State Board of Control from the state institutions show that during the month of March there were forty-four of the big colony of inebriates who escaped from the institution. The report shows that a hospital for the insane, where there is no restraint whatever and none is allowed, is not a fit place for the keeping of the victims of drink. The report shows that at the close of March there were 103 inebriates at Mt. Pleasant, decrease of twenty-six during the month Before papering your rooms we want to show you our elegant 1903 designs. Celebrated the Eight-Hour Day. President Holden, of the State Federation of Labor, while engaged in work for the bureau of labor statistics at Oskaloosa and Bussey during the past week had a pleasant experience in the last named city on the occasion of the fifth annual celebration by the miners and other union laborers of the beginning of the eight-hour day. The celebration was in the Methodist church, and the pastor, Rev. Mr. Wilson, who was formerly a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, had prepared an unusually fine program for the occasion. The laboring men made it a holiday in Bussey and the school children and the churches and everybody participated. Rev. Mr. Wilson presented the local union of miners with a handsome oil portrait of John Mitchell in an ebony frame on a handsome easel, and the union men nearly went wild with enthusiasm. The incident is regarded by President Holder as indicating the extent to which the union movement is taking hold in Iowa and attracting the attention of all classes. New Magazine Experiment.

E. H. Rockwell, one of the most insistent of the Bryan democrats, who attended the banquet in Des Moines last week, announced while here that he is soon to mmence the publication at the little town of Farmington, where he runs the Farmington Herald, of a monthly magazine to be called "The Christian," and to be run "as Jesus Christ would edit it." be edited in fact by M. L. Hostetter of Chillicothe, Mo., who is said to be a very brilliant writer. The magazine will devote much space to temperance work.

Railway Accounts.

Dwight Lewis, secretary of the railroad ommissioners of Iowa, returned from Chicago where he attended the meeting of the committee of the National Association of Railway Commissioners and assisted in the for letting the contracts were made, and preparation of an extensive report on the method of securing uniform accounts and reports. The committee will have another meeting in June to complete the report. This committee will report to the national association later and the report will be of wast benefit to all railroads and to all railway commissioners.

FAKE HAIR PREPARATIONS

Do Hair No Good, but Often Cause it to Fall Out.

Many hair preparations are "fake" be cause they are merely scalp irritants. They often cause a dryness, making the hair brittle, and, finally, lifeless. Dandruff is the cause of all trouble with hair. It is a germ disease. The germ makes cuticle scales as it digs to the root of the hair, where it destroys the hair's vitality, causing the hair to fall out. To cure dandruff, the germ must be killed. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Newbro's Herpicide is the only hair preparation that kills the dandruff germ, thereby leaving the was that a young man named Rohrbecker, hair to grow luxuriantly.

Worth Telling We never tire of telling the story of Uneeda Biscuit. We do not believe that lovers of good, wholesome food ever tire reading it. Uneeda Biscult are the result of two ideas. That soda crackers could be made better than they had ever been made before. That it was possible to convey them to the home fresh, crisp and clean.

The importance of the soda cracker as an article of daily consumption, made this worthy of extraordinary effort. True, many people laughed at the idea of so much thought-timelabor-capital, being devoted to a soda cracker. But the greatest industries of the greatest country in the world have been developed from smaller things than a soda cracker, and so it seemed worth while to make the best soda cracker that could be made and to place it on the table as good as it had been made.

To do the first required the selection of the best materials, of the best equipment, the highest skill. To do the second upset all traditions. The oldest bakers said there was no way to keep a soda cracker good.

That no one expected it any way. That people were satisfied to eat them stale, as they had been in the habit of doing. And so it fell to the lot of younger minds to do this unheard of thing-to keep a soda cracker good until eaten.

The result was the creation of the In-er-seal Package with red and white seal. An invention that kept out the air, moisture, dust germs, that first retained the natural flavor of the biscuit, keeping it crisp and fresh until it reached the table, and so Uneeda Biscult became a reality. The little thing that seemed hardly worth while became a great thing that seemed hardly possible.

To-day over 300,000,000 packages have been consumed by the thoughtful people of this country and the demand is ever increasing.

That is the story of Uneeda Biscuit. Some day we will tell it over again for the benefit of those who are still "satisfied" with the stale and broken crackers that come in a paper bag, when they can get Uneeda Biscuit whole, fresh, and clean.

Populace Regard Pilgrimage with Dispair, Predicting Heaven Will Certainly Send Disasters to Punish Royalty.

PEKIN, April 5.-The report that th United States is increasing its Asiatic squadron on account of alarming reports on the situation in China excites surprise in Pekin. Such reports were not sent by the United States or British legations which possess good facilities for judging the situation in China. The only disturbances considered seriou are those in the Kwangsi province, the southern province of China bordering Tonkin, where 100,000 rebels are said to be under arms, but these persons are not molesting foreigners. The latest reports regarding General Tung Fu Siang, the 'Boxer' leader and Prince Tuan, the exled anti-foreigner, who are at the head of the insurgent forces in the northwestern province of Kansu are reassuring. The government claims to have come to an understanding with them whereby they agree to refrain from hostilities. It is believed that the government is supplying them with funds on condition that they remain quiet. The officials promise the foreign ministers that the indemnity bonds will soon be signed, as they apparently have concluded that it will be impossible to obtain any concession in the terms of the indemnity until that formality is fulfilled.

The dowager empress and the court today started on their journey to the western tombs. They will be absent from Pekin eighteen days. The masses regard the pilgrimage with astonished disapproval and predict that heaven will send disasters. The United States consul at Canton telegraphs that the famine in the Kwangsi province, resulting from the rebellion, is Thousands will die unless assistance is forthcoming. He recommends that relief funds be started abroad.

Many Ships in Orient.

WASHINGTON, April 5 .- The United States naval representation in the Orient will be increased materially as soon as the vessels now under orders to proceed to those waters arrive.

The Navy department, in making this increase, contemplates aquadrons in Asiatic and Philippine waters under these heads: (1) Vessels of the line of battle, made up of the battleships Kentucky, Oregon and Wisconsin and the monitors Monterey and Monadnock. All are now there except Wisconsin which sails from Puget Sound about May 1 (2) The cruiser squadron, made up of

New Orleans of the Asiatic squadron and Albany and Cincinnati. (3) A squadron made up of gunboats and small craft designed especially for service in the smaller bodies of water where the larger ships, because of their draft, are unable to go.

The idea of these squadron formations is favorite one with many naval officers, who to some extent have arranged its counterpart with the vessels of the Atlantic
