PROMINENT GERMANS COMING

Representatives of the Kaiser's Land Will Visit Omaha in May.

THEY WILL INSPECT LIVE STOCK MARKET

Party Includes Number of Owners of Large Estates in Germany Who Come to Study Agriculture in America.

The delegation of German agriculturists that is to travel through the United States during May and June will arrive in Omaha on May 14 and leave the following morning for the Union Pacific for Ames, Neb. For several years the German colleges and the government have been studying the theories of farming and stock raising and a year ago the German ambassador in Washington made overtures to Secretary Wilson regarding the sending of such a delegation as is now coming to this country and he was told that every facility possible would be given them to study those things they desired to. The itinerary west of Omaha includes Watson's ranch, Denver, Greeley, Colo., and Eaton, Colo. From there they go direct to California. In Omaha they expect to spend most of their time at the stock yards and the packing houses. The party is composed of the following: Dr. Ritter Victor von Bauer, Brunau, Austria; Maximilian Buecher, Posen, owner of feudal estate; F. Bierman, Sanitz, Mecklenburg, owner of feudal estates; F. H. Brechtach, Munich, Bavaria, government official; Ulrich Behm, Kleetsow, Pomerania, agriculturist; Conrad Dietrich Coblenz, Speyer-on-the-Rhine; H. Eysenhardt, Ransdorf, Brandenburg, owner of feudal estate; H. Frederick Farber, Gera, agriculturist; Dr. F. H. Flecken, Cologne; Erich von Fleuge, Speck, Pomerania, government official; T. Puchling, Frechem, Rhenish Prussia, director of large estates; A. Fuhrman, Berlin, agriculturist; Kurt Gahler, Sorau, Brandenburg, agriculturist; Anton Gahn, Peake, West Prussia; Bernard Gotand, Leipzig, agriculturist; Charles Hanich, Breslau, director of estates; H. Klovekorn, Underwangen, owner of estates; Victor V. Laffert, Brahlter, Mecklenburg, lieutenant of the reserve; Hans Lampe, Leipzig, agriculturist; Dr. Eugene Court Loebner, Lobositz, Bohemia; E. Lomcke, Hoppengard, Mecklenburg; Schwerin, agriculturist; Dr. Felix Linderman, Dresden, agriculturist; P. Moller, Schlesienberg, Mecklenburg, owner of feudal estates; Ferdinand von Prachter, Munich, Bavaria, government official; C. Rechoita, Doltitz, Pomerania, owner of feudal estates; Walter Richter, Taplow, East Prussia, agricultural inspector; Fred Rueffer, Heidelberg, student; Bernard Sachs, Weiszig, Saxony, owner of feudal estates; Jacob Schloesser, Koeln, Ehrenfeld, student; E. Schneppal, Neulentein, East Prussia, owner of feudal estates; Count von Schomburgk, Raib, Bavaria; Ernst Simons, Elberfeld, agriculturist; Count Schenk von Stauffenberg, Rastatt, Wurttemberg; Charles Skeeen, Jr., Breslau, agriculturist; Fred Staakman, Leipzig; Anton Treip, Elberfeld, agriculturist; Prof. Viet Hauser Mosbach, Baden, teacher of agriculture; A. Wadsack, Tonnensraedt, province of Saxony; Dr. Martin Wilsner, Berlin, agriculturist; C. Winkler, Lockwitz, Saxony, owner of estates.

AFTER BOYS FOR THE NAVY

Lieutenant Ryan Arrives in Omaha and Opens a Naval Recruiting Station.

Lieutenant J. P. C. Ryan, U. S. N., arrived in the city Saturday from Yankton, S. D., and at once proceeded to the establishment of a naval recruiting depot here. The party will remain here one week, going from Omaha to Kansas City. The Navy department has long believed that the best recruits for the naval service are to be obtained in the west and for this reason is seeking men throughout this section. "The service is not rigorous, and with the remarkable improvement in naval architecture, the conveniences aboard ship are limitless, and the opportunities for physical and mental recreation are unsurpassed."

PUR TRIAL FOR HIS LIFE

Thomas McGuigan Responds to Charge of Murder in First Degree.

HE WILL PUT UP CASE OF SELF-DEFENSE

Judge Estelle Holds that Scruples Against Capital Punishment Afford Ground for Challenge of Jurors.

The trial of Thomas McGuigan, charged with murdering John Patrick Murphy, whom he fatally stabbed at Fourteenth and Howard streets, February 25, was begun before Judge Estelle yesterday morning.

Four of those summoned to the jury box stated in reply to questions that they might have conscientious scruples against bringing in a verdict of guilty where the crime charged is subject to capital punishment, as in this case. This resulted in there being raised a question as to whether such scruples afforded ground for challenge and Attorney English was given until afternoon to look up authorities. He then read several and the court held that such circumstance is ground for challenge.

The state has twenty-eight witnesses, six of whom it is holding in the county jail to make certain of their being available when needed. Attorneys for the defense state that they will work entirely upon the theory of self-defense. They have six witnesses who saw the brawl and five others for minor testimony. They divulge the names of none of the principal witnesses.

McGuigan is New Shoes.

McGuigan appeared yesterday in new shoes and well-brushed clothes and was otherwise groomed into very presentable condition. The attendance at the trial does not promise to be particularly large.

When court adjourned for the day there were twenty-one men in the box, fifteen had been excused and the defense was only on its eighth challenge. It may take all this afternoon to get the jury. The judge has declined to excuse business men from the new panel.

REED DIVORCE CASE AGAIN

Comes Up Second Time that Disposition of Property May Be Determined.

The divorce suit of John Reed against Matilda was back in district court today, remanded from the supreme court, which held that the trial court was in error in passing upon only the matter of divorce

Sues Street Railway Company.

John Banks has started suit against the Omaha and Council Bluffs Street Railway company for $200, alleging that he had "the mucous membrane of his mouth bruised, torn and lacerated," and that he suffered other injuries in an accident on the company's line on Twenty-fourth street, between C and E streets, in South Omaha, March 24.

Announcements of the Theaters.

There was a larger demand for the May musical festival tickets Monday than any day since they were placed on sale. Mr. Penfold reports that over 800 seats have already been sold for the entire season. These season tickets are being sold now at $3.50 each, which entitles the holder to the entire six concerts, being three evening concerts on the 7th, 8th and 9th, and two matinees on the 9th and 10th, at which the Chicago Symphony orchestra assist the May festival chorus choir of 150 voices, which has been in training for the past eight months by Mr. T. J. Kelly, and to the concert to be given by the full New York Metropolitan Opera House orchestra, with Nordica and De Reszke as soloists, on May 15th.

This last concert alone has never been produced for less than $150 a seat, while the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben are putting the entire six performances before the public for this amount, which is less than 60 cents for each concert.

Season seats will positively be taken from sale on the 15th of April, at which time single admission seats to the Nordica concert will be sold at $2, with $1 extra for reserved seats. Single admissions to the other five concerts will be $1 for reserved seats.

Altogether there are 2,400 splendid seats arranged at the den, so that those intending to take advantage of the low season ticket rate, should call at Mr. Penfold's store, 1408 Farnam street and make their own selections while these season tickets are on sale.

The Best Office Building

Moving is not pleasant to think about except when the prospect of a handsome office is in prospect. You have to get up a certain amount of steam to move, even when you are driven to desperation by poor janitor work, wretched elevator service and offices that have been long in need of paint as well as soap and water.

THE BEE BUILDING

always looks fresh and attractive because it is never allowed to get out of repair. This together with efficient janitor service make it a pleasant place to do business. Besides this the rents are no higher than in other buildings.
