This pending action. South Omahans are exercised over the affair, and also persons who need no pine for assistance or suggestions as to whom to select, for many there who are ready to tender their services, both as advisors and members. However, the governor has decided to take some action in this matter, and it is of the utmost importance that the public should be kept advised of the progress of the case.

Message from Governor

Governor Mickey transmitted to the senate and house this afternoon this message: "I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 7th inst. regarding the proposed amendment to the constitution of this state, and in reply to inform you that the same has been referred to the committee on the subject of amendments to the constitution, and that the committee will report thereon at an early day."

The joint conference committee's report on the general appropriation bill was adopted. The bill provides for the payment of the interest on the public debt, and for the payment of the principal of the same in 1904.

The house adopted resolutions extending thanks to Chief Clerk Wall and the chief stenographer, Miss Josephine Murphy, and heartily commending their services. This resolution by Seelye was adopted.

MRS. BIGELOW GETS DIVORCE

She May Marry Again, but Her Former Husband is Prohibited by Decree.

NEW YORK, April 7.—Mrs. Edith F. Bigelow has obtained an absolute divorce from Poultnier Bigelow on statutory grounds. Under the new law an interdictary decree has been entered in her favor and she will not be wholly free until three months after the filing of the paper in the county clerk's office.

Under the wording of the decree, Mrs. Bigelow will then be at liberty to remarry, "as though Mr. Bigelow were dead," while he is prohibited from remarriage, "until she is actually dead," a provision which will prevent him from having a marriage ceremony performed in this state, but not elsewhere.

Mrs. Bigelow came here from Europe during the winter for the avowed purpose of contacting his wife's suit. The case was referred to Charles Donahue, formerly a judge of the supreme court. Many witnesses were examined. The referee found that the charges had been sustained and decided in Mrs. Bigelow's favor.

By the terms of the decree one of the children, Mildred, is to remain in her father's custody, with the provision that her mother may see her and have access to her at any time. The other children, Edith, Evelyn and Dorothy, will remain with their mother. Their father may see them when he wishes, and each may decide when she becomes of sufficient age under the guardianship of which parent she will continue.

This decree was signed by Judge Blanchard of the supreme court. Mrs. Bigelow's maiden name was Jeffrey. She was married April 15, 1884, to Mr. Bigelow, a son of John Bigelow, a former United States minister to the court of St. James.

The German emperor's friendship for Mr. Bigelow is well known.

MRS. FAIR LIVED THE LONGER

Her Husband Was Dead While She Still Showed Signs of Life.

NEW YORK, April 7.—Evidence was given today by a witness who says he saw the automobile accident near Paris last August which resulted in the death of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fair before a referee in a suit instituted by Mrs. Fair's mother, Anna Nelson, and other relatives to recover from Mrs. Theresa Alice Oelrichs and Mrs. Virginia Vanderbilt, sisters of Mr. Fair, a large portion of the Fair estate.

It is contended that Mrs. Fair lived after her husband. The suit is expected to determine also whether an agreement to settle the estate by the payment of $250,000 shall be canceled.

Lucian Mass of Paris testified that he witnessed the accident and when he reached the scene Mr. Fair "was absolutely lifeless," but Mrs. Fair was breathing. He noticed a nervous contraction of her face and hands.
