We are headquarters for voiles, etamines, silk wrap voiles, Landowens etc and has pushed public improvements with a vigor that filled some of the heavy property owners and agents for non-residents with alarm, for fear that the board might turn its attention to improving some streets along which they have heavy holdings. A conference of the representatives of those interests resulted in a systematic crusade having been carried on for months against the board, those opposed to public improvement styling themselves anti-Courtesies in the way of passes were somewhat abundant and every effort made to get control of the village board. The fight narrowed to a demand for a continuation of the public improvements, equal taxation and that corporations keep their hands off from the elections, that the people be left to govern themselves, without the aid or consent of any corporation or its agents. The content has been waxing hotter and hotter for weeks and finally yesterday it terminated in the people going quietly to the polls and registering their convictions with the result that the village improvement ticket, consisting of J. M. Dow, E. V. Heaford and A. M. Smith was elected over the anti, J. W. Lattin, C. W. Coughlin and D. L. Johnson, with majorities ranging from fifty-one to sixty-six.

GOPHER KLAN WINS IN COURT

Judge Denies Mandamus to Compel City Committee to Act Fairly. After listening to two hours' argument yesterday afternoon, Judge Fawcett denied the mandamus asked by various candidates not identified with the Gopher Klan to compel the republican city committee to give them fair representation on the primary election boards. The judge said that the central committee invariably have acted arbitrarily and that this one is no exception, but that he didn't feel he had jurisdiction to compel it to meet again and undo things already done. City Attorney Council called his attention to the fact that the supreme court had done practically the same thing with the city Board of Equalization, but the district judge answered that in his opinion the supreme court had erred. "And, anyhow," the judge said, "a court cannot well mix into political rights too freely."

CASE TURNS ON A TECHNICAL POINT

Court Holds that the Relators Had Not Specifically Pleaded that Injury Would Follow Wrongful Act. After listening to two hours' argument yesterday afternoon, Judge Fawcett denied the mandamus asked by various candidates not identified with the Gopher Klan to compel the republican city committee to give them fair representation on the primary election boards. The judge said that the central committee invariably have acted arbitrarily and that this one is no exception, but that he didn't feel he had jurisdiction to compel it to meet again and undo things already done. City Attorney Council called his attention to the fact that the supreme court had done practically the same thing with the city Board of Equalization, but the district judge answered that in his opinion the supreme court had erred. "And, anyhow," the judge said, "a court cannot well mix into political rights too freely."

Home is Frank Enough.

The relators in this case had not, he said, specifically alleged that they were to be injured if the arrangement be changed. Then, with charming frankness, he added: "So, this rule being a correct one, no matter how wrongful may have been the action of the city committee, these relators have no legal ground for invoking mandamus. I say this merely that counsel on the other side may understand our position."

Arms for the Cadets.

A resolution passed by the Board of Education Monday night authorizes the expenditure of $602 for guns and other equipment for the High School Battalion.

INQUEST IN WALKER CASE

Coroner's Jury Holds Pat Jackson for the Fatal Shooting Last Friday. The H. J. Walker inquest was held late yesterday afternoon before Coroner Bralley and a small crowd of spectators who had gathered to hear the evidence in connection with the shooting. The inquest was conducted by County Attorney English, assisted by Deputy Weaver. The first witness sworn was Dr. J. E. Summers of Clarkson hospital, who testified relative to the wounds and the conversation which he had with Walker before he died Saturday afternoon. The physician stated that Walker said he "thought Jackson was his friend and would not shoot him, as he had no cause to pull a gun," and also that he "regretted that he was shot under such circumstances." Among the other witnesses sworn were Dr. Lemington of Clarkson hospital, who attended the autopsy; Mrs. T. Garrity, wife of the owner of the saloon where the shooting occurred, who admitted that Jackson assumed the aggressive and approached Walker before shooting him; Jesse Abel, the bartender, who saw the second shot fired; G. H. North, a spectator, who sat next to Walker just a few seconds before the fatal shot was fired; Gladys King, an habitue of the place, and Desk Sergeant Haver, Patrol Conductor Fahy and Officer Ryan, who testified relative to the case after the police went to work upon it. The verdict was that Walker "came to his death in Clarkson hospital from the effects of a pistol shot wound fired by Pat Jackson in T. Garrity's saloon, Eleventh street and Capitol avenue, on the night of April 2."

FAREWELL TO REV. E. F. TREFZ

He read letters of regret from a number of persons of Omaha and St. Joseph, Mo., the former home of Mr. Trefz. William F. Gurley spoke of "The Sun"

MOORES IN SEVENTH WARD

Mayor Addresses Large Meeting of Voters at Polish Hall. The largest gathering of republicans held in the Seventh ward for three years was assembled last night at Polish hall, Twenty-sixth and Walnut streets, the occasion being the meeting of the Seventh Ward Republican club and was addressed by Mayor Frank E. Moores and other candidates on the republican ticket. The meeting was called together by Joe Koutsky, who was later chosen chairman of the meeting. Those occupying seats on the platform were, besides the chairman, Mayor Frank E. Moores, Dan Coy, candidate for city inspector, Matthew J. Greavy, candidate for city tax commissioner, and Frank A. Johnson and John Russell, candidates for councilman from the Seventh ward. Mayor Moores was the first speaker and his appearance was greeted with applause. He said in part: "I am proud to be here with you tonight and it shows that you are interested in the political situation. It is proper that I should give you a few words of encouragement and my position in this campaign. I am decidedly in favor of municipal ownership of the public franchises. I believe that the water-works question has been settled along these lines and I believe that others will follow. My enemies have charged me with ruminous corruption during my administration as mayor. It has been charged that I have divided the proceeds of this corruption with two others. You will remember that at my inauguration a special session of the grand jury was called and I testified upon the most searching investigation into these charges and as you know their falsity was proven. Some Local Reforms. When I went into office a mayor of the town were paying a fee of $2 each per month to ply their vocations unimpeded. I soon put a stop to this practice and found a chief of police whom could trust and the practice was broken up entirely. I did not believe that you wanted your children educated by any such blood money. Then it was charged that I was getting the money raised by this means and was letting the saloons run wide open on Sundays without any effort at molestation. Under the new police commission do you see any change now? To gratify his spleen against me and to defeat me by every means in his power, this man Brochard, who is now responsible for my defeat and defeat after a few applications she desired it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with."

WITTING—Edward M. in Niorara, Neb.

WHAT THE OPPOSITION HOPES TO DO

Corporations and Sham Reformers Bend Their Energy to Drive Him from Office that They May Control. I have tried to conduct the affairs of the city for the last four or five years, I am owned by no corporation. I have incurred the enmity of the Burlington railway because I refused to grant concessions that I would not grant to other roads. I was approached by two parties in the interests of the railway with the proposition that they would send me to congress if I would vote a certain ordinance that they did not want passed. The temptation was great, but I refused to do so and was in the relative position of one Temptation on the Mountain, of which you have all read. I recently called a special session of the council and order to secure the passage of an ordinance to let the people of Omaha vote on the proposition of buying electric light plants. There were but three members of the council present at that meeting. I think Mr. Nash must have been one of the absentees. The officials of the corporations either own the town and run the people of the people must take the corporations in hand and run their own municipal affairs. In favor of compelling the railroads to pay their just proportion of the taxes. Why, as a matter of fact, the railroads pay the taxes of the city, then the wholesale house of M. E. Smith, I am heartily in favor of equal taxation, and I am heartily in favor of the officials elected that next fall I will appoint a board of tax revision and let us have every corporation and corporation shall pay their just proportion of taxes. Legislature and Omaha. Let us be thankful that the legislature is now a thing of the past. The Omaha members of the legislature have not done much, but they have tried hard to do one thing, and that was to legislate me out of office from Iowa. I am heartily in favor of the legislature and anti-Omaha delegation all through, and anti-everything except for the railroads and corporations. Senator Hill has said that we do not want lower telephone rates. John N. Baldwin came over from Iowa to show me his bill in Omaha what to do and what we wanted. I am heartily in favor of the Board of Public Works was gotten up simply to make the appropriation of $100,000 from the mayor. When Westberg pushed his bill through he expected to be re-elected. But he did not think he thinks he will be elected now. Promises to Support Moores. Short addresses were also made by Dan Coy, M. J. Greavy, Frank A. Johnson and John Russell. Mayor Moores' speech was frequently interrupted with applause and the unanimous determination was to send the Frank Moores delegation from the Seventh to the city convention. The following constitute the Moores delegation: H. H. Baldrige, A. C. Kennedy, J. W. Stone, H. B. Allen, N. B. Updike, Dan Coy, R. E. Brown, John T. Yates, W. H. Sherraden, J. E. Thatcher, Simon Goetz, John Grant, F. G. Davis, Tom Carey and Alex Backlund.

"Omaha Billy" Arrested.

The Council Bluffs police have arrested a noted crook, who is known to the Omaha police as "Omaha Billy." The officials in Council Bluffs have received information from the department in this city to notify them of the prisoner's record and to determine if he is wanted elsewhere. "Omaha Billy" is supposed to have held up and robbed a gambling house in Sioux City and the officials there will be conferred with. The prisoner was taken into custody during the search for the murderer of Saloonist Forester.

TENDERS BRIBE, IS HELD

Baking Powder Agent Offers $1,000 to Missouri Lieutenant Governor. Mails Check Which is Handed Over to Attorney General and Leads to His Arrest in New York. NEW YORK, April 7.—Daniel J. Kelly, who is said to be the owner of the "American Queen," was today arraigned on an unspecified charge laid by Attorney General Crow of Missouri. Kelly was paroled on his own recognizance. ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 7.—D. J. Kelly is wanted as witness by the county grand jury, which is investigating alleged bribery during the last two general assemblies. JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., April 7.—Daniel J. Kelly, as the representative of a baking powder combination, endeavored to prevent the passage of a bill repealing the law prohibiting the use of alum in the manufacture of baking powder during the session of the legislature just ended, registered at a hotel here under the name of Brown. His arrest in New York today was the result of an alleged attempt to bribe the lieutenant governor to use his influence in the senate to defeat the bill.
