

ASTHMA CONSUMPTION CATARRH BRONCHITIS THE EIKER-HOFF CURE—A new discovery.—A clear, transparent, almost tasteless solution (manufactured under an open formula), prescribed in six-drop doses, which does not derange, weaken, nauseate, or affect the stomach.

Following are a few of the testimonials received during the week ending April 4. TWELVE HUNDRED more like them covering every phase, description and symptom of disease for which the EIKER-HOFF CURE is a specific, together with full details of positive cures, can be had at Beaton Drug Co.

These testimonials tell the story. I am nearly out of my mind and am now writing for another bottle of your Eiker-Hoff Cure. To say I am a hundred times better since I began taking the Eiker-Hoff Cure would be putting it very mild. I am so much better that I cannot wait to tell you how much better I am. I am both better and looking fine. A friend of mine told me the other day that she never saw me looking so well as long as she knew me. It is all on account of your Eiker-Hoff Cure. I will cough a little in the morning, but so little that I hardly notice it. I have an occasional pain in the chest, but not very often, and nothing that I did not have a month ago. I should have written you sooner, but to tell you the truth I am so much better that I hesitated. My cough has almost stopped. The most I ever cough in is in the morning, and the most I expectorate is in the morning, and then not very much. I am now nearly getting my health back again. Before I took the Eiker-Hoff Cure I was afraid that I would not live much longer.

Mrs. Mildred Stansbury, Wadsworth, N. Y. I have used a sample bottle of the Eiker-Hoff Cure for consumption. I have tried it for asthma and am free from it for the first time in seven years. I do not know how to thank you enough. SARAH M. HOYT, No. 211 S. Thomas St., Los Angeles, Cal. I am now taking a rest for one week and am feeling excellent. I am steadily taking my Eiker-Hoff Cure and the cough, which has been in the first class and I sleep good, thanks to your Eiker-Hoff Cure. I wish success to your Eiker-Hoff Cure. I remain, JOHN CALHOUN, 366 Howard St., Detroit, Mich. Enclosed find $1 for one month's treatment of your Eiker-Hoff Cure. I have taken one bottle and I am better, but not cured. I thought I would try another bottle. I rest better at night. I am twenty-three, heavier than I was when I was a boy. JAMES M. BLAIR, Glasgow, Ill. I have nearly finished the fourth bottle of your Eiker-Hoff Cure which you sent me. I am feeling better and I am glad to say that my asthma is all gone. I have not had it for over twenty years. I can now do all the work I want to do. I should like to take more bottles to make sure. F. L. BAKER, No. 210 Pearl St., Malden, Mass. We have used your Eiker-Hoff Cure in our family with perfect satisfaction for consumption and asthma and there are other people I know of, so if you need an agent here I can help you. S. H. KEANE, No. 24 South 11th St., Philadelphia, Pa.

See that the "Bull's Eye" trade mark of the Hoff Medicine is on every bottle. No other is authorized. BEATON DRUG COMPANY, S. W. Cor. 15th and Farnam.

TABLE AND KITCHEN MEATS. BREAKFAST. Sliced Bananas. Cream. Fried Brains. Bacon. Stewed Potatoes. Coffee. LUNCH. Macaroni a la Reine. Shrimp Salad. Spiced Fruit. Coffee Cake. DINNER. Hollandaise Soup. Tartar a la Creme. Mashed Potatoes. Creamed Parsnips. Spinach. Lettuce. Creamed Rice. Coffee. Noodle Soup—For this soup purchase a neck piece of beef weighing three or four pounds. Cut into cubes; put in the soup kettle with three quarts of water, an onion stuck with two cloves, and celery root, two small carrots, sliced three tomatoes, a large potato cut in quarters and a couple of sprigs of parsley. If you have them on hand add some chicken giblets. Place a tight fitting cover over the kettle and let it simmer gently for four hours. As the hour expires, skim carefully. When done strain, skim off every particle of fat and season to taste with salt and pepper. Put in the noodles and let boil up for five or ten minutes, then serve at once. Do not let stand to get thick and pasty. Noodle Puffs for Soup—Roll out noodle paste as directed; fold double and cut into circles about as large as 10-cent pieces; fry in deep hot fat, tossing them about to separate them and allow them to puff up into little balls and brown quickly. Drain them, placing them on paper in the oven

A Shrewd Investor will be glad to know how the greatest accumulation of trust funds in the world is invested. A young man who is just beginning to accumulate and invest his savings will be interested in a booklet that describes the investments of The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. This information is found in "A Banker's Will." Sent free on application.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, RICHARD A. MCCOY, President. FLEMING BROS., Managers, Omaha, Neb., Des Moines, Iowa.

NEW BOOKS AND MAGAZINES

Another New York Story by the Author of "Chimnie McFadden." A TALE OF CALIFORNIA LIFE FOR GIRLS. Appletons Publish a History of Porto Rico by R. A. Van Middeldyk. "The Star Dreamer" is an English Romance.

"Lees and Looven" is a New York story by Edward Townsend, the author of "Chimnie McFadden" and various other tales. The critics claim that some of Mr. Townsend's scenes portraying New York life are too brutal and thereby hang a tale to Emil Zola's comment on certain phases of life in Gotham. When Mr. Townsend was a newspaper man one of the biggest plagues of reporting was the famous Lexow committee's investigation of municipal corruption in New York. His daily reports of these proceedings were sent by a justice of the supreme court of New York to Emil Zola, who was a friend and correspondent of the justice. Commenting on Mr. Townsend's account of two instances of police brutality which were especially heinous, Zola wrote: "These being facts, your novelists will not have to engage their powers of invention for the exhibition of human brutality, the like of which I have but seldom read of daring to imagine." The instances spoken of by Zola were incorporated in the book, and the point of the story is that they are just the ones to which the critics take exception. Published by McClure, Phillips & Co.

"The Story of a Bird Lover," by W. E. D. Scott, is a book which tells of the love of birds and the study of their lives and habits form the theme throughout. A unique feature of his equipment for the study of bird life is his "laboratory" of five birds. It is composed of six rooms in his own house, a genuine religious work which is primarily for the purpose of conducting investigations that may lead to a better understanding of birds out-of-doors, and the problems which their life presents. The birds are absolutely tame and fearless and exhibit strong attachment for Mr. Scott. His book tells with absorbing interest the story of his life, of how he came to study and love birds, of the studies and investigations by which he acquired his great knowledge of bird life and nature, and of his travels in many little-known parts of this country. Published by the Outlook company.

"Triumphs of Science," one of the Youth's Companion series, is a work which presents in a brief and entertaining form a great deal of information about some of the great scientific triumphs of the age. It is made up of explanations and descriptions of many of the wonders of workmanship and ingenuity which have attended the advancement of scientific thought. Published by Ginn & Co. "Closely Strained," by Louis Alexander Robertson, published by the author from Stratford, is chiefly a compilation of strains that have appeared in "Beyond the Requiem," "The Dead Calypso" and in the press. Their present arrangement is intended to present in one volume those relating only to sacred subjects.

"The History of Puerto Rico," by R. A. Van Middeldyk, is the first to give to the reader of English a record of Spanish rule in this "pearl of the Antilles." Mr. Van Middeldyk is the librarian of the free public library of San Juan, an institution created under American civil control. He has had access to all data obtainable in the island and has faithfully and conscientiously woven this data into a connected narrative, thus giving the reader a view of the social and institutional life of the island for 400 years. The author has endeavored to portray salient characteristics of the life on the island, to describe the various acts of the reigning government, to point out the evils of colonial rule and to figure the general history of the island, to give a general view of the social and institutional life of the island in a manner that enables the reader to form a fairly accurate judgment of the past and present state of Puerto Rico. Published by D. Appleton & Co.

"The Star Dreamer," by Agnes and Egeria Castle, is a romance in which the scene is laid in an old English country village three-quarters of a century ago, and a little more. The story is told in a simple, direct, and unadorned style, and is a study in the life of a young man who spends his nights in the stars and his days in the study of the stars and planets. The story is a study in the life of a young man who spends his nights in the stars and his days in the study of the stars and planets. The story is a study in the life of a young man who spends his nights in the stars and his days in the study of the stars and planets.

"The Legatee," by Alice Prescott Smith, is a novel in which the hero is a southern and inherits a lumber mill in a Wisconsin town, and with it the legacy of his uncle's relations to the townspeople, which were not always friendly. He finds himself involved in various antagonisms, with the northern sentiment of the people, a lingering effect of the war; with his working men, and with a group of socialistic and temperance fanatics. The clouds of opposition gradually gather about him and break at last in a strike, during which attempts are made upon the life of the hero. The climax of feeling in the story is a great forest fire which sweeps through all the region, burning a number of the people. The hero succeeds in rescuing some of the survivors, and finds, and finds, that it has been conspired also all fire is past, and left a feeling of harmony in which he is able to work, together with the people, for the future of the town. Published by Houghton, Mifflin Co.

"In Pleadings," by Benjamin Swift, is a story of London high society, in which Beatrice Ossington joined Debrisay, her former lover, who makes her conspicuous before all the fashionable world by showing her and her husband every hour during the few moons of their wedded life. The husband naturally wants to murder him, but in that he is not ahead of Debrisay, who debates continually whether or not he shall kill the false one. Then Ninian, Debrisay's bosom friend and the idolized son of the old Laird of Bargarra, inadvertently betrays a secret concerning Debrisay, at which Debrisay and Ossington turn upon him. Lord Ossington lays a plan to slay him, as it were, by accident.

KING ACTS LEGAL COMEDY

Suspends Serbian Constitution for Few Moments Only. TIME SUFFICES TO REPEAL MANY LAWS. Monarch Strikes at Enactments Aimed at Crown's Authority and Makes It Harder for Radicals to Be Elected.

BELGRADE, Servia, April 7.—King Alexander today executed a coup d'etat. He issued two proclamations, the first suspending the constitution adopted April 19, 1901, repealing objectionable laws passed thereunder by retiring the senators and councilors of state, dissolving the skupshtina and re-enacting the laws as they existed previous to the constitution of 1901. The second proclamation restored the constitution. VIENNA, April 7.—King Alexander's political jugglery is regarded as a dangerous experiment, but does not occasion any great surprise, as the king's desire to curb the power of the radicals has long been manifest. The manner in which the coup d'etat was effected partakes of the nature of a comedy. During the few minutes that the constitution was suspended King Alexander was an absolute monarch. These moments sufficed him to dissolve the skupshtina and abolish half a dozen laws which, he said, undermined the authority of the crown. The obnoxious laws relate chiefly to the suffrage and will be replaced by measures calculated to render the election of the radicals extremely difficult. The press law of 1901 gives place to the more stringent measure enacted in 1882.

Why Members American Medical Association should use Frisco system en route to New Orleans meeting. Save twelve to fifteen hours at home by leaving Omaha and neighboring cities in forenoon, reaching Kansas City in time to connect with the Southeastern Limited, leaving 6:30 p. m., reaching New Orleans 7:45 p. m. (only one night out) through Pullman sleepers Kansas City to New Orleans without change; observation cafe cars, supper Kansas City, breakfast Memphis, dinner Jackson, Miss.; daylight trip Memphis to New Orleans affording opportunity to see the country and becoming familiar with some of the characteristics of the south; last but not least, the low rate of one fare through to New Orleans and return. Mr. W. C. Melville, passenger agent Frisco System, 205 South Fourteenth street, this city, will look after the interests of members in this section so far as to procuring tickets and reserving sleeping car accommodations.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. August Meum of Wiener and A. R. Wilcox of Grant are at the Karbach. Senator and Mrs. W. Young of Stanton, Anton Hansen, H. Stedman of Shelton and Peabody of Nelson are registered at the Murray. B. F. Griffin, J. P. Latta of Tekamah, Charles Kendrick of West Point, F. Hanna of Lincoln, E. F. Craven of Walnut, Ia., are registered at the Millard. George H. Buraham, E. A. Buzer of Sandy Hill, Knox Tipple of Stanton and Mr. J. H. Stedman of Shelton are among last evening's arrivals at the Paxton. C. C. Willis of San Francisco, Mrs. J. J. Harrington of O'Neill, Mrs. E. L. Davidson of Lincoln, W. C. Fowler of Cheyenne and A. E. Eder of Pawnee are at the Iler. Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Martin of Chadron, D. W. Schott of Columbus, J. E. Hurta of Lincoln, F. C. Kinney of Fairbury, and G. A. Mackay of San Francisco are registered at the DeWitt. Hon. R. H. Harris, banker and ranch owner of Lynch, Neb., is in Omaha on business. Mr. Harris is one of the old residents of northeastern Nebraska and has extensive interests there. Last night, in company with Julius S. Cooley, he listened to the play at the Boyd.

LOCAL BREVITIES. Besseie Peterson petitions for divorce from Victor, alleging extreme cruelty and non-support. They were married in Omaha August 15, 1901. Mary Barta, by James Barta, has started suit against the Cudahy Packing company for $1,000. She claims the company's right hand crushed November 25 while attempting to open a can packer with which she was not familiar. James Callahan petitions the district court for a receiver for the Callahan Printing company, 711 South Sixteenth street, and for $500 damages from his partner, William J. Chadwick, who, plaintiff avers, took possession of the business April 1, 1903, and forcibly excluded plaintiff from participating in any manner whatsoever. Ernest Gall has commenced suit in district court against Charles M. Williamson for $200, alleging he was damaged in that amount by Williamson's having him arrested and taken to jail March 9 on a charge of disturbing the peace. In police court plaintiff avers, he was acquitted and discharged. During the term he spent in jail before he secured bail he was, he avers, compelled to associate with evil men of low and vicious habits, very repugnant to him.

"The Wanderer's Legend," by Maxwell Sommerville, the author of "Engaged Gems," "Sands of Sahara," "Siam" and other works, who is professor of geography and history of Pennsylvania, has taken for the theme of his book the journals of Abasuerus. The fatal error of the Jew who refused a resting place to the suffering Son of Man on His way to the cross is told, and the reply, "Thou shalt not be buried here," is given. The strange lands and peoples seen by the Jew are described in a work which might be classified as "Ancient History." The journey through-out is one of peculiar interest and instruction and will repay a careful reading. Published by Drexel Biddle.

"How to Make Money," an unusual and valuable little book, containing more than eighty detailed suggestions to untrained women for adding to their income, edited by Katherine Donnelly, Page & Co. All the ideas are drawn from actual experience and in consequence they attracted much attention when published serially. A number of women are now successfully working out the ideas thus brought to their notice. The language of the women who are anxious to work and have some capacity, but lack the knowledge to make use of it, will find the book extremely helpful.

Lonesome Peace Disturber. William Coleman of 29 North Thirtieth street had the distinction of being the only person arrested during the hour between 1 o'clock yesterday evening and midnight. Officer Halterman sent him for disturbing the peace of the neighborhood in which he lives.

A Thoughtful Husband cured his wife of fainting and dizzy spells, weakness, headache and backache with the Bitters. Try them. For sale by Kuhn & Co.

Advertisement for 'A TREAT' biscuits, featuring an image of a biscuit and the text 'A TREAT FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY AS TOAST'.

KING ACTS LEGAL COMEDY

Suspends Serbian Constitution for Few Moments Only. TIME SUFFICES TO REPEAL MANY LAWS. Monarch Strikes at Enactments Aimed at Crown's Authority and Makes It Harder for Radicals to Be Elected.

BELGRADE, Servia, April 7.—King Alexander today executed a coup d'etat. He issued two proclamations, the first suspending the constitution adopted April 19, 1901, repealing objectionable laws passed thereunder by retiring the senators and councilors of state, dissolving the skupshtina and re-enacting the laws as they existed previous to the constitution of 1901. The second proclamation restored the constitution. VIENNA, April 7.—King Alexander's political jugglery is regarded as a dangerous experiment, but does not occasion any great surprise, as the king's desire to curb the power of the radicals has long been manifest. The manner in which the coup d'etat was effected partakes of the nature of a comedy. During the few minutes that the constitution was suspended King Alexander was an absolute monarch. These moments sufficed him to dissolve the skupshtina and abolish half a dozen laws which, he said, undermined the authority of the crown. The obnoxious laws relate chiefly to the suffrage and will be replaced by measures calculated to render the election of the radicals extremely difficult. The press law of 1901 gives place to the more stringent measure enacted in 1882.

Why Members American Medical Association should use Frisco system en route to New Orleans meeting. Save twelve to fifteen hours at home by leaving Omaha and neighboring cities in forenoon, reaching Kansas City in time to connect with the Southeastern Limited, leaving 6:30 p. m., reaching New Orleans 7:45 p. m. (only one night out) through Pullman sleepers Kansas City to New Orleans without change; observation cafe cars, supper Kansas City, breakfast Memphis, dinner Jackson, Miss.; daylight trip Memphis to New Orleans affording opportunity to see the country and becoming familiar with some of the characteristics of the south; last but not least, the low rate of one fare through to New Orleans and return. Mr. W. C. Melville, passenger agent Frisco System, 205 South Fourteenth street, this city, will look after the interests of members in this section so far as to procuring tickets and reserving sleeping car accommodations.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. August Meum of Wiener and A. R. Wilcox of Grant are at the Karbach. Senator and Mrs. W. Young of Stanton, Anton Hansen, H. Stedman of Shelton and Peabody of Nelson are registered at the Murray. B. F. Griffin, J. P. Latta of Tekamah, Charles Kendrick of West Point, F. Hanna of Lincoln, E. F. Craven of Walnut, Ia., are registered at the Millard. George H. Buraham, E. A. Buzer of Sandy Hill, Knox Tipple of Stanton and Mr. J. H. Stedman of Shelton are among last evening's arrivals at the Paxton. C. C. Willis of San Francisco, Mrs. J. J. Harrington of O'Neill, Mrs. E. L. Davidson of Lincoln, W. C. Fowler of Cheyenne and A. E. Eder of Pawnee are at the Iler. Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Martin of Chadron, D. W. Schott of Columbus, J. E. Hurta of Lincoln, F. C. Kinney of Fairbury, and G. A. Mackay of San Francisco are registered at the DeWitt. Hon. R. H. Harris, banker and ranch owner of Lynch, Neb., is in Omaha on business. Mr. Harris is one of the old residents of northeastern Nebraska and has extensive interests there. Last night, in company with Julius S. Cooley, he listened to the play at the Boyd.

LOCAL BREVITIES. Besseie Peterson petitions for divorce from Victor, alleging extreme cruelty and non-support. They were married in Omaha August 15, 1901. Mary Barta, by James Barta, has started suit against the Cudahy Packing company for $1,000. She claims the company's right hand crushed November 25 while attempting to open a can packer with which she was not familiar. James Callahan petitions the district court for a receiver for the Callahan Printing company, 711 South Sixteenth street, and for $500 damages from his partner, William J. Chadwick, who, plaintiff avers, took possession of the business April 1, 1903, and forcibly excluded plaintiff from participating in any manner whatsoever. Ernest Gall has commenced suit in district court against Charles M. Williamson for $200, alleging he was damaged in that amount by Williamson's having him arrested and taken to jail March 9 on a charge of disturbing the peace. In police court plaintiff avers, he was acquitted and discharged. During the term he spent in jail before he secured bail he was, he avers, compelled to associate with evil men of low and vicious habits, very repugnant to him.

"The Wanderer's Legend," by Maxwell Sommerville, the author of "Engaged Gems," "Sands of Sahara," "Siam" and other works, who is professor of geography and history of Pennsylvania, has taken for the theme of his book the journals of Abasuerus. The fatal error of the Jew who refused a resting place to the suffering Son of Man on His way to the cross is told, and the reply, "Thou shalt not be buried here," is given. The strange lands and peoples seen by the Jew are described in a work which might be classified as "Ancient History." The journey through-out is one of peculiar interest and instruction and will repay a careful reading. Published by Drexel Biddle.

"How to Make Money," an unusual and valuable little book, containing more than eighty detailed suggestions to untrained women for adding to their income, edited by Katherine Donnelly, Page & Co. All the ideas are drawn from actual experience and in consequence they attracted much attention when published serially. A number of women are now successfully working out the ideas thus brought to their notice. The language of the women who are anxious to work and have some capacity, but lack the knowledge to make use of it, will find the book extremely helpful.

Lonesome Peace Disturber. William Coleman of 29 North Thirtieth street had the distinction of being the only person arrested during the hour between 1 o'clock yesterday evening and midnight. Officer Halterman sent him for disturbing the peace of the neighborhood in which he lives.

A Thoughtful Husband cured his wife of fainting and dizzy spells, weakness, headache and backache with the Bitters. Try them. For sale by Kuhn & Co.

Advertisement for 'A TREAT' biscuits, featuring an image of a biscuit and the text 'A TREAT FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY AS TOAST'.

THE BOOKLOVERS LIBRARY. A Two-Minute Talk TO INVESTORS. The Shares of THE BOOKLOVERS LIBRARY Corporation have had an unparalleled record. The stock is held in the United States, Canada and England by widely known literary, professional and business people. Among the library's shareholders are hundreds of names familiar to almost every cultured home. No broker, or banker, or underwriter has had a hand in the sales. The sole backing of the concern has been its enterprise, its continuous push, and its far-seeing business policy. Every dollar invested shows a hundred cents' worth of extended and established earning capacity.

The plans outlined from time to time have been carried forward in the most aggressive sort of way. We have done what we said we would do. We planned to extend the Booklovers to every important city of the United States; the libraries are there. We promised to include Canada; the two successful centers of Montreal and Toronto are the result; from these cities the service extends to outlying Canadian cities and towns. We made arrangements for extending the work to England; today the Booklovers is the talk of London; it is delivering books throughout Great Britain and includes among its patrons scores of the most distinguished families. We promised an auxiliary library to take care of the field not occupied by the Booklovers; the Tabard Inn, with its revolving book-cases and five-cent exchanges, is extending the library privileges to thousands of country towns; the earnings of this one department at the present time exceed one thousand dollars a day, with only one twentieth of the field covered. This new library department was started only a year ago. In another year it will have an earning capacity largely in excess even of the Booklovers. Last fall we announced the preparation of a monthly magazine to round out our publicity plan; today The Booklovers Magazine sells out its complete edition by the fifteenth of each month; it is owned independently by shareholders of the parent company, and presents all the elements of an excellent property.

We are building into the future; the whole book, and publishing trade is undergoing rapid and far-reaching changes; there is a new book published in the United States, every hour, day and night, and this enormous output must have its distributing machinery. Millions invested in central storehouses of granite or marble can never change the popular current. The American people want an up-to-date service in books as well as in newspapers, and they are willing to pay for it with their own cash. There is no denying the fact that the Booklovers is already a tremendous power among the book interests of the country; it has battled its way to the front, where it means to stay.

We need a central library and office building of our own, and we intend to build one just as soon as a desirable central property in Philadelphia can be secured. This is the next important thing to be done. The block of 50,000 Shares of Stock referred to below has been set aside largely for this purpose.

In connection with this public offer of a comparatively small block of Booklovers stock there are four inside facts which I want to make public over my own signature: 1. The Booklovers earnings during the three months ending February 28th were the largest in the history of the enterprise; 2. The operating expenses per library member were never smaller than at the present time; 3. The "used books" are wholly taken care of at good prices by auxiliary library departments; 4. The Corporation pays cash, and has no debts other than its current monthly accounts.

No additional capital is needed for the Booklovers; the increased capital is being used at the present time to extend the Tabard Inn and other departments; these auxiliary libraries are necessary to round out the best interests of the enterprise at large; they are "by-products" of the business, and they offer opportunity for very large profits.

The Corporation is capitalized for $2,600,000 (260,000 Shares at $10 each). Of this amount 190,000 Shares have already been subscribed and paid for at the par value of $10, making the present cash capital $1,900,000. There remain in the Treasury only 70,000 Shares. Of this remaining block the Directors have authorized the Treasurer to set aside 50,000 shares to be offered for sale on May 15th next, at $12 a Share. The remainder, consisting of 20,000 Shares, is now offered to the public in lots of Ten Shares or more at $10 a Share. The terms are 10 per cent with the application and the balance in sixty days. Stock applied for by telegraph will be held five days to await deposit and formal application. (See form of application below.) The sale of this block of 20,000 Shares at $10 and of the remaining block of 50,000 Shares on May 15th at $12 will give the Company a completely paid-up Capital. This announcement gives investors the last opportunity they will have of buying Booklovers at $10 a Share.

The Booklovers Corporation has paid dividends at the rate of 10 per cent per year since August 1, 1900. The last half-yearly dividend was paid on February 20th. The half-yearly dividend periods end June 30th and December 31st, respectively. The Corporation has no bonded debts, and its stock when fully paid is non-assessable. All Shares become dividend-bearing from the date of final payment. Dividends are payable in February and August.

Application form for Booklovers stock, including fields for name, address, and signature, and a section for the applicant to fill out.