More New Foulard Silks

This season's demand for soft, clinging, non-crushable silks, for the pretty, new shirt waist suit, is very great. There is no material that quite answers the purpose like a pretty foulard silk.

New Black Grenadines.

Grenadines have a realm of their own. Women wear them on certain occasions—there is nothing quite so dainty for weddings, dinners, receptions, dances, etc.

Closing Out the Pretty New Silks.

Two broken lines of colors in the new silks for the pretty shirt waist suits. On account of the great selling of these pretty silks. We have not a full line of colors in either number that we wish to close—hence this low price.

he would be guilty of the conduct of which he has been accused. And for myself I wish to say that I am not a member of the D. O. C. and I am not a member of anybody else to impugn his motives.

Hits at Hackburs. McAllister of Des Moines a word, saying: "When I see a member obliged to move to another part of the house to keep from listening to the dictates of lobbyists, I think it is high time that I was voting against the measure that he and the lobbyists are for."

"This debate has degenerated into a personal attack on our speaker," said the venerable minority leader, who had only a few moments before offered a resolution and made a speech in commendation of Speaker Mockett.

"This bill is a disgrace to the house," said the speaker, "and I am not a member of the D. O. C. and I am not a member of anybody else to impugn his motives."

When the house reconvened at 8:30 tonight, after a recess of one hour, Ten Eyck asked the privilege of the floor and offered a resolution.

"The only change then in the old law made by this bill as passed by the senate and house, is that the employes whose wages exceed $15 per month may be compelled by legal process to apply one-fifth of his monthly earnings to the discharge of his indebtedness contracted for the necessities of life."

Representative Jones explains the bill as follows: "The only change then in the old law made by this bill as passed by the senate and house, is that the employes whose wages exceed $15 per month may be compelled by legal process to apply one-fifth of his monthly earnings to the discharge of his indebtedness contracted for the necessities of life."

Of the Douglas county men in the house, Nelson, Gilbert, Ten Eyck and Marsman voted against the bill and Kennedy and Mangold for it, while Shelly and Koetter were absent when the vote was taken.

Wolf Bounty Wins. After a long and spirited fight between the house and the senate it has been decided to pay the wolf bounty claim of $40,000. The decision was reached this afternoon when the senate conference committee receded in behalf of the senate in cutting out this claim and the senate adopted the report of the committee.

Railroad Bill Falls. The Union Pacific failed to force through the house S. F. 202 by President Pro Tem Harrison of the senate, by means of which that corporation sought to evade a portion of its school taxes.

When the house reconvened at 8:30 tonight, after a recess of one hour, Ten Eyck asked the privilege of the floor and offered a resolution.

Exemption Bill. S. F. 87, by Norris of Richardson, the exemption bill, has passed both houses. It has a hard time. Besieged by intermittent onslaughts from organized labor, it took all the power and skill its friends could command to force the measure through.

Board Custodian of Halls. The power to purchase supplies for the legislature and the custody of the legislative halls and property have been removed from the secretary of state and vested in the board of public lands and buildings by the passage of S. F. 275 and S. F. 276 by the house today.

Senate Puts Through Bills. Many House Bills Passed in the Closing Hours of the Session. (From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, April 8.—(Special.)—The senate spent most of the afternoon awaiting the report of the conference committee having completed its labor at an early hour.

Resolved, That the thanks of the senate be due and are hereby tendered to Hon. H. H. McMillan for the able manner in which he has presided over this body during his term of office and courtesy to the members of the legislature displayed by him in the discharge of his duties.

After taking a recess for "about a minute" at 1 o'clock last night, the senate reconvened at 2 o'clock this morning. These bills were passed: H. R. 229, defining abandonment by husband and the penalty therefor.

In cities should be separate from other funds. H. R. 165, providing for drainage for agricultural and sanitary purposes.

HOUSE PASSES EXEMPTION BILL. Motion to Postpone All Bills on General File Causes Confusion. (From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, April 8.—(Special.)—The "Avenue recess" taken at 1:30 this morning expired at 9 o'clock, when the house reconvened.

Another motion by Sweeney carried placing these two bills on third reading. Resolutions were adopted thanking Lieutenant Governor McGilton for the able manner in which he had presided over the senate and for his courtesy to each member of that body.

The conference committee on the wolf bounty claim reported that it had adopted the report of the committee. The senate adopted the report and the house followed.
