circuit court of appeals today at noon States against The Northern Securities Company, enjoining the company from voting the stock of the Northern Pacific or Great Northern Railroad companies, but allowing the return of such stock as had been delivered to that holding company.

The opinion was unanimous, all four judges concurring, but the opinion was written by Judge Thayer.

Securities Stock Rendered Worthless. The substance of the order is in the decree, which is as follows:

eree, which is as follows:

A decree in favor of the United States accordingly will be to the following effect: Adjudging that the stock of the Northern Facilic and Great Northern Railway companies, now held by the Securities company, was acquired in virtue of a combination among the defendants in restraint of trade and commerce among the several states, such as the anti-trust act denounces as lilegal; enjoining the Securities company from acquiring or attempting to acquire further stock of said companies; also enjoining it from voting such stock at any meeting of the stockholders of either of said railroad companies or exercising or jelling it from voting such stock at any meeting of the stockholders of either of said railroad companies or exercising or attempting to exercise any control, direction or supervision of influence over the acts of said companies or either of them by virtue of its holding such stock; enjoining the Northern Pacific and Great Narthern companies respectively, their officers, directors or agents, from permitting such stock to be voted by the Northern Securities company or any of its agents or attorneys on its behalf at any corporate election for directors or officers of either of said companies, and likewise enjoining them from paying any dividends to the Securities company or suffering the Securities company to exercise any control, whatsoever, over the corporate acts of said companies or to direct the policy of either, and linaily, permitting the Securities company to return and transfer this stock to the stockholders of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern companies, any and all shares of stock of those companies which it may have received from such stockholders and owners of its stock originally issued for the stock of said companies.

Parallel and Competing Lines,

Parallel and Competing Lines Circuit Judge Thayer stated the conclusions of the court. He recites the petition which was brought under the anti-trust act ry 11, 1903, this case, being of "general public importance," has been given nce over others and in every way spedited. It is declared that under the admission of the defendants the matter of fact are that the roads were parallel and competing lines, that they had jointly secured control of the Burlington, that in 1901 a holding company had been formed by large owners of the stock of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern rallways, which new company large stock interests had been acquired at an agreed price. and the court holds that "the scheme thus devised and consummated led inevitably to the following results:

First.—It placed the control of the two roads in the hands of a single person, towit: The Securities company, by virtue of its ownership of a large majority of the stock of both companies; second, it destroyed every motive for competition between the two roads engaged in interstate traffic which were natural competitors for business, by pooling the earnings of the two roads for the combined benefit of the stock-holders of both companies; and, according to the familiar rule, we must conclude that those who conserved and executed the plan aforesaid, intended, among other things, to accomplish these objects. to the following results:

Meaning of the Word Trust, On the point whether the present case somes within the inhibition of the antitrust act, the court discusses the meaning of the word "trust" in the act and adds that congress was careful to declare that a combine in any other form, if in restraint of the insurgents. During the attack the of trade or commerce, that is, if it directly occasioned or effected such restraint, should likawise be doemed illegal. Moreover, in cases rising under the act, it has been held by the highest judicial authority in the nation, and its opinion has been reiterated in no uncertain tone, that the act applies to interstate carriers of freight and passengers, as well as to all other persons, natural or artificial; that the words restraint of trade of commerce," do not mean unreasonable or partial restraint of trade or commerce, but any direct restraint thereof; that an agreement between competing railroads, which requires them to act in concert in fixing the rate for the carriage of passengers or freight over their respective lines from one state to another. and which by that means restricts temporarily the right of any other carriers to are still in hiding. name any rates for the carriage of such freight or passengers over its road, as it pleases, is a contract in direct restraint of commerce within the meaning of the act, in that it tends to prevent competition that it matters not whether, while acting under such a contract, the rate fixed is reasonable or unreasonable, the vice of such a contract or combination being that it confers the power to establish unreasonable rates and directly restrains commerce by placing obstacles in the way of free and unrestricted competition between carriers who are natural rivals for patronage; and, finally, that congress has the power, under the grant of authority contained in the federal constitution, to regu-

The ceremony ended with the emperor hanging bag containing thirty pieces of silver around each man's neck. His majesty appeared to be in excellent health. There was a large gathering of court, BERLIN, April 9 .- Heinrich Pariser, a wealthy money lender, was sentenced today to two years' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $2,500 for usury. Sixty specifications were brought, including the complaints of several noblemes and army officers. In one instance he charged a Baron "H." (the court did not permit his name to be known) 26 per cent, which the baron paid, though he had an unmortgaged income from a landed estate amounting to $25,000 yearly. Another exceptional case was that of a millionaire who paid interest at the rate of 100 per cent for a short-term loan of $5,000. Pariser admitted having charged the rates mentioned, but he said that the enormous risks reduced his profits to 10 per cent on the capital invested and said his "gambling on human nature" enabled him to make only 5 per cent more than in regular business. Watterson Fears Armed Conflict Between Labor and Capital.

URGES NORTH AND LOUTH TO HEAL SORES

Points to Negro Problem, Claiming that Suffrage Has Proved Failure and Cannot Succeed Till Blacks Evolve.

CHICAGO, April 9 .- At the annual dinner of the Hamilton club at the Auditorium hotel tonight Henry Watterson responded to the toast, "Peace Between the Sections," and took occasion to decry the attempts some northerners are, in his opinion, making to turn the negro into a white man. At the same time he struck a note of warning, expressing fears of another civil war between labor and capital.

After analyzing the war of secession and its causes, as he saw them, he went on: It causes, as he saw them, he went on:

I grew up to regard the institution of African slavery as a monstrous evil. With a gray jacket on my back I abated no part of my abhorrence of it. The war over, I fully realized that the negro could not be suspended, like Mahomet's coffin, in the air: that he must be made a freeman in fact, as he was in name; that he must be habilitated to his new belongings. But after thirty years of observation, experience and reflection, I am forced to agree with the secretary of war that negro suffrage is a failure, it is a failure because the southern blacks are not equal to it. It is a failure because the southern whites will not have it.

will not have it.

The negro can never become in any beneficent, or genuine sense, an integral and recognized part of the body politic except through the forces of evolution, which are undoubtedly at work, but which in the nature of the case must needs go exceedingly slow. Where there is one negro fit for citizenship, there are myriada wholly unfit. Remove every white democrat today living in the south and replace him with a northern republican, and twelve months hence the conditions will be the same, may be worse, since the northern republican would not be likely to have either the patience, or the personal sympathy and knowledge, possessed by the native southerner. native southerner.

Then he struck a note of warning. was customary, he said, to regard the ill feeling incident to the war as dead and done with, but the present attitude of the north was such as might, if not actually stirring up renewed trouble, serve to so far estrange the two sections that the conservative forces of the north and south would not be able to coalesce when, if ever, the threatened war of labor and capital broke out between the east and west. In this connection he noted that the same ambiguous clause was still retained in the constitution which gave color to the civil war, and which would still allow any

He did not however, consider that a failure, as when the settlement was effected by the coal commission the men secured better conditions than he had asked for them from the operators.

OFFICER GOES FOR KELLEY HOWELL WINS THE VICTORY

New York Man Must Answer in Courts of Missouri-Alum Baking Powder Scandal.

ST. LOUIS, April 5,-The April grand jury, impaneled today in the criminal CONNOLLY AND STREETER RUN CLOSE division of the St. Louis effectit court by Judge Ryan, took up the charges of bribery growing out of the state alum baking powder legislation.

Charges have been made by Lieutenant Governor John A. Lee that Daniel J. Kelley of New York, alleged logislative agent of the baking powder trust, attempted to give him $1,000 to secure the appointment of a senate committee that would handle the bill to repeal the law probibiting the manufacture of "alum" baking powder in Missouri for the interests of the trust. Kelley, who was arrested in New York City several days ago at the request of Governor Dockery, was later released on his own recognizance. A requisition for Kelley, signed by Governor Dockery, is new in the hands of a St. Louis detective, enroute to New York City, and a telegram has been sent by Circuit Attorney Folk to District Attorney Jerome, asking that Kelley be rearrested and held to await the arrival of the requisition papers. Among the witnesses to appear before the grand jury are several state senators and Whitney Layton, a manufacturer of anti-trust baking powder, who is alleged to have been compelled to move his plant from Missouri by the legislation said to have been secured by Kelley. Circuit Attorney Folk has charge of the prosecution here and is assisted by Attorney General Crow.

Circuit Atterney Polk said to the Associated Press: The investigation begun by the grand jury here today is preliminary to that to be made at Jefferson City next Monday, when the Cole county grand jury will reconvene and take up the matter fully. Most of the money alleged to have been used in securing favorable legislation is thought to have been paid out in Jefferson county and there will be held the more important part of the investigation.

Howell's Opponents Are Unable to Carry Their Own Wards-Singularly Close Contest in the Fourth.

Democratic City Primaries. Howell Anti- Total Delegates, Howell, Vote, nd ward. Fifth ward. Sixth ward. Seventh war 1,904

Edward E. Howel! won the victory at the democratic primaries yesterday, and will in all probability be nominated for mayor at the city convention Saturday night. There will be a total of 115 delegates in the convention and of these Howell has elected seventy-five, or seventeen more than the number necessary to nominate.

James P. Connelly of the First ward and Ed S. Streeter of the Seventh were the mayoralty candidates who opposed Howell at the primaries, but both of them failed to earry their home wards, and their names are not likely to be heard in the conven-

Just what the forty anti-Howell delegates who were elected yesterday will do in the convention as to a mayoralty candidate is problematical. It is possible that they may spring a dark horse and give him a complimentary vote at least. The fifteen delegates elected in the Sixth ward without opposition are pledged to vote for Ed P. Smith for mayor, but ten of them are understood to have strong Howell leanings.

The strife in the First ward between the Streeter-Howell and Connolly delegations became quite bitter during the afternoon, and especially so in the evening, when the judges and clerks were engaged in sorting and counting the ballots. The Connolly supporters endeavored upon several occasions to have the clerk and judge throw out Streeter-Howell ballots which were held to be speiled, while in reality they were only crudely marked. The intense feeling over the result came to a focus just before the vote was canvassed, when three fist fights occurred, none of the participants receiving any injuries other than slightly bruised countenances. The vote cast was quite heavy, the Howell slate being elected by a small majority, receiving 135 votes, against 124 for Connoily. Second Ward. In the Second ward the contest was sufficiently warm to make the Howell adherents canvace the ward very closely for LONDON. The bigh men on the Streeter-Connolly ticket were Patrick Lahey and James Shea, with 102 each. The total vote of the ward was 241 and it is charged by the election officers that because of an error in the office of the city clerk in preparing the registration books about forty residents of the ward were deprived of voting, their names not appearing on the registration books, while many names of residents along Fifteenth street were duplicated. A policeman inside the voting place at 1024 Dodge street excluded all except the election officers and one challenger for each side, while another officer kept the workers on the opposite side of the street, with the result that there was no

In the hotly-contested Fourth ward the antis elected Abbott, Fitzgerald, Gillespie and Gonden, and the Howell faction Weaver, Seay, Dillrance, Besen and Callahan. He bought candy and gave proposed that the names of all the tied men be put in a last and three drawn, which would give the Howell man a chance of drawing the one they would have in the bunch. But the Howell faction demura to this and wants to put six of their names the city committee and perhaps to the convention, in which event the Howell faction would have a decided advantage. The total vote of the ward was 207, making 104 the majority. Abbott, with 106 votes, was high man of the day, and Weaver, with 165, the high man on the Howell list. The low man on the Howell list was James Ciha, with 99, and the low man on the antis' list was George E. Yager, with 101.
