FIVE TRUE TO CORPORATIONS

Majority of Council Refuses to Submit Municipal Ownership Question.

ZIMMAN AND LOBECK PLEAD IN VAIN

Council Meets at Call of Haswell After Refusing to Respond to the Summons of Mayor Moore.

CORPORATIONS' BIG FIVE.

- Isaac S. Haswell.
Myron D. Karr.
Simon Trostler.
D. T. Mount.
W. B. Whitehorn.

These men refused to permit the municipal electric plant proposition to come before the council at a special meeting yesterday afternoon. They put themselves on record as refusing to let the question of issuing $500,000 in bonds for such ownership go before the people at the city election May 3. They are the same men who fought the citizens more than a year ago when an attempt was made to compel the franchised corporations to pay fair taxes. Of them Karr is a candidate for the republican nomination for mayor on the "anti-machine" ticket, while Trostler and Haswell are seeking re-nomination from the republican convention in the Ninth and First wards respectively. Haswell yesterday afternoon stood in the council chamber and declared violently that he is "anti-machine" and he wanted everyone to know it.

QUICK WORK.

The Experienced Omaha Man With the Little Con- quator.

The experience of Mr. Alfred Willett, related in the following words will deeply interest hundreds of readers. Mr. Willett is an Omaha citizen, residing at 2110 Grand Avenue. No better proof of merit can be had than his statement. He says: "For about six months a dull aching over the region of my kidneys was much more pronounced than I supposed or did anything requiring a study on the muscles of the back. Thinking Coon's Kidney Pills might help me I procured a box at Kuhn & Co's drug store, corner 15th and Douglas streets, and they did me a world of good, or I never would have advised others to procure the remedy and take a course of treatment."

for sewers and $75,000 for paving intersections. The new engine houses are to be at Eleventh and Jackson streets and Leavenworth street and St. Mary's Avenue and are to cost $30,000 and $15,000 respectively. These affairs were properly disposed of at the meeting. But the big five absolutely refused to permit an amendment to the call or a new inserting the municipal ownership feature. Arranged against them were Zimman, Lobeck and Hoye. Burklely was not present.

Lobeck and Zimman Plead.

Lobeck and Zimman urged that the council consider the municipal ownership ordinance and bring it up in some manner. President Karr ruled that the call could not be amended, saying: "The chair decides that we are now working under this call and it cannot be amended unless the members are all present. The clerk will proceed under the call."

Zimman Urges Action.

Zimman's remarks were not directly in favor of the ordinance, but urged some kind of action. He said Burklely could be summoned by telephone in five minutes. He referred to the failure of the council to present a quorum at one regular and two special meetings, and continued: "We are elected to serve the city and to attend every meeting when possible. Every councilman has been in the city at least part of the time during the last two weeks, and it has been notorious that this ordinance has been prepared and is to be presented to us."

Mr. Zimman suggested that a new call be issued, that the councilman wait for its service and then vote on the municipal ordinance at adjournment, pending the night that it would lay over until Tuesday night for final action, at which time it must be passed if it is to be contained in the mayor's twenty-day election proclamation. The business of the call was then transacted and immediately Zimman moved that the councilman remain in the chamber for ten minutes after adjournment, and that the clerk be directed to prepare a new call containing the electric bond ordinance and the $300,000 refunding bond ordinance. Haswell would have some of this, and he rose to declare Zimman out of order and demand adjournment. Lobeck, who had seconded Zimman's motion, tried to talk on it, but was choked off. President Karr was endeavoring to entertain the Haswell motion to adjourn, but Lobeck insisted that a motion to adjourn was not in order while another motion was before the house. Whitehorn's small voice was heard from a corner: "I moved to adjourn before you spoke."

PLAYS HIDE AND SEEK.

The mayor's second attempt to convene the council to consider the municipal electric ordinance and important bond issues yesterday met with no more success than the first. The councilman big five played a systematic game of hide and seek that prevented a quorum from assembling, and then on the dictation of Haswell, prepared a call for a special meeting at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Every councilman was in the city hall within a half hour, but only once did five get together. The municipal electric ordinance was excluded from the call, but Mayor Moore's call has not given up the fight and said yesterday that he contemplated another special call in order to get action on the question that must be submitted to the people at the May election.

Whitehorn Pades Into Space.

Whitehorn came and soon after Hoye, making five members, but Whitehorn immediately grew restive and did a spirited disappearing act before the meeting could be called to order. Deputy City Clerk Bandhouse called the four members present to order—Zimman, Hoye, Burklely and Lobeck—and on motion of Zimman they adjourned and left the city hall. With the leaving of the four members, the other five showed a starting interest in the affairs of the city. Councilman Haswell appeared from somewhere, as did Trostler and Karr. Whitehorn came forth from the office of the comptroller, where he had secreted himself, and Councilman Mount, who announced Wednesday that he would go east that evening, arrived and wanted to know what was going on. Haswell and Trostler did not linger long. Haswell prepared a call for a special meeting at 2 o'clock for the purpose of passing the engine house and paving and sewer bond ordinance, buying some ground to open Hancock street and to permit a frame dwelling to be erected within the fire limits. President Karr's name was written first and following it Haswell, Trostler, Whitehorn and Mount signed. After this the councilman departed.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard of Husband, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a little of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with."

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Project to Vote Bonds for Sewer from Swift's to River.

TO ABATE THE NUISANCE OF MUD CREEK

Cost of Proposed Improvement Would Be One Hundred and Sixty Thousand Dollars, the City to Pay Half. When it comes to the calling of a special election for voting bonds for improvements under the new charter an effort is to be made to have the citizens vote for bonds for a sewer from Swift's to the river and do away with the annoyance and complaints about Mud Creek. This plan of voting bonds for this sewer has been brought up a number of times, but the people seemed to be opposed to it. Now that bonds for general improvements are to be voted it is thought that in the extension of the city sewer system no better use could be made of the money to be spent than in constructing a good sized brick sewer to the river.

Engineer Deal Hoye.

Yesterday City Engineer Deal put in a full day and was sure enough tired when he returned to the city hall last night. He established the grade on W, V and Y streets from Thirty-sixth to Forty-fourth street and on Thirty-ninth, Fortieth and Forty-second streets from U to Y street. This work was ordered by the council at its meeting Monday night. In addition to this Deal set stakes for a bunch of sidewalks to be laid as soon as the city contractor can get around to it.

Cleaning the Streets.

Mayor Koutsky said last night that as soon as there was a good heavy rain he would put men to work cleaning the paved streets in the business portion of the city. The streets are littered up with store sweepings, papers and the refuse from standing teams. The mayor does not think it would be advisable at this time to employ men to clean the streets. He says that as soon as there is a good rain the bulk of the dirt will be taken up and then the fire department will be called upon to flush the pavements.

Laying Gas Mains.

Some pipe for the laying of gas mains on Seventeenth street from Missouri avenue to M street has been received and the work of laying the mains will commence just as soon as the grading is completed. The grading in this block will possibly be finished within a week. Gas mains are to be laid on D street between Twenty-second and Twenty-third streets, just as soon as a sufficient amount of material arrives. There is a demand for gas and water all over the city and it is understood that mains will be laid by both companies this summer in order to extend the service now given.

Druggists Must Pay.

Mayor Koutsky said last night that he would not set up with any foolishness on the part of South Omaha druggists in regard to taking out liquor license applications. "For some years past," said the mayor, "some druggists have been selling liquor without a city license, although they went to the trouble of procuring a govern-

Building Small Houses.

A trip over the city shows that quite a number of small cottages are in course of construction. The building is not confined to any one locality, but is spread all over the city. So far few building permits have been taken out, but this is principally on account of neglect on the part of property owners. A number of notices were served yesterday and it is expected that quite a bunch of permits will be applied for before the week is out.

Councilman O'Connor Complains.

Councilman O'Connor wants to go on record as being opposed to the method pursued in relation to the repairs to the viaducts. He says that along last October the Union Stock Yards company was notified to repair the street viaduct. Work was sent back to the council that material had been ordered and that when it arrived the repairs would be made. Then along in January the yards received another notice and Engineer King opined that it would not be long before the viaduct was in material. Just now the bridge is in bad shape and O'Connor wants to see that it is placed in passable condition before long. Some months ago the council threatened to close the bridge to traffic if it was not repaired, but the threat was not carried out. Some of these days the bridge will be closed unless some steps are taken to make immediate repairs.

Magie City Gossip.

The South Omaha letter carriers will not give an annual ball this spring. John Mohr, candidate for all the offices for superintendent of the county poor farm, has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Karwin, Twenty-seventh and 8 streets. Rev. Charles Mullan has commenced the erection of a residence at Thirty-sixth and Q streets. Mrs. J. B. Smiley has returned from Cheyenne, where she visited a couple of weeks with relatives. St. Mary's court No. 178, Catholic Order of Councils will give a ball Monday evening, April 13, at Odd Fellows hall. C. Travis 371 South Nineteenth street, has a bunch of base ball players about 15 years old and he wants a game with any team of about the same age.

Triumphs of 1902.

Seldom, if ever, in any one year of the history of the world have so many important events of universal interest taken place. America, England, Germany and France have each participated. The president of the United States welcomed and entertained H. R. H. Prince Henry of Prussia at the White House; Edward VII was crowned king of England and emperor of India; the German emperor had his American-built yacht, Meteor christened; France had the unveiling of the Rochambeau statue, and at all functions attending these celebrations Mott & Chandon's Champagne was used exclusively. This indeed is an unparalleled record, which is proof positive of the superiority and popularity of the renowned brand of Mott & Chandon White Seal.

Masonic Temple for Topeka.

COLORED PYTHIANS BANQUET

Enjoy Their First Annual Social and Dinner at Waiters' Club.

The colored Knights of Pythias of Omaha gave their first annual banquet and social at the Union Waiters' club, corner of Fourteenth and Douglas streets last night. The two colored Pythian lodges of the city, Western Star No. 1 and Keystone No. 4, together with Morning Star Lodge No. 7 of Council Bluffs, united in the festivities. The banquet room was very prettily decorated for the occasion and the banquet table extending the full length of the room was resplendent with roses and carnations, candelabra adding a very pretty effect. Chancelor Commander R. H. Johnson of Western Star lodge was toastmaster and toasts were responded to as follows: "Progress of the Afro-American Since the War," J. Simpson; "Peace and Harmony," W. Ransom; "Why I am a Pythian Knight," W. A. Minor; "Booker T. Washington," S. B. Smith; "Unity," E. B. Walker; "Good of the Order," William Lewis, chancelor commander of Keystone lodge; "Department of a Pythian Knight," Robert A. Brooker; George Snowden and Eli Brooker; a baritone solo by P. P. Phillips and a piano solo by Gove Daily. The menu included all the dainties of the season, with six courses and wine and cigars. The pleasant affair continued to a late hour, with a large attendance both from Omaha and Council Bluffs.
