SOROSIS

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Karr announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mabel L. Karr, and Mr. Julian H. Olsen.

The announcement is made this week of the engagement of Miss Georgia Gail Fitchett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Fitchett, and Mr. Edwin Winslade Livesey.

One of the spring weddings to which society is looking forward is that of Miss Ellen McShane, daughter of Mrs. William E. McShane, and Mr. William E. Burns, which is to occur at the home of the bride's mother on Wednesday evening, June 3. The wedding guests are to be limited to about 100. Miss McShane will be attended by her cousin, Miss Mary Lee McShane, and Mr. Dwight Swobe will act as best man. Mr. Lee McShane and Mr. Louis Nash will be ribbon bearers. A large reception will follow the ceremony.

One of the important affairs of the week is the marriage of Miss Mary Ethel Barker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Barker, and Mr. Francis T. B. Martin, which will be solemnized on Wednesday evening at the Barker home, 633 South Thirty-seventh street. The ceremony is to be followed by a reception.

SOCIETY WILL SPREAD OUT

Get Busy is the Word Along the Line Among the Smart Folks.

WEDDINGS HOLD THE LEAD UP TO DATE

After-Easter Meetings Will Be Numerous and Notable and Are Attracting Most of Attention Just Now.

A Puritan Easter Maid.
H. S. Keller in Collier's.
Now, thankful Hopkins was a maid of Puritanic mold
Sensately grim and very grim—
Likewise a trifle cold.
No swains who would court her go
This maiden so delicate
Would dare I kiss, to get a kiss
When parting at the gate.
She used to twirl the spinning wheel
And play the harpsichord
She'd take the pie and watch the lye.
Sing praises to the Lord.
On Sunday to the meeting house
She'd go garbed in her best.
And rise and fall at beck and call
Of service with the rest.
'Twas ages and 'twas years ago,
One Easter morn she went
Across the field anon to yield
Her praises pentent
Adown the aisle she slowly came
And knelt within her pew.
The neighbors who had beguiled
Their fancies not a few?
Her praises to the Lord she sang
In dulcet voice and sweet,
Responsive came clear as the same
Awest from her retreat:
The sermon was a trifle slow—
But what disturbs there will be about
Was—Thankful were, as ne'er before,
A hat and not a poke!

After its season of enforced quiet, Society will lose no time in resuming its round of gaily and tomorrow will see the beginning of what promises to be the liveliest post-Lenten season in many a year. Just now the weddings stand out with especial prominence among affairs that come secondary to nothing else but weddings and their definite announcement is accompanied by announcements of more engagements which mean more spring weddings. After these come the round of dinners and luncheons and smaller affairs in honor of some visiting women and, of course, the cotillion to be given at the Country club on Friday evening, given by some of the young women, Miss McShane and Miss Preston having charge of arrangements. Mr. Will Burns and Mr. Sam Burns will hold the german table there will be about thirty couples present.

The week's calendar includes: Monday, Miss Preston's card party for her guest, Miss Key; Mr. and Mrs. Rochford entertain the Thistle club; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Robertson the Bon Ton card club.

Tuesday, Miss Helen Smith will be hostess of the Cooking club luncheon; Mrs. Joe Barker entertains the Tuesday euchre; Mrs. E. A. Cudahy entertains the Tuesday Morning musicale; Miss McShane gives a theater party for Miss Key; Mrs. Strickland will be hostess of the Luncheon club. On Wednesday Miss Cotton entertains at luncheon for Miss Key; the wedding of Miss Mabel Carey and Mr. Frank Fahs; the Martin-Barker wedding; the Kessler-Woodland wedding; the reception of the household economics department of the Woman's club; Mrs. O. D. Kiplinger and Mrs. George Moore entertain at cards.

On Thursday Miss Ella Mae Brown will be hostess of the debutantes' luncheon; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Breckenridge will give a reception from 8 to 11 o'clock; Mrs. Kiplinger and Mrs. George Moore entertain at cards. On Friday Mr. and Mrs. Puerpelle entertain the Neighborhood Card club; the cotillion at the Country club; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilkins give a dinner for Miss Key. On Saturday the Windmill club gives its closing party of the season; Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Koutz give a dinner for Miss Key; Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Van Court entertain the Harmony club.

Just now preparation for the charity ball is occupying first place in the interest of the fashionables, for aside from the natural attractiveness of such an affair, society is dreadfully tired of the quiet of the last few weeks and this function insures a truly smart occasion—the sort of thing that society dotes on, that it is willing to undertake jointly, but that nobody feels exactly called upon to provide individually; something large in every sense, excepting numbers, perhaps. Single tickets can be purchased on presentation of an invitation from any one of the patronesses. The ball is to open with a grand march, in which leading members of the local smart set will participate. For those who do not care to participate in the dancing, card tables will be arranged downstairs. Mrs. Fritchett and Mrs. Breckenridge to be in charge there. A number of handsome prizes have already been donated. Mrs. W. J. C. Kennedy, assisted by Mrs. Herman Koutz, Mrs. J. E. Summers and Mrs. James McKenna, will have charge of the supper. Mrs. Arthur Crittenden Smith, Mrs. Myron Leonard, Mrs. Charles Koutz and Mrs. Clement Chase will superintend the decoration of the club house. The proceeds of the ball are to go toward the building of a much-needed addition to Clarkson Memorial hospital.

A whole round of smart affairs has been planned for the week in honor of Miss Key of Chicago, who is the guest of Miss Preston. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Koutz will give a supper on Sunday evening. On Monday, Miss Preston will entertain at cards. On Tuesday, Miss Key will be guest of honor at the meeting of the Euchre club, and in the evening Miss McShane will give a party at the Orpheum in her honor, followed by a supper at the Her Grand. On Wednesday, Miss Cotton will entertain at 1 o'clock luncheon, and in the evening Mr. and Mrs. John T. Stewart will give a dinner. On Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilkins will give a dinner before the cotillion, and on Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles Koutz will give a dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Karr announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mabel L. Karr, and Mr. Julian H. Olsen. ### WOMAN IN CLUB AND CHARITY

The annual meeting and election of officers of the art department of the Woman's club was held on Thursday morning, and in the absence of Mrs. Stiger, Mrs. Charles Johannes presided. Mrs. Johannes was elected leader; Mrs. A. W. Jensen, first assistant; Mrs. E. L. Lowrie, second assistant; Mrs. A. W. Logan, representative in the directory; Miss Ethelwynne Kennedy, secretary, and Mrs. G. W. Wickersham, treasurer. It was decided that Indian architecture should be taken up as the study of the department for the coming year. The regular session followed the election. Mrs. W. C. Sunderland reading a paper on "Bookbinding and Book Plates;" Mrs. Joffers gave a talk on "The Return of Classicism." Mrs. Johannes spoke of the "Life and Work of Sir Edward Leighton," and Miss Kennedy, "The Art of Leighton." The next meeting will close the year's work. "William Morris" will be the subject and "Tapestries" the special topic, presented by Mrs. Archie Powell. Mrs. George Payne will act as leader.

The reception to be given by the department of household economics of the Woman's club for the members of the household economics department of the Council Bluffs club at the home of Mrs. T. R. Ward, of 2121 Wirt street, on Wednesday afternoon, is among the promising social events of the week of interest in household economics. Mr. Otis Howard, son of Mrs. Gray Howard, is expected here this week to take his examinations for the naval academy.

The West Farnam Pleasure club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Heaton last Saturday evening. Mrs. Stiger and Mr. Lyman won first prizes and Mrs. Lyman and Mrs. Gates second. A beautiful Easter luncheon was served in white and green, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Lymer, Mr. and Mrs. C. Chitney, Mr. and Mrs. A. Block, Mr. and Mrs. A. Peters, Mrs. Mead, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Callahan, Mr. and Mrs. J. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Gates, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Haynes and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Heaton.

Ladies of the Koutz Place Luncheon club entertained their husbands at a dinner given at Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Thompson's, The Sherman, Saturday evening.

At their home, 1478 North Twentieth street, the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Polier was celebrated on last Sunday afternoon and evening, the gathering including their children and a number of friends.

A sumptuous dinner was served, followed by music and a very pleasant evening.

The friends of Miss Myrtle Hodder gave her a delightful surprise last Thursday evening, when about thirty-five gathered at her home, 2410 Seward street, in honor of Miss Myrtle's birthday. The house was prettily decorated with cut flowers and the evening pleasantly spent in card games, arranged for the company by Messrs. D. D. Savage, W. J. Groest and F. M. Erickman, after which dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Hodder.

A reunion will be held on Friday evening at the Omaha High school in the class of '97, at the home of Miss Laura Jordan, 1518 South Tenth street, at 8 o'clock. The committee in charge consists of Mr. George Morton, Mr. Harry Wigton, Miss Edith Spell and Miss Laura Jordan. Mrs. J. D. Weaver and Mrs. R. E. Hayward, who have spent the winter in St. Paul, Minn., are spending Easter with Mr. J. D. Weaver and Mrs. R. E. Hayward. While here Miss Weaver will be with her sister, Mrs. Hayward, at the Dunsmuir.

Miss Ethel Lawrie returned yesterday from her two week's visit to St. Louis.

Miss Kathryn Hamlin, 1520 Spencer street, entertained most beautifully at a luncheon Saturday noon in honor of the King-Reader wedding. The table was decorated with red and yellow tulips, with plates of red and white flowers. The guests were Messrs. Saunders, Bassett, Row, McDaniel, Hamlin, Cole; Messes Brown, King, Sallie King, Torrey, Shaver, Readinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Sawyer of Kansas City, Mo., are spending Easter Sunday with Mrs. Frank Klotz.

Mrs. Arthur D. Brandeis has returned from a month's visit in southern California. Last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. George H. King were quite pleasantly surprised when about sixty of their friends walked into their home at 422 North Thirty-seventh street to celebrate the occasion of their twenty-eighth wedding anniversary. The evening was spent with games, music and dancing. After refreshments were served a handsome lamp was presented the host and hostess with congratulations.

Miss Blanche Sorenson, voice, 550 Range building.

OMAHA HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The Blaine society held its regular monthly meeting on Friday. The following program was rendered before a large attendance of pupils: Piano solo, Cora Evans; recitation, "Pearl"; violin solo, Euse Shadruck; selection, Elaine trio; Captains' quartet, "Bert"; Chaffee, Hugh Wallace, and Higgins and Ernest Kelly. A number of the entertainments are listed in the program. The Blaine society will give its German play, "Verzagen," first, "The Girl of the Year" and second, its entertainment selections to be rendered by professionals in the play, "Tranford," and Miss Snyder is planning a Latin entertainment, "Lectures and recitations" to be given in Latin. The large biology laboratory in the new high school building has been partitioned, dividing it into two parts. It is now considered as two rooms, one room and Mr. Pears's the other. It was necessary to divide the laboratory on account of the large number of students taking biology. Among the university students formerly of the high school, who have visited the school last week were: Mary Bedwell, Beulah Egan, Edna Wallace, Hollister, Ray Dumont, Laurence Swidell and Burdett Servis. It was formally announced at the high school last week that a course in domestic science will be given to the girls next year. Mr. Wigton, the manual training teacher, has offered a beautiful carved napkin ring to the girls who receive the best scores on "The Benefit of the Teaching of Domestic Science." To the boy writing the best story on "The Benefit of Manual Training" a carved card receiver. Miss Ina Spahnower, proprietress of Adams Bazaar, returns last Sunday from New York with a full line of witches and the latest styles.

Fail to Pay Annual Tax.
CHICAGO, April 11.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Trenton, N. J., says: Governor Franklin Murphy's annual proclamation for dissolving those trusts and corporations organized under the laws of the state which have not paid annual tax has been sent to the printers. Nine hundred and twenty-seven concerns, capitalized in the aggregate at $23,000,000, are affected. While the figures seem amazing, they do not actually represent any great amount of capital invested. The great bulk of the charters voided are of companies that were organized to float some project or other and were unsuccessful.
