

Ramie Health Underwear

THE UNDERCLOTHING OF THE FUTURE.

It preserves health—It restores health—It is comfortable to wear—It is almost indestructible in wear.

It has an airy, unalterable cellular tissue, which possesses the property of storing warmth. It does not hinder perspiration or render it more difficult, but facilitates it. It secures complete ventilation at the surface of the body. It receives warmth from and returns it to the skin.

It is warming in cold weather and cooling during oppressive heat. It does not feel chilly or damp after perspiration. It makes the skin healthy and elastic. It does not absorb the fatty secretion of the sebaceous glands. It acts soothingly and strengthening on the nervous system.

It prevents the germination of diseases of the skin, rheumatism, etc.

We are agent for this underwear and would be pleased to have you call and get a booklet—about Ramie Underwear for men, women and children.

THOMPSON, BELDEN & Co

Y. M. C. A. Building, Corner Sixteenth and Douglas Sts

COME TO BLOWS IN COURT

Lawyer Says Learned Brother Made Show of Mad Millions.

COUNSEL IN CHASE CASE PRINCIPALS

Judge Declines Amended Last Term Remains Within His Jurisdiction Till Guardianship is Settled After Hearing Rival Claims.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., April 16.—Two lawyers engaged in a fist fight in the circuit court this afternoon, Dan Simms, representing Fred Chase, father of the young millionaire, and A. E. Kummer, representing Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duhme of Cincinnati, who are fighting for the possession of the boy, had met for a conference with the judge as to what should be done with him pending the hearing of the case.

Kummer denounced his opponent and Chase's father, declaring that Moses Fowler Chase had been brought to Indiana from France by force and fraud. He also asserted that the unfortunate man was put on exhibition at the law offices of Chase's attorneys.

Ex-Judge E. P. Hammond shouted: "That's an absolute falsehood."

Attorney Simms jumped up and approached Kummer, who tried to ward him off. Simms then landed a heavy right-hand swing on Kummer's jaw and followed it with a smash with his left. Both blows landed. Kummer, protecting himself as best he could.

The court room was crowded and lawyers, court officials and spectators sprang to the combats and dragged them apart. The judge had $25,000 for striking the first blow, but on the offender apologizing and Kummer asking that the fine be remitted his honor remitted the penalty.

It was finally decided that Moses Fowler Chase should remain within the jurisdiction of the court, with the understanding that Mr. and Mrs. Duhme, who are his aunt and uncle, are not to interfere with him, though they have the privilege of applying to the court for authority to see him.

The guardianship application served on the young millionaire is returnable on April 27, for which day the case is set.

Dr. M. M. Lairy, E. C. Davidson and W. W. Vindege of Lafayette and Dr. C. B. Burr of Flint, Mich., examined young Chase this afternoon and pronounced him insane. They declare his answers to the most simple questions are incoherent, although he appeared perfectly sane when taken off the train.

Dr. Lairy said: "I asked the boy if he had had his dinner. He mumbled out a lot of disjointed words. The result was the same when I asked him whether he had been in Paris and a lot of other things just as simple. It was as though he had picked a number of words at random from various parts of a dictionary."

The guardianship application served on the young millionaire is returnable on April 27, for which day the case is set.

Dr. M. M. Lairy, E. C. Davidson and W. W. Vindege of Lafayette and Dr. C. B. Burr of Flint, Mich., examined young Chase this afternoon and pronounced him insane. They declare his answers to the most simple questions are incoherent, although he appeared perfectly sane when taken off the train.

Dr. Lairy said: "I asked the boy if he had had his dinner. He mumbled out a lot of disjointed words. The result was the same when I asked him whether he had been in Paris and a lot of other things just as simple. It was as though he had picked a number of words at random from various parts of a dictionary."

The guardianship application served on the young millionaire is returnable on April 27, for which day the case is set.

Dr. M. M. Lairy, E. C. Davidson and W. W. Vindege of Lafayette and Dr. C. B. Burr of Flint, Mich., examined young Chase this afternoon and pronounced him insane. They declare his answers to the most simple questions are incoherent, although he appeared perfectly sane when taken off the train.

Dr. Lairy said: "I asked the boy if he had had his dinner. He mumbled out a lot of disjointed words. The result was the same when I asked him whether he had been in Paris and a lot of other things just as simple. It was as though he had picked a number of words at random from various parts of a dictionary."

The guardianship application served on the young millionaire is returnable on April 27, for which day the case is set.

Dr. M. M. Lairy, E. C. Davidson and W. W. Vindege of Lafayette and Dr. C. B. Burr of Flint, Mich., examined young Chase this afternoon and pronounced him insane. They declare his answers to the most simple questions are incoherent, although he appeared perfectly sane when taken off the train.

Dr. Lairy said: "I asked the boy if he had had his dinner. He mumbled out a lot of disjointed words. The result was the same when I asked him whether he had been in Paris and a lot of other things just as simple. It was as though he had picked a number of words at random from various parts of a dictionary."

The guardianship application served on the young millionaire is returnable on April 27, for which day the case is set.

Dr. M. M. Lairy, E. C. Davidson and W. W. Vindege of Lafayette and Dr. C. B. Burr of Flint, Mich., examined young Chase this afternoon and pronounced him insane. They declare his answers to the most simple questions are incoherent, although he appeared perfectly sane when taken off the train.

Dr. Lairy said: "I asked the boy if he had had his dinner. He mumbled out a lot of disjointed words. The result was the same when I asked him whether he had been in Paris and a lot of other things just as simple. It was as though he had picked a number of words at random from various parts of a dictionary."

The guardianship application served on the young millionaire is returnable on April 27, for which day the case is set.

Dr. M. M. Lairy, E. C. Davidson and W. W. Vindege of Lafayette and Dr. C. B. Burr of Flint, Mich., examined young Chase this afternoon and pronounced him insane. They declare his answers to the most simple questions are incoherent, although he appeared perfectly sane when taken off the train.

Dr. Lairy said: "I asked the boy if he had had his dinner. He mumbled out a lot of disjointed words. The result was the same when I asked him whether he had been in Paris and a lot of other things just as simple. It was as though he had picked a number of words at random from various parts of a dictionary."

The guardianship application served on the young millionaire is returnable on April 27, for which day the case is set.

Dr. M. M. Lairy, E. C. Davidson and W. W. Vindege of Lafayette and Dr. C. B. Burr of Flint, Mich., examined young Chase this afternoon and pronounced him insane. They declare his answers to the most simple questions are incoherent, although he appeared perfectly sane when taken off the train.

Dr. Lairy said: "I asked the boy if he had had his dinner. He mumbled out a lot of disjointed words. The result was the same when I asked him whether he had been in Paris and a lot of other things just as simple. It was as though he had picked a number of words at random from various parts of a dictionary."

The guardianship application served on the young millionaire is returnable on April 27, for which day the case is set.

Dr. M. M. Lairy, E. C. Davidson and W. W. Vindege of Lafayette and Dr. C. B. Burr of Flint, Mich., examined young Chase this afternoon and pronounced him insane. They declare his answers to the most simple questions are incoherent, although he appeared perfectly sane when taken off the train.

Dr. Lairy said: "I asked the boy if he had had his dinner. He mumbled out a lot of disjointed words. The result was the same when I asked him whether he had been in Paris and a lot of other things just as simple. It was as though he had picked a number of words at random from various parts of a dictionary."

The guardianship application served on the young millionaire is returnable on April 27, for which day the case is set.

Dr. M. M. Lairy, E. C. Davidson and W. W. Vindege of Lafayette and Dr. C. B. Burr of Flint, Mich., examined young Chase this afternoon and pronounced him insane. They declare his answers to the most simple questions are incoherent, although he appeared perfectly sane when taken off the train.

IRISH ACCEPT BILL

(Continued from First Page.)

dent of the United Irish League of America, said he was delighted with the unanimity which had characterized the meeting. He had never seen anything like that quiet and peaceful Irish convention and voiced American sympathy with the meeting.

Mr. O'Brien's original motion was then carried unanimously, and the convention adjourned until Friday.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY
Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

TO REDEEM SWAMP LAND

Ditch that Will Reclaim Fifteen Thousand Acres in Holt County, Missouri.

MOUND CITY, Mo., April 16.—(Special.) The biggest enterprise which has been undertaken by the people of Holt county for a number of years is that of building a ditch which shall drain the water from 15,000 acres of swamp land lying west of this place, and thus render it for cultivation.

For two years legal proceedings against the district retarded progress in its construction, but now, after having received a decision in its favor from the supreme court of Missouri, all obstacles have been removed and as soon as the necessary preliminary steps have been taken, the construction of the ditch will be begun.

C. G. Landon, county surveyor, has just finished a topographical survey of the district, which shows that the ditch must follow closely the line of the bluffs from its head, just north of Napier, when it will run southwest into the Missouri river.

Surveyor Landon has received the contract to survey a course for the ditch and is given thirty days in which to complete his work.

The ditch, when completed, will be thirty feet wide, nine feet deep and about fourteen miles long. The estimated cost is about $100,000.

OPPOSE ANARCHIC UNIONS

Manufacturers Endorse Speech Admitting Right of Labor to Organize Properly.

NEW ORLEANS, April 16.—The National Association of Manufacturers this afternoon elected the following officers: President, D. M. Parry, Indianapolis; secretary, Marshall Cushing, New York; treasurer, F. H. Hill, New York.

J. C. Cunnemacher of Kentucky urged the association to present a united opposition to what he termed the anarchic and socialistic element controlling many of the labor unions, but declared the association must be fair to the workers and America for all, employer and employee. The sentiment was vigorously applauded.

TO TEST RELIEF DEPARTMENT

Suit Commenced Against Pennsylvania Company Affecting Thousands of Men.

TOLEDO, O., April 16.—An important legal action involving the question of the regularity of the Pennsylvania Railroad company's relief department has been instituted here. W. G. Gill, who files the suit for a woman whose husband was killed, charges in his petition that the company causes the employees to maintain the relief fund to guard against losses and damages by accident, thus saving the company that expense. He says that the case undoubtedly will go to the supreme court and that its result will affect thousands of railroad men throughout the country. He hopes to have the department declared illegal.

Two Lives Are Lost

PITTSBURGH, April 16.—Last night's boarding house fire was responsible for the loss of two lives, instead of one, as reported shortly after the destruction of the building. The incinerated remains of another boarder, John Zisco, was found this morning in the ruins. The body found last night was identified as that of Michael Dinaid. Four others who were asleep in the house when the fire broke out were seriously injured by jumping. The property loss was about $2,500.

New York Brokers Assign

NEW YORK, April 16.—J. Overton Payne and Arthur B. Payne, formerly carrying on business under the name of J. Overton Payne & Co., bankers and brokers, today assigned for the benefit of creditors.

The Gorham Co. guarantee it

GORHAM SILVER POLISH
Guaranteed to be the best on the market by the leading silversmiths of the world.

All responsible jewelers keep it. 50 cents a package.

Why use gelatine and sugar? Jell-O is sweeter, more satisfying and coloring when produces better results in two minutes! Everything in the package. Simply add hot water and set to cool. It's perfect. A surprise to the housewife. No trouble, less expense. Try it today. In Four Fruit Flavors: Lemon, Orange, Strawberry, Raspberry. At grocery, 10c.

Why use gelatine and sugar? Jell-O is sweeter, more satisfying and coloring when produces better results in two minutes! Everything in the package. Simply add hot water and set to cool. It's perfect. A surprise to the housewife. No trouble, less expense. Try it today. In Four Fruit Flavors: Lemon, Orange, Strawberry, Raspberry. At grocery, 10c.

Why use gelatine and sugar? Jell-O is sweeter, more satisfying and coloring when produces better results in two minutes! Everything in the package. Simply add hot water and set to cool. It's perfect. A surprise to the housewife. No trouble, less expense. Try it today. In Four Fruit Flavors: Lemon, Orange, Strawberry, Raspberry. At grocery, 10c.

Why use gelatine and sugar? Jell-O is sweeter, more satisfying and coloring when produces better results in two minutes! Everything in the package. Simply add hot water and set to cool. It's perfect. A surprise to the housewife. No trouble, less expense. Try it today. In Four Fruit Flavors: Lemon, Orange, Strawberry, Raspberry. At grocery, 10c.

Why use gelatine and sugar? Jell-O is sweeter, more satisfying and coloring when produces better results in two minutes! Everything in the package. Simply add hot water and set to cool. It's perfect. A surprise to the housewife. No trouble, less expense. Try it today. In Four Fruit Flavors: Lemon, Orange, Strawberry, Raspberry. At grocery, 10c.

Why use gelatine and sugar? Jell-O is sweeter, more satisfying and coloring when

DESCRIBES GOEBEL'S DEATH

Youtsey Tells Court How Shot Late Kentucky Governor.

TAYLOR NAMED AS ARCH-CONSPIRATOR

Rival Executive Alleged to Have Promised Full Pardon and Then to Have Gone Back on His Convicted Accomplice.

FRANKFORT, Ky., April 16.—Henry E. Youtsey today for the first time on the witness stand his story of Governor Goebel's murder. He named James Howard, the defendant, as the man who fired the shot.

He said he saw Howard for the first time a few minutes before the shooting, though he had written to him at Governor Taylor's dictation several days before. He took Howard into Caleb Powers' office, which had been especially arranged for the shooting and showed him the Marlin rifle, the bullet and the window from which the murder was to be done. He says Howard asked what he was to get for the shooting. "What do you want?" replied witness when Howard said he wanted a pardon for killing Governor Baker.

"I told him he could have that and more, too," said Youtsey.

"About that time," he continued, "Goebel came out and I pointed him out to Howard and then ran from the room. As I disappeared from the steps to the basement I heard the crack of Howard's rifle."

After the shooting he went through the state house basement and for five minutes later came back into the executive building from the east entrance.

"I stayed in the office of assistant secretary of State Matthews," said he, "for a few moments and saw Matthews break open Caleb Powers' office and find the guns that had been left there."

At that time he was private secretary to Auditor Sweeney, but while his political status was not definitely fixed it was understood he was to have a good place under Taylor. "Governor Taylor," said Youtsey, "directed everything we did. We regarded him as our leader, and we were morally responsible for all we did. We knew we had the governor and the pardoning board behind us, and we were afraid of punishment for killing Goebel."

During Youtsey's testimony Howard sat with his eyes riveted on the witness. His wife sat behind him. Howard did not change expression.

On cross-examination Youtsey said even after he was arrested and sent to the penitentiary he still had hopes of gaining his liberty. He thought Yerkes was defeated, however, and about a year ago he decided to tell his story to Prison Physician Tobin.

As an additional motive for him to tell the story, he claimed, Taylor, Powers and others had used him as a cat's paw and scapegoat and then deserted him when he got into trouble.

He said the only man who ever talked to him about any kind of reward was James A. Scott, now counsel for Howard. "This was just before I was arrested," said he, "and Scott told me if I would tell enough to bring about seven convictions he would get me $25,000."

He admitted he had written for Governor Beckham and asking his advice. The governor told him he should tell everything, but that he was offered no inducements.

In cross-examination Youtsey admitted that he and Johnson had planned to kill Goebel and that Johnson was to do the shooting. W. J. Davidson, then superintendent of public instruction, offered to allow Johnson the use of his office for the purpose. Witness, however, did not approve of Johnson's plan and refused to let him do so. He did not see him after January 25.

GOMPERS REPLIES TO PARRY

Claims Labor Desires Peace, but Will Not Run if Conflict is Foreed.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor today issued a statement in reply to Mr. Parry's report to the Manufacturers' association. It says:

If there was any doubt that Mr. Parry had taken leave of his reason, the report of his utterances in his speech to the convention demonstrates it beyond any doubt. If the manufacturers endorse Mr. Parry's unjustified and malicious opposition to the workers' efforts to secure material and social peace, and to make for themselves down to his low level and stand committed with him for all the injury which must follow from his rabid and senseless, his venomous and ignorant antagonism, which must provoke only resentment and retaliation.

Organized labor is the result of our industrial development and environment. It proposes to secure a larger share of the production of wealth. It seeks to secure these objects by peaceful and lawful means. It aims to establish more rightful relations between man and man.

Organized labor seeks no such conflict as Mr. Parry would promote, but neither will it run away from one. We desire industrial and social peace, and we make for it ourselves down to his low level and stand committed with him for all the injury which must follow from his rabid and senseless, his venomous and ignorant antagonism, which must provoke only resentment and retaliation.

Organized labor is the result of our industrial development and environment. It proposes to secure a larger share of the production of wealth. It seeks to secure these objects by peaceful and lawful means. It aims to establish more rightful relations between man and man.

Organized labor seeks no such conflict as Mr. Parry would promote, but neither will it run away from one. We desire industrial and social peace, and we make for it ourselves down to his low level and stand committed with him for all the injury which must follow from his rabid and senseless, his venomous and ignorant antagonism, which must provoke only resentment and retaliation.

Organized labor is the result of our industrial development and environment. It proposes to secure a larger share of the production of wealth. It seeks to secure these objects by peaceful and lawful means. It aims to establish more rightful relations between man and man.

Organized labor seeks no such conflict as Mr. Parry would promote, but neither will it run away from one. We desire industrial and social peace, and we make for it ourselves down to his low level and stand committed with him for all the injury which must follow from his rabid and senseless, his venomous and ignorant antagonism, which must provoke only resentment and retaliation.

Organized labor is the result of our industrial development and environment. It proposes to secure a larger share of the production of wealth. It seeks to secure these objects by peaceful and lawful means. It aims to establish more rightful relations between man and man.

Organized labor seeks no such conflict as Mr. Parry would promote, but neither will it run away from one. We desire industrial and social peace, and we make for it ourselves down to his low level and stand committed with him for all the injury which must follow from his rabid and senseless, his venomous and ignorant antagonism, which must provoke only resentment and retaliation.

Organized labor is the result of our industrial development and environment. It proposes to secure a larger share of the production of wealth. It seeks to secure these objects by peaceful and lawful means. It aims to establish more rightful relations between man and man.

Organized labor seeks no such conflict as Mr. Parry would promote, but neither will it run away from one. We desire industrial and social peace, and we make for it ourselves down to his low level and stand committed with him for all the injury which must follow from his rabid and senseless, his venomous and ignorant antagonism, which must provoke only resentment and retaliation.

Organized labor is the result of our industrial development and environment. It proposes to secure a larger share of the production of wealth. It seeks to secure these objects by peaceful and lawful means. It aims to establish more rightful relations between man and man.

Organized labor seeks no such conflict as Mr. Parry would promote, but neither will it run away from one. We desire industrial and social peace, and we make for it ourselves down to his low level and stand committed with him for all the injury which must follow from his rabid and senseless, his venomous and ignorant antagonism, which must provoke only resentment and retaliation.

Organized labor is the result of our industrial development and environment. It proposes to secure a larger share of the production of wealth. It seeks to secure these objects by peaceful and lawful means. It aims to establish more rightful relations between man and man.

Organized labor seeks no such conflict as Mr. Parry would promote, but neither will it run away from one. We desire industrial and social peace, and we make for it ourselves down to his low level and stand committed with him for all the injury which must follow from his rabid and senseless, his venomous and ignorant antagonism, which must provoke only resentment and retaliation.

Organized labor is the result of our industrial development and environment. It proposes to secure a larger share of the production of wealth. It seeks to secure these objects by peaceful and lawful means. It aims to establish more rightful relations between man and man.

Organized labor seeks no such conflict as Mr. Parry would promote, but neither will it run away from one. We desire industrial and social peace, and we make for it ourselves down to his low level and stand committed with him for all the injury which must follow from his rabid and senseless, his venomous and ignorant antagonism, which must provoke only resentment and retaliation.

Organized labor is the result of our industrial development and environment. It proposes to secure a larger share of the production of wealth. It seeks to secure these objects by peaceful and lawful means. It aims to establish more rightful relations between man and man.

Organized labor seeks no such conflict as Mr. Parry would promote, but neither will it run away from one. We desire industrial and social peace, and we make for it ourselves down to his low level and stand committed with him for all the injury which must follow from his rabid and senseless, his venomous and ignorant antagonism, which must provoke only resentment and retaliation.

Organized labor is the result of our industrial development and environment. It proposes to secure a larger share of the production of wealth. It seeks to secure these objects by peaceful and lawful means. It aims to establish more rightful relations between man and man.

Organized labor seeks no such conflict as Mr. Parry would promote, but neither will it run away from one. We desire industrial and social peace, and we make for it ourselves down to his low level and stand committed with him for all the injury which must follow from his rabid and senseless, his venomous and ignorant antagonism, which must provoke only resentment and retaliation.

Organized labor is the result of our industrial development and environment. It proposes to secure a larger share of the production of wealth. It seeks to secure these objects by peaceful and lawful means. It aims to establish more rightful relations between man and man.

Organized labor seeks no such conflict as Mr. Parry would promote, but neither will it run away from one. We desire industrial and social peace, and we make for it ourselves down to his low level and stand committed with him for all the injury which must follow from his rabid and senseless, his venomous and ignorant antagonism, which must provoke only resentment and retaliation.

Organized labor is the result of our industrial development and environment. It proposes to secure a larger share of the production of wealth. It seeks to secure these objects by peaceful and lawful means. It aims to establish more rightful relations between man and man.

Organized labor seeks no such conflict as Mr. Parry would promote, but neither will it run away from one. We desire industrial and social peace, and we make for it ourselves down to his low level and stand committed with him for all the injury which must follow from his rabid and senseless, his venomous and ignorant antagonism, which must provoke only resentment and retaliation.

Organized labor is the result of our industrial development and environment. It proposes to secure a larger share of the production of wealth. It seeks to secure these objects by peaceful and lawful means. It aims to establish more rightful relations between man and man.

Organized labor seeks no such conflict as Mr. Parry would promote, but neither will it run away from one. We desire industrial and social peace, and we make for it ourselves down to his low level and stand committed with him for all the injury which must follow from his rabid and senseless, his venomous and ignorant antagonism, which must provoke only resentment and retaliation.

Organized labor is the result of our industrial development and environment. It proposes to secure a larger share of the production of wealth. It seeks to secure these objects by peaceful and lawful means. It aims to establish more rightful relations between man and man.

FIGHT FOR FREEDOM FATAL

Wife Murderer Struggles with Guards in Hospital and Dies as Result.

HOLYOKE, Mass., April 16.—Narcisse Gagne, who murdered his wife with a flat iron on Sunday night and attempted to commit suicide afterwards, died in the House of Providence hospital tonight.

Death was due to a physical collapse following a second desperate struggle to escape his guards.

Gagne had been quiet all day, but about 6 became restless. He talked considerably and when the doctor visited him later in the evening he became irritable and the guard put the handcuffs on him. This seemed to excite him and he attempted to rise from his bed. Then followed a desperate struggle, which made it necessary to call in the aid of other guards. After he was overpowered he seemed to be ranting from fatigue, but suddenly expired.

On Tuesday morning he nearly killed a policeman in an attempt to escape.

FRANK WARING IS ARRESTED

Attempt to Get Him Out of Jail on Plea that He is Insane.

Frank E. Waring, son of H. M. Waring of Omaha, was arrested yesterday at the home of his father here on the charge of passing a forged check upon a hotel man of Madison, Neb., for $100.

As soon as he was arrested he had been taken to all his father employed attorneys Gurley and Woodrough to secure his release on the ground that he is insane and hence mentally incompetent to commit crime within the provisions of the criminal law of Nebraska.

At noon yesterday a writ of habeas corpus was secured from Judge Baker and the hearing is to be before Judge Estelle this morning at 9:30.

Chief Donahue says that Waring is wanted in several states for forgery and that there is a $50 reward for him in Michigan. He was sent to the state asylum for insane in January, 1932, but has been out some time on parole, and that the other day he passed a forged check for $100 upon a hotel man at Madison, Neb. The hotel man and the sheriff of Madison county followed Waring to Omaha and the police made the arrest yesterday.

In the petition for the writ J. L. Greene, superintendent of the State Asylum for the insane, appears as the relator; asserts sole right to the custody of Waring and asks that the young man be recommitted to his care.

The petition for the writ J. L. Greene, superintendent of the State Asylum for the insane, appears as the relator; asserts sole right to the custody of Waring and asks that the young man be recommitted to his care.

The petition for the writ J. L. Greene, superintendent of the State Asylum for the insane, appears as the relator; asserts sole right to the custody of Waring and asks that the young man be recommitted to his care.

The petition for the writ J. L. Greene, superintendent of the State Asylum for the insane, appears as the relator; asserts sole right to the custody of Waring and asks that the young man be recommitted to his care.

The petition for the writ J. L. Greene, superintendent of the State Asylum for the insane, appears as the relator; asserts sole right to the custody of Waring and asks that the young man be recommitted to his care.

The petition for the writ J. L. Greene, superintendent of the State Asylum for the insane, appears as the relator; asserts sole right to the custody of Waring and asks that the young man be recommitted to his care.

The petition for the writ J. L. Greene, superintendent of the State Asylum for the insane, appears as the relator; asserts sole right to the custody of Waring and asks that the young man be recommitted to his care.

The petition for the writ J. L. Greene, superintendent of the State Asylum for the insane, appears as the relator; asserts sole right to the custody of Waring and asks that the young man be recommitted to his care.

The petition for the writ J. L. Greene, superintendent of the State Asylum for the insane, appears as the relator; asserts sole right to the custody of Waring and asks that the young man be recommitted to his care.

The petition for the writ J. L. Greene, superintendent of the State Asylum for the insane, appears as the relator; asserts sole right to the custody of Waring and asks that the young man be recommitted to his care.

The petition for the writ J. L. Greene, superintendent of the State Asylum for the insane, appears as the relator; asserts sole right to the custody of Waring and asks that the young man be recommitted to his care.

The petition for the writ J. L. Greene, superintendent of the State Asylum for the insane, appears as the relator; asserts sole right to the custody of Waring and asks that the young man be recommitted to his care.

The petition for the writ J. L. Greene, superintendent of the State Asylum for the insane, appears as the relator; asserts sole right to the custody of Waring and asks that the young man be recommitted to his care.