PRESIDENT WILL NOT SPEAK

Declines Invitation to Address Woman's Club and School Children Here.

The proposed address by President Roosevelt to the school children and his appearance before the Woman's club have been abandoned by the committee having the reception of the president in charge, and at the present time the plan of reception contemplates no more than a drive over the city and a dinner at the Omaha club.

The committee desired to have the president make these addresses and communicated with him on the subject. Until yesterday they had hope that he would accede to the desire of the children and the Woman's club, but word which was received from Cinnabar, Mont., Friday is to the effect that he cannot comply with the request. The committee will soon decide upon the course over which the presidential party will drive and this will be made public as soon as possible. As the president will not speak in public, it is hoped that congestion along the line of the drive will be avoided, as the course will be long enough for all to see the party without crowding into the central part of the city.

BRUNER FAMILY IN COURT

Wash Woman Charges Them with Taking Money from Her Trunk.

Robert Bruner, his wife and sister-in-law were arraigned in police court yesterday upon the complaint of Caroline Anderson, who charged them with abstracting $100 from her trunk. The Anderson woman roomed in the Bruner house and was suspected of having stolen some underclothing and other articles of value from the Bruners, and proceeded to search her room and trunks. They failed to have found among her other possessions a quantity of silks, etc., which they hardly supposed to belong to a woman in her circumstances. In retaliation the Anderson woman, who washes for a living, brings suit against the Bruners for taking the money from her trunk. The case has been continued to Saturday, April 25.

Announcements of the Theaters.

A matinee this afternoon and at 8:15 this evening will be the closing performances of one of the best laughing bills that has been at the Orpheum to unusually large audiences. Commencing tomorrow matinee, the new bill will be well balanced and varied. Foy and Clark will have a new sketch entitled "The Spring of Life." Howard and Bland will also have a new vehicle called "A Strong Boy." Freydo brothers are acrobats, a European importation of the Orpheum company. Music from a large number of different instruments is the specialty of Whittier brothers, while the vocal feature will be the character singer, Bernard Dyliza. Unthan, styled the armless wonder, will give a very unusual exhibition of how the feet can be adapted to perform the things ordinarily done by the hands. The kinodrome pictures will be entirely new.

Commencing Sunday matinee, the Border drama entitled "A Montana Outlaw," will open a three-day engagement at the Boyd.

St. Paul and Return, $12.35.
