Nebraska and Missouri Universities Are Preparing for Annual Joint Debute on the Trust Question.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, April 20 .- (Special.) - Governor Mickey this morning appointed J. W. Steinhart of Nebraska City a member of the board of trustees of the Institute for the Blind at Nebraska City and for the Deaf and Dumb institute at Omaha. Mr. Steinhart was appointed to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of C. G. Elle-

The governor is still considering the matter of the appointment of the South Omaha Police commission. Late this afternoon another delegation called upon him, as did also ex-Representative Shelly. Mr. Shelly said that the delegation headed by David had recommended, among the names it presented to the governor, several parties that probably would be acceptable to the people of South Omaha. While some members of that delegation were bitterly opposed to saloons, he said, a majority were very conservative men. As for himself, Mr. Shelly said he wanted a police commission composed of good, conservative men, and with that end in view he was willing to lend to the governor all the assistance within his

The oil inspector, whose appointment has apparently been sidetracked to make way for the South Omaha delegations, will be appointed, so Governor Mickey said today, the latter part of the week. The deputy game warden will not be appointed before the first of June or July.

Ressons for Veto.

While the labor unions are rejoicing and adopting resolutions of thanks because Governor Mickey vetoed the exemption bill passed by the late legislature, the retail merchants who secured the passage of the measure are censuring the governor. Governor Mickey filed his reasons for disapproving the bill with his veto. According to the new bill, if a laboring man or other received $60 a month, $5 of this was sub-ject to garnismment each month. It probably would cost the working man $5 to $10 to have his salary garnisheed. A second precall of the attorney of the employer would subject the employe to dismissal. The present law exempts two months wages of the working man. Inaamuch as all others have exempt a homestead worth $2,000, the governor thought it no more than right that the laboring man should have at least the two menths' wages as given him under the present law.

Arbor Day Observance.

Tomorrow afternoon the state, officers will each plant a tree in a cluster, to the memory of J. Sterling Morton. Today Governor Mickey and several of the officers staked off a small park on the northwest part of the capitol grounds upon which the trees will be planted. State Superinsedent Fowler has returned from a trip the western part of the state, and he id that never in the history of the state had be seen such preparations for the ob-servance of Arbor day. Nearly every school, he said, would have exercises and plant

Davis Appeals to Courts.

As a result of the action of the Board of Public Lands and Buildings in upholding the contract it made with the Lee Broom Duster company and deciding against convict labor, the courts probably will be called upon to take a hand. This afternoon Mr. Davis, who asked for only about a dozen men with which to start his button compel the board to stand by the contract it made with him than by appealing to the courts. The contract with the broom company did have these signatures and it called men are not now available for work in the penitentiary, hence Mr. Davis was unable to secure his men. Mr. Davis said the ard in committee of the whole agreed to allow him a dozen men April 15, and he does not understand why it refused to support the motion made to grant him the when the board met Saturday.

Columbus Correspondent Supports the Proposition Made by a Genoa Girl.

COLUMBUS, Neb., April 20 .- To the Editor of The Bee: In reading yesterday's Bee my eye caught that Genoa girl's note to the Lincoln city clerk regarding the exhibition of ladies' hosiery by means of "imitation legs." Evidently the writer of that note is a sample of the propriety and modesty produced in Columbus' western neighbor.

I quite agree with the young lady about the abolishment of those "imitations" Lincoln, especially during the weeks the legislature is in session, for then the cap-ital has all the imitations it can stand. But if those "imitation legs" were kept out of the windows, as the fair creature from Genoa succests, how in the world would storekeepers be able to fittingly exhibit those wonderful creations of art and handiwork—the ladies' stockings? I can think of only one way-substitute for the "imitations" the real thing. There can be no question that such a combination of art and nature would attract attention-far more attention than those wooden shams now employed. Fusion Leader Thinks Railroads Will Cont aue to Evade Taxes.

BURDEN FALLS HEAVILY ON FARMERS

New Law, in Opinion of Mr. Loomis Will Not Produce Equitable Assessment of Property In

"I look for no substantial relief, such as the people of the state need, from this law," said Representative George L. Loomis of Fremont yesterday in speaking of the new revenue law enacted by the last legislature, of which he was the fusion leader in the house. Mr. Loomis likewise was a safe when discovered by Agent Klepser. member of the joint committee that framed this new law, but he was in the minority, and the law, even when presented, did not meet his entire approval. Mr. Loomis, "but, while the grand assessment is too small, that is not the main proposition. What we need as a means of relief is the equitable distribution of taxes and that is what, in my judgment, this law will not produce. I know that some of its ardent exponents claim that it will do this, but I am frank to say it requires more faith than I am able to command to entertain such hopes. That the bill will increase the taxes of the farmer in the east end of the state and the taxes of other smaller taxpayers there is no doubt in my mind, but it does not promise any material increase in the taxes of the railroads and other corporations that have been evading or escaping their share of the public burden. Mr. Loomis' attention was called to the avowed determination of the Western Union Telegraph company to contest that part of the law which taxes telegraph, telephone and express companies on their tangible property and, in addition thereto, on their gross earnings for one year as their franchises

EXTENDING THE SHORT LINE Great Northern Surveyors Looking Over Field Southwest of O'NeIll.

O'NEILL, Neb., April 20,-(Special.)-The appearance in O'Neill on Saturday of last week of the right-of-way man for the Great Northern railroad and the fact that he made a trip over the proposed link between here and Dunning on the Burlington, has created new interest in the proposed extenion. A prominent Sloux City business man came here with him and remained in O'Neill while he drove over the preliminary survey that had been made years ago by the Ogden Short Line people. The business man, for obvious reasons, did not wish his name made public, but he stated positively that the road would be extended southwest from O'Neill to connect with the Burlington at Dunning this year. He stated that the amount of $15,000,000 had been already subscribed for the purpose of building tw links in Nebraska between the Great Northern and Burlington systems. He, stated that Sioux City people were very much interested in the proposed extension from O'Neill, as it would add a new field to their industries. He was told that the merger litigation would not in the least interfere with the proposed extensions in Nebraska. The right-of-way man stated that within the next thirty days a corps of surveyors would be on the ground and make the necessary survey and before snow-fly through would be running from St. Paul, Sioux City and Minneapolis to Denver.

Gentlemen:-Some two years ago I was so run down that I lacked strength, had no appetite and could not sleep nights. Sometimes it seemed as though my back would break in two after stooping. I had to get up many times during the night to urinate and go often through the day. After having the best physicians prescribe for me without relief, I decided from my symptoms that the medicine I needed was Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. After trying a sample bottle with good results, I purchased six bottles of the regular size and after taking them was entirely cured. Swamp-Root is a wonderful remedy when a man is not feeling well, after exposure or loss of sleep and irregular meals. It is also a great medicine to tone up a man's system.
