AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Discussion of City Hall Problem is Becoming Interesting.

Proposition to Buy Old High School and Remodel it Opposed by Many and May Be Abandoned.

From street talk it is inferred that there is going to be a good deal of opposition to the purchase by the city of the present high school building for city hall purposes. in the first place the petition for this calls for the voting of bonds for the purchase of the site for $25,000 and the expenditure of $10,060 in repairs, Even with this are unt expended, it is asserted by those who have oked the building over that it will never be fit for a city hall. Every one who knows anything about construction of buildings is willing to admit that the site is an ideal one for a city hall building, but the building as it stands now is practically not worth $2,000 to a wrecking company.

"To spend $10,000 on remodeling this old ; building," said a member of the city counter, "is really out of the question. For a little more money the city can secure a streets.

A member of the beard of education said there is no sure thing that the district will sell the preparty in question for the price offered by the city. If a saie of this kind is made it will be necessary to jump to Thomas Kozell. Twenty-eighth and I streets, for a dwelling to cost $1,000. in and vote honds for the immediate construction of a high school building. So far the school district has got along without voting bonds and is in fair shape as compared with cities of the same size in other parts of the country. There seems to be a desire on the part of the members of the Board of Education to keep out of debt and not ask the people to vote bonds, consequently the proposition to buy the property in question may be turned down unless some sort of assurance is given that the people will consent to the immediate construction of a high school building on the Hoctor site at Twenty-third and K streets. More Gas Pipes.

The Omaha Gas company is now engaged in laying mains on D street from Twenty-Twenty-third street. When this from Twenty-fourth to Twenty-fifth street. Then next will come the laying of a main on Seventeenth street from Missouri avenue to M street. This work will be done as soon as possible. Mr. Davis, the local manager for the gas company said last night that he is going to push this work as rapidly as possible and that the only delay, if there is to be any, will be in the arrival of material already ordered.

Another Engine Working. Superintendent F. L. Corwin of the Union Stock Yards Railroad company said last added to his string. "The new one," said Corwin, "is the 'nine spot," or commonly speaking, engine No. 9. This new engine is practically a duplicate of No. 7, which was turned out for the Stock Yards company in 1898. After a trial of about a month the engine was found to be a fine one SCHOOL PLAN NOT MUCH FAVORED and it went into service at the yards yesterday. With the coming of the new engine one of those now in service will be sent to the shops. The intention of Superintendent Corwin is to have all of his nine engines in service when the big rush of business at the yards comes in the fall. Club Membership Increasing.

> There is a plan affoat now to increase the membership of the South Omaha club to 100 members. Since the limit has been raised quite a number of applications have been filed and will be acted upon by the committee at a meeting to be held later in the month. Improvements will be made to the present quarters or else more commodious rooms will be secured. The club is out of debt and owns every article in the present quarters. With a membership limited to 100 it is figured that there will be plenty income to more than pay all bills and to make improvements desired.

Magie City Gossip. The city poundmaster will kill dogs in the old-fashioned way this summer. Grading on the bluff at Twenty-fifth and L streets has been resumed by Dan Hanatte and erect a building according to the needs of the city. This can be done for $50,000. Then the city will have something worth the price."

A member of the beard of education said there is no sure thing there is no sure thing the city will be a considered by the city of the city of the city will have something and that it is a girl.

The Megic City Kings' Daughters will meet with Mrs. L. C. Gibson, 'wenty-third and N streets, on Thursday afternoon. Clerk Shrigley has dog tags for sale and those who own canines will have to hurrin order to get in before the dogcatche starts on his rounds.

J. V. Miller, head clerk for D. S. Clark, the druggist on N street, has returned from a ten days' stay in Iowa. While away Mr. Miller was married to Miss hyrtle Savage of Newmarket, Ia. Mr. and Mrs. Miller have taken apartments on North Twenty-fourth street.

and F. A. Gates to Bellevue. Rev. R. L. Wheeler, chairman of the committee on home missions, and Rev. R. M. L. Braden, pastor at large, presented their reports. The pastoral relation of Rev. R. M. Stevenson and the Second church was dissolved, so as to allow Mr. Stevenson to give his entire time to the work for Bellevue college, he being its vice president. He will give his farewell sermon next Sunday, much to the regret of his congregation, which, however, appreciates the necessity of the change. Rev. J. J. Lampe was elected moderator of History of the Church. Last night's popular session was opened by prayer by Rev. R. J. Halsey. Dr. Stevenson followed and told of the work for Bellevue, among other things saying that he had so far this year raised $3,000 for the college, $2,500 of this in Omaha, and that $56,000 will be spent soon on improve-vacant church sessions.

ments. Dr. J. D. Kerr followed with a history of the church in Nebraska. He said that the first mission was begun among the Indians at Bellevue in the year 1834 and in 1855 the first white church was formed in

Nebraska City. In 1858 the Omaha presby-WORK OF OMAHA PRESBYTERY | Nebraska City. In 1898 the Omaha presby-Missouri River synod. The state was later divided into two presbyteries north and south of the Platte and in 1873 the Kearney presbytery was added and the following year the three were joined in the Nebraska synod. There were then sixty-one churches and of the pastors at that time only three—J. T. Baer, J. D. Kerr and John C. Sloanare now active. The church struggled along through the hard pioneer times until 1878, when during the following five years the best growth was made. There are now six presbyteries in the state, Box Butte being formed in 1894. The college at Believue was set up in 1883 with sixteen students, Hastings college preceded it by about a year and the Omaha seminary was begun in 1891.

Dr. Alexander G. Wilson followed with an outline of the early history of the church and a strong appeal for higher education under Christian influences. In showing the early influences of the faith, the speaker said that of the sixty-four brigation.
