

WORKS FOR JUVENILE COURT

Chicagoan Visits Omaha to Confer with the Mayor on the Subject.

A. S. Orne of Chicago is in the city in the interest of a juvenile court and to confer with Mayor Moore on the subject. He is the originator of the juvenile court law of Illinois and has for twenty years or more interested himself along these lines. He expressed himself as much disappointed over the veto of the juvenile court bill by Governor Miley, and will visit the governor at Lincoln to discuss the matter with him. He said:

"From personal investigation of the charitable and corrective institutions of the United States, it is demonstrated that we are raising a crop of criminals, springing invariably from the independent or homeless children that have been permitted to run at large in the streets of the slums. From this class over seventy-five per cent of the criminal classes have been recruited during the past ten years. Prior to the enactment of the juvenile court law of Illinois from 900 to 800 boys were sent annually to the Cook county jail, and these were under 16 years of age. Since the enactment of that law there have been only twenty boys sent to the same jail in Chicago. Special places of detention are provided for the boys, whereby they are taught useful trades and how to become useful citizens. Only the wholly incorrigible boys are sent to the state reformatory."

"I must say from my observation of your Omaha police court that it is conducted the most humanely of any I have ever visited, and I have visited the police courts of nearly every prominent city of the United States."

TELEPHONE STRIKE SITUATION.

Control by the Union.

Quoting from the written demands of the union:

"Inspectors shall be governed by this agreement."

"No more than one second-class inspector to be employed to every one first-class inspector, and no more than one helper to be employed to every one first-class inspector. All helpers to be registered with the I. B. E. W."

"When the I. B. E. W. cannot furnish a sufficient number of inspectors, the company SHALL BE ALLOWED to hire NON-UNION men, providing they are acceptable to the I. B. E. W. and WILL IMMEDIATELY MAKE APPLICATION TO THAT ORDER" (for membership).

At the time of the strike the company had employed in its inspection department in Omaha thirty men affected by above demands. Twenty-five of these men are at work at this date. The union insists that the company discharge these twenty-five men or compel them to affiliate with the union whether they desire to do so or not. I do not believe that fair-minded men, either union or non-union, will say that such a course would be right, or sustain the company in complying with such arbitrary demands.

Having the utmost confidence in the justice of its position the company desires the public to have full and complete knowledge of all the issues in this controversy, believing it will be sustained by every thinking fair-minded person in this community. Announcements of the Theaters.

With matinee and evening performances today at the Orpheum a week will be brought to a close that has been marked by big attendance and excellent entertainment. Commencing matinee tomorrow a new bill of specialties will be given. The German character comedians, Raynold and Caverly, will be among the prominent features with wit and humor. Julia King-Ley, the comedienne, and Nelson Lewis will be seen in a new comedy sketch entitled "After the Housewife." Hayes and Healy as the ringmaster and the circus rider, are a unique pair of fun makers, the former standing six feet, the latter little more than three and one-half feet in height. Montrell, the European juggler, will be one of the sensational numbers. Still another will be the brothers French, daring and skilled cyclists. The Baileys are ragtime and shadowgraph dancers. The kinodrome pictures will be entirely new.

"The Missouri Girl," the comedy drama in which Sadie Raymond has been starring for several seasons past, comes to the Boyd tomorrow afternoon for an engagement that includes Sunday night and Monday night. The scenes of the play are laid in Missouri and it is said to be a most entertaining comedy. The Ozark quartette furnishes the singing specialties.

Measles at the Creche.

Four cases of measles have been discovered at the Creche, Nineteenth and Harney streets, where little children are cared for. The cases are of a mild type, and as measles is not one of the diseases to be quarantined under the city code, it is anticipated that all of the little ones will be allowed to catch measles if they want to, so that they may stand no danger from it in later years.
