Wheat and Oats Drop, Corn Goes Up, While Provisions Are Mainly Unchanged, After Considerable Settling by Longs.

CHICAGO, April 25.—Trading in the grain and provision pits was quiet today and an easier tone prevailed in wheat, many closing lower and July 30 lower; many corn contracts were unchanged, but July was a shade lower and August a shade higher, with July 30 down 1/4 cent, August 30 up 1/4 cent, and September 30 up 1/4 cent.

There was little of consequence in the trading in wheat and the market on the whole was quiet. Opening prices were easier, due to the lower cash and futures, but were unchanged, with July 30 down 1/4 cent, August 30 up 1/4 cent, and September 30 up 1/4 cent.

There was considerable realizing in provisions by local buyers, but offerings were well taken up, with prices steady. July pork closed unchanged at $14.75; July lard was 2 1/2c lower at $9.65; and ribs were off a shade at $9.65.

WEAVER GRAIN COMPANY

CHICAGO, April 24.—Wheat—From a speculative point of view the situation in wheat is about what it was at the end of last week. At that time the principal bull holder was the center of interest and the trade was fluctuating in and about the price of 80c.

Other markets are more in sympathy with ours than for some time past, and in every evidence now of a carefully planned campaign.

WEAVER GRAIN COMPANY, Omaha Branch 110-111 Board of Trade Building.

have been realized daily, but selling short in wheat, the grain market was "slipped" last year and if they hold onto the short side, a repetition will be the result.
