

STILL THEY COME

The First Week of the Second Series of the Hospe Piano Club Sales Has Demonstrated that the Piano Buyers Are Aware of the Great Reduction and the Positively Easy Terms Made in These Club Sales—Many Homes in Omaha Have Been Equipped with These Beautiful and New Bargains, and the Shipments to Out-of-Town Buyers Have Been More Than Satisfactory.

It stands to reason that when pianos are sold from one-half to two-thirds the regular prices that this means something. Trade recognizes that this is no scheme, but a legitimate matter of fact business. The low prices, the high quality of the goods, the exceedingly small weekly or monthly payments presented to the piano buyer—unequaled opportunity, where almost anyone can afford to have an instrument by paying a very small sum down, and very little every week, you can soon become the possessor of either a piano or organ, it is an incentive which forces sales.

Many customers who have been contemplating the purchase of an instrument for many months, who have shopped around and obtained prices and terms, both at home and from large eastern houses, are satisfied that they can save money by making their purchase at the inducements held out by the Hospe Club Sale. There is no waiting, you make your selection, and have the instrument sent home.

Every instrument is fully warranted by the manufacturer, as well as this company. These clubs comprise a selection of 100 instruments, the product of sixteen different factories. The latest up-to-date styles, the finest of veneers and most beautiful finish. You will find Spinnaker mahogany, San Domingo mahogany, French hickory, butternut, birch, quarter-sawn oak, American walnut, rosewood and golden oak cases, from the best known factories, such as the Knaechel, Bach, Hallett & Davis, Kimball, Krell, Lindeman, Sterling, Adam Schaff, Melville Clark, Royal, Hospe, Whitney, Hine, Burton, and many others of our up-to-date manufacturers, at prices ranging from $147, $168, $178, $197, $217, $227, $238, $278, $317, $338—Instruments that have been sold at prices ranging from $250 to $500.

No house in the past has ever attempted to offer high grade, medium grade and the cheaper instruments at the unprecedented low prices and easy terms that the customer gets in this club sale. Having exhausted Clubs A, B and C, the second series represent D, E and F—D standing for the lowest priced goods, E for the medium price, and F for the higher priced pianos.

By cutting out this ad and mailing it, or handing it in person to us, you will get all the particulars of how easy it is to become the owner of an instrument on the savings deposit plan—insured beneath. The second series is being rapidly taken up, and to set good selection and not be disappointed, it is necessary for the intending purchaser to not put off the matter, but come at once.

SOCIETY LOOKS LEISURELY

Inclined to Move with Stately Tread Along Pleasure's Path.

WEEK DOES NOT PROMISE MUCH

Announcements Show that Much Has Been Anticipated and the Best Depends on Developments of the Days.

This week looks even less interesting at the outset than last week did and that offered little enough outside the charity ball, the closing of the Country club on Saturday, and the wedding of Miss Stanton, but then as everybody knows, it is not wise to judge a week too early for all manner of things are likely to develop before Saturday night. There is really nothing of consequence announced at present, excepting, of course, the opening of the Country club on Saturday, and that is evidently quite enough for society seems to be thinking of little else. Already eighty plates have been reserved for the dinner and it is probable that at least that many more will be spoken for before the close of the week. The hop in the evening at the Country club on Saturday, and with the addition to the dining room, there will be room to dance with some comfort which there has never been before. And society will be glad indeed to get back to the Country club again for there is after all a charm about the informality of the place that indoor affairs, no matter how smart, cannot claim. The tournament for women announced for the 6th is also anticipated and even the girls who could not be induced to play golf or tennis last fall are interested.

On Monday Mr. and Mrs. Willis Todd will entertain the Bon Ton Card club. Miss Blanche Howland will entertain for Miss Harlan Curtis, whose marriage to Mr. Pettors occurs on Wednesday.

On Tuesday Miss McClintock will be hostess of the meeting of the Euchebe club; Lieutenant William Cowin will give a box party at Boyd's; the wedding of Miss Pollard and Rev. T. P. Bates will be celebrated at All Saints' church at 11 o'clock; the Hanson Park Whist club will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Straight.

On Wednesday, the marriage of Miss Harlan Curtis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Curtis, and Mr. A. H. Pettors will occur at the home of the bride's father, 1909 South Twenty-eighth street; the marriage of Miss Carrie Rosenfeld and Mr. Emil Marx of Sioux City will be solemnized at Metropolitan club at 6:30 o'clock.

On Friday, Mrs. T. C. Bruner will entertain the members of the Friday club. On Saturday, the season's opening of the Country club will be celebrated with a dinner and dance.

The women whose efforts were so largely responsible for the success of the charity ball of Thursday evening have reason to be proud indeed, for society seems generally of the opinion that it was not only one of the most enjoyable, but one of the best managed affairs of the year. To begin with, the hall and banquet room that have so sorely tried the ingenuity of those who have entertained there, were made really beautiful under the skilled direction of the women who had that matter in charge, the banquet room being truly a work of art. The provision of card tables for those who did not care to dance was another admirable bit of management thoroughly appreciated by the many who find the average ball a bore and enabled them to enjoy the evening. The "Sir Roger de Coverly" which was the opening of the ball and in which about twenty-five couples were indulged participated, was the one disappointment, for it was given up at the last moment, owing to the failure of those who were to have danced to remain together downstairs until time to go up. The couples became scattered and rather than cause delay it was called off. There were many who felt that it was just as well anyway, for the participants were in special costume that the stately old dance really required to make it complete and effective. Financially the ball was successful, though the proceeds have not yet been announced.

The following is the list of patronesses for "The House that Jack Built," to be given at Boyd's on Friday and Saturday for the benefit of the Teachers' Annuity and Aid association.

Bishop and Mrs. Worthington have decided to sail for Europe May 2 instead of May 15, as first announced.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Clarke have taken the house at 119 South Thirtieth street.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Guckert have purchased the house formerly owned by Mr. A. J. Love, at 116 North Thirty-eighth street and will make that their home.

Mrs. Cummings and the Misses Hamilton are expected back from the south about the middle of May.

Among those who will accompany the Comedy club to Atlantic, Ia., where "The Critic" is to be presented for the benefit of the P. O. society, are Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Hitchcock, Mrs. Samuel Burns, Mr. Crouse, Miss Kimball and Mrs. Burke.

The marriage of Miss Mabel Pollard and Rev. T. P. Bates will occur on Tuesday at 11 o'clock at All Saints' church.

The joint reception of the Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, to have been given next Thursday evening, has been indefinitely postponed. As the annual meeting of the state society of Daughters will meet in Omaha the third week in October, the women may embrace that occasion for a large social affair, when the Sons will be included.

A wedding of interest to many Omaha people will take place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lindsey, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's father, Mr. George Fitchett, on Georgia avenue, on Sunday evening, only the members of the families being present. Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey left that evening for a wedding trip through the south and east, and will be at home after May 1 at the Bachelors'. Both young people are widely known in the city, being members of two of Omaha's oldest families.

A pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George McQuade, 1925 South Sixteenth street on Saturday, the occasion being the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding. Music, dancing and cards contributed to the pleasure of the occasion.

The members of the Floral club were entertained on Friday afternoon at the home of Miss Olive Baker at 524 South Twenty-ninth street, the members present being Misses Irma Staples, Helen Sommer, Russell McKelvey, Grace Shipman, Bess and Anna Welch.

WOMAN IN CLUB AND CHARITY

The Arts and Crafts society of Rochester is holding an exhibition of hand work of various kinds, including Deerfield embroidery, woven rugs, hand-made furniture, pottery, metal work, jewelry and many other things, chiefly the work of women. Three of the large rooms of the Mechanics' institute are filled with these beautiful works from all parts of the country. The exhibit closes this week, after which things are to be sent to New York to be exhibited.

A preliminary meeting for the formation of an alumnae association of Sacred Heart academy was held on Tuesday afternoon and the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. J. M. Daugherty; vice president, Mrs. Harry Carian; recording secretary, Miss McNamara; corresponding secretary, Miss Bertha Baumer; treasurer, Miss Anna Mullian. There were about thirty present.

The women of the second and third divisions of the First Baptist church will give a strawberry luncheon from 11:30 until 3 o'clock on Tuesday and Wednesday, at 1616 Harney street. The proceeds will go to the building fund of the new church.

The members of the parliamentary practice department of the Women's club combined sociability with business at Monday's meeting held at the home of Mrs. W. P. Hartford. The annual election of officers was held, resulting as follows: Mrs. Hartford, leader; Mrs. Monett, Mrs. Hood and Mrs. E. Cole assistant leaders; Mrs. W. H. Hancock, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Hartford, representative on the board of directors. The remainder of the afternoon was devoted to sociability.

In Mrs. Woolsey's book, "Republics and Women," the women who "have all the rights they want" are given the following information: "In sixteen states a wife has no right to her own earnings and the husband can collect the same for his own use. In eight states she has no right to her own inherited property; in seven states she has no interest in the estate her husband owns at the time of their marriage and at his death she has no dower therein. In no state in the union, if the wife dies first, can she bequeath any part of the property which she as wife has helped to earn, even to her children, for during the husband's life she has only the interest of a pauper or dependent in such estate. In several states the wife has no right to her own inherited property which, unless placed in the hands of trustees (and away from her own management) becomes absolutely her husband's property at their marriage and at his death she is only entitled to the use of a fraction of it while she lives and even this fraction reverting back to her husband's family at her death. In thirty-six states a wife has no right or legal guardianship of her own children, the father having the entire control of them."

In the history of the Omaha Woman's club a more successful affair has never been given than the celebration of the tenth anniversary of the organization of the club on Friday afternoon. Many other programs have been given, but none so successful as this one. The character of a more or less elaborate and formal nature held, but there was that in Friday's gathering that the others have not had, a mingling of the original enthusiasm from which the club sprang, with the sense of satisfaction and assurance that comes with experience and success, that must have done more toward stimulating interest than anything that could have been done. The only regret in that other women, those not the members of the organization, could not have been present to have received the inspiration that must have brought them back into the fold.

From Falls City comes account of another delightful affair for club women given last week by Miss Rebecca Wilson, vice president of the First district, to Sorosis and Friends in Council of Falls City. Mrs. Jennie Southwick of Emerson School of Oratory, Boston, who recently entertained the Omaha women club, was Miss Wilson's guest and in her honor she gave a reception to the club women and their husbands. During the evening Mrs. Southwick graciously consented to give a few readings and for an hour the hall her audience spellbound. The reception is reported one of the most enjoyable affairs of the social season.

Something New in Physical Culture. Mr. W. Earl Flynn of Detroit has recently arrived in this city from the east, where he has just finished the largest business of its kind ever undertaken. Judging from the receipts given him by our most prominent families it is probable that Omaha will not be backward in promoting this movement in the west, which leading educators say is the foremost educational movement of the new century.

The Thursday afternoon Kensington met last week with Mrs. Dr. Wilcox on Chicago street. The women of the Kensington presented Mrs. C. J. Best two handsome pieces of hand-painted china as a twentieth wedding anniversary remembrance.

Mrs. W. H. Gates entertained between sixty and seventy women at cards Thursday afternoon at her home, 2122 Wirt street. Prizes were won by Mrs. Engel, Mrs. Ed P. Smith, Mrs. Walworth and Mrs. W. H. Shriver.

A fitting close of an especially brilliant winter was the ball given last evening at the Metropolitan club by club members and friends, about thirty-five couples being present. While there was no attempt at elaborate decoration an effective arrangement of flags and greens made the ballroom very attractive, a quantity of cut flowers being used below stairs. The ball opened at 10:30 with the grand march, after which a short program was danced. A banquet followed, the guests being seated at two long and handsomely trimmed tables arranged down in the banquet room. Mr. George Seligson acted as toastmaster.
