Touches Up the Visiting Twirler for Two Three-Baggers-Companion Carries Off a Few Crowns of His Own.

Omaka celebrated its first game with Kansas City by shutting Kid Nichols' team out, 9 to 0. It was a pretty day and the air was warm and still. The bleachers and the grand stand held 1,600 fans, who cheered themselves hoarse at the pretty plays that abounded throughout the game. The visitors were absolutely unable to hit Companion with any results and the team supported him admirably. Hickey was at third for the first time this season and he played a steady, consistent game on the pin cushion. All the team for that matter played admirably, taking chances that seemed impossible and keeping down the hits by fast playing.

Right from the first Omaha started hitting the ball and they all took a turn at smashing it around. It was all up with Smith by the sixth and Halla relieved him, but he could not stem the tide that had set in against the team from the Kaw. Gonding had a faculty for hitting the ball and twice socked it out for three bags. Ketcham in middle for the visitors made a sensational catch of Wright's fly in the last of the fourth, running close in to the infield from deep middle to gather it in. OMAHA.
