

KANSAS CITY TAKES A GAME

Four Thousand Fans Turn Out to See Pa's Boys Go Down. VISITORS SOAR HIGH IN THE EIGHTH. With the Score Six to One in Favor of Hourkettes, the Kansas City Men Pile Up Seven Runs.

Kid Nichols' crew of Kansas City slugs... The visitors simply toyed with the local line on whom McLaughlin let up in the latter part of the game.

Bunny skies and warm air brought out 4,000 of the fans and they cheered and cheered, clapped with glee and jangled as they felt like it.

In the first inning Kansas City scored a run on a double to left field by Waldron and a single by Miller. Miller's grounder was a hot one and Dolan made a stab at it and fumbled.

Meanwhile the Omaha men started in to do things. They had their batting rags with them and hit Nichols freely, but without success until the third.

In the fourth Stewart slammed into a foater with encouraging results, landing on first in a jiffy. Patterson sacrificed him to second, Thomas singled and Stewart sauntered over the plate.

With seven hits against him in five innings, Nichols took to the coop and Hess began retailing curves. Thomas saw the southpaw in all of his tail and advanced first and smiled a smile that landed him on third.

But things were not what they seemed. Hess was anxious for revenge and he rapped out a single to left field on the eighth.
