THOMPSON, BELDEN & CO. Y. M. C. A. Building, Corner Sixteenth and Douglas Sts

eral Freight Agent Kahn and General Solicitor White for the Elkhorn division of the Northwestern—and by General Superintendent R. W. Baxter for the Union Pacific.

On return to the train the party was joined by Governor Mickey, Senators Millard and Dietrich and Congressman Hinsaw and Norris.

At Hastings the president received an ovation, large crowds coming to see him despite the wind and dust that made it quite disagreeable. The stop at Hastings showed the president as the guest of Nebraska's senior senator, who rode in the presidential carriage, together with Mayor Miles, Judge W. G. Burton and Marshal of the day.

ECZEMA The World's Greatest Skin Torture. Many Infants are Born with Eczema. It's the Only Thing Some Folks Have Left When They Die.

THE ONLY INFALLIBLE CURE IS CUTICURA. It is in the treatment of this most distressing of torturing and disgusting skin and scalp humors, with loss of hair, that the Cuticura remedies have achieved their greatest success.

WAL, which must count most. He congratulated Nebraska upon its splendid record and the best crop of all, he said, was the boys and girls.

Lincoln Beautifully Decorated. Lincoln more than any of the other points visited was prettily decorated with flags; every window flew the American flag; the postoffice, the university, the state house, the commercial buildings, the residences, each waved a welcome from a hundred flags to the hero of the people.

At the Omaha Club. Hundreds of persons tramped the lawns and lined the curbsides at Twentieth and Douglas streets when the president's carriage drew up before the Omaha club.

Party at the Table. The tables were arranged in the shape of a rectangle on the east side, which was smaller table projected toward the orchestra. The party was composed of the following:

At Hastings. At Hastings the president received an ovation, large crowds coming to see him despite the wind and dust that made it quite disagreeable. The stop at Hastings showed the president as the guest of Nebraska's senior senator, who rode in the presidential carriage, together with Mayor Miles, Judge W. G. Burton and Marshal of the day.

At Lincoln. The arrival of President Roosevelt's special train in Lincoln at a few minutes after 1 o'clock was announced by a chorus of all the factory whistles in town.

At Crete. CRETE, Neb., April 27.—(Special.)—State Senator Anderson received word shortly before his train today that President Roosevelt's train would stop at Crete for two minutes at 12:30. The word was quickly spread and a large crowd gathered in an incredibly short time to catch a glimpse of the nation's honored executive.

WELCOME THE PRESIDENT. (Continued from First Page.) president of the United States heard and fairly pivoted on his heel to neglect no one.

Salutes a Veteran. As the carriage turned off Sixteenth and west on Harney an aged veteran hobbled to the edge of the crowd and gave a cheer that was heard by all.

At the Omaha Club. Hundreds of persons tramped the lawns and lined the curbsides at Twentieth and Douglas streets when the president's carriage drew up before the Omaha club.

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills. I have been using Doan's Backache Kidney Pills for some time, and I can say that I have never felt better. I have been troubled with backache and kidney trouble for many years, and I have tried many other remedies, but they have not done me any good. I have heard of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills, and I have bought a box, and I have taken it, and I feel like a new man. I can do my work now, and I can enjoy my life.
