The stage employes of the various theaters of the city will be tendered a benefit at the Boyd Thursday night, April 30. A long and varied program of all sorts of acts will be given. The orchestra will be made up of the greater part of the musicians from the Boyd and Orpheum theaters and it will be one of the best orchestras ever heard in the city. Among those who have agreed to do an act are: Carl Reiter, the Baileys from the Orpheum Hattie Carmontelle of the Ferris Stock sompany, Marie Snowden, Dick Ferris, Me-Mullen brothers, John Miley, Calom Broder, Daisy Delmore, Flood and Hayes and Montrell. The various members of the stage employes lodge have been circulating about the city disposing of tickets, and they report very satisfactory progress. The object of the benefit is a worthy one, its nim being to start a fund to aid cripples, destitute and ill members. Tickets may be had at the box office of any of the theaters

Detective Follows a Sparkler.

M. Cavanaugh of the Nebraska Home Detective agency has returned from Arkansas after a successful quest of a diamond pin taken from E. E. Phillips of New York last October on one of the trains entering Omaha. The sparkler was deposited as security for a loan of $50 to a party in St. Joseph, Mo., who later removed to Little Rock, retaining the diamond, which has just been recovered and returned to Mr. Phillips.
