Commercial Club Makes Its Wishes Known to the Library Board.

If the trustees of the public library employ any but Council Bluffs architects to do the work of erecting the new building, the Commercial club will stand by the architects of the city as expressed in the unanimous adoption of the following resolutions at the meeting of the Commercial club last night.

GETS TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

Penalty Imposed Upon Matt Hunter for Killing Homer Holland.

DES MOINES, Ia., April 29.—Matt Hunter was sentenced to twenty-five years' imprisonment by Judge Parish at Osceola today for the murder of Homer Holland, a college athlete of national reputation. The murder occurred at Mount Airy, Ia., where Hunter and Holland were rivals in love and had quarreled during a game of poker in which Hunter claimed Holland had defrauded him. He procured a weapon, sought Holland and coolly shot him down in the city street, as a convicted murderer in the second degree, receiving a life sentence.
