Twenty-Two Young Men Graduated from Omaha Dental College.

EIGHTEEN ARE RESIDENTS OF NEBRASKA

Vice Chancellor Stevenson Confers the Degree of Doctor of Dental Surgery Upon Each Member of the Class.

The eighth annual commencement exercises of the Omaha Dental college, the dental department of the University of Omaha, were held Thursday afternoon at Boyd's theater.

The program opened with an overture, "Le Cheval de Bronze," followed by invocation by Dr. R. M. Stevenson of Bellevue college.

"We who have been engaged in active learning life know better than most men who today enter upon a professional career, in the activity of the Anglo-Saxon race there has been much progress in all lines—more than in that of any other race.

When I contemplate the progress of mankind to higher civilization I feel that the development of humanity is the glory of creation.

The speaker then reviewed the constitutional history of England, tracing out its development with the development of the race, and comparing it with the constitutional history of England.

The graduates of the Omaha Dental college this year are as follows: William Victor Beck, Grand Island, Neb.; Roy Porter Bellon, Seward, Neb.; Harry Odum Bliss, Lincoln, Neb.; Edward Henry Brunson, Omaha; Charles Adelbert Calkins, York, Neb.; James Monroe Cottrell, Auburn, Neb.; Olin Hartman Cressler, Rising City, Neb.; John Edward Douglas, Omaha; Dwight William Dwyer, Dodge, Neb.; Chester, Neb.; Joseph Marion Foster, Red Oak, Ia.; George Lemmon Gallagher, Seward, Neb.; Orville Ruth Ivins, Omaha; Frank Isaac Leston, Albion, S. D.; Ned Spicer, Red Oak, Ia.; Bertrand Frank Spickley, Red Oak, Ia.; Monte Smith, Hastings, Neb.; Elmer Alonzo Thomas, Red Cloud, Neb.; Timothy Jefferson Todd, Plattsmouth, Neb.; Frank Willard Warner, Gresham, Neb.; Leonard Harley Warner, Geneva, Neb.; Charles Clarence Whisler, Ashland, Neb.; George Raymond Woods, Edgar, Neb.

Banquet in the Evening. At 5 o'clock last night the twenty-two members of the class, with the faculty of the institution and the vice chancellor of the University of Omaha, sat at a banquet at the Millard hotel which marked the last meeting of the class in connection with the college.

At the conclusion of the feast Dr. A. O. Hunt, dean of the faculty, presided as toastmaster. The first toast was "Dental Societies as Educational Institutions." It was responded to by Prof. H. T. King. The toast to which Dr. W. H. Christie responded was "The Relations of Medicine and Dentistry." Rev. Robert M. Stevenson, vice chancellor of the university and president of Bellevue college, responded to the toast, "The University."

Dr. C. C. Whisler spoke of "The Class of '33," and Dr. W. N. Doward spoke of "The State Board." The subject of Dr. L. G. Van Blyke's toast was "The Alumni." Judge James H. Macomber spoke of "The Profession," while Dr. W. H. Sherraden closed the program in responding to the toast, "The Faculty."

HOUSE THAT JACK BUILT

Dress Rehearsal of Children's Opera to Be Held This Evening.

NEW COSTUMES AND PROPS FOR OMAHA

Production Here Has Been Given Unusual Attention and Promises to Be Successful in Every Regard.

This evening the hearts of at least 160 Omaha school children will beat as they have never beaten before, for the boys and girls who have been drilling separately and in squads for the last six weeks will make their long-expected appearance in public at the Boyd theater, giving the opera, "The House That Jack Built."

The rehearsals have been rather fragmentary until this week, but now have taken definite form and the chorus, drilled and spaced by Mrs. C. C. King, the general manager, will be three performances, Friday and Saturday evenings and a matinee on Saturday.
