OMAHA TAKES SECOND GAME

Did Not Hit So Hard, but the Singles Came at the Right Time.

PITCHER BACKED UP BY CLEAN FIELDING

Frankie Genins Up to His Old Trick of Pulling Down Long Hits Which Look Like Home Runs.

DENVER, May 1.—(Special Telegram.)—Pa Rourke's aggregation of kidnapers reversed the decision on the grizzlies today by snatching the second game of the season by a score of 6 to 3. Omaha's timely stick work and fast fielding were the features of the game. Genins pulled down a long hit by Whitridge that looked like a home run. Henderson was an enigma to the locals. Carter, the first man up for the men from Porkopolis, drew free transportation to first. Genins followed, but was caught in a hypnotic sleep at second by the phenomenal throwing of Shiel. Carter went out at third while trying to purloin the bag and Preston was scored on Wright's hit. The Omahogs scored three runs in the third on an inexcusable error by "Cap" Tom, who threw the ball to Mohler at first while the kid's back was turned, enabling Genins to make a half circle while Carter advanced to third. Preston scored Carter on a long one to right field. Wright scored Genins. Dolan flew out and Preston galloped over the plate on a wide throw from the field.

Denver scored in the third on Delehanty's hit, which brought in Hartzell. The grizzlies scored again in the sixth, when the same performance was repeated. In the seventh McHale got a short three-bagger into right garden and was scored on Hartzell's hit.

In the eighth Preston was first up for the visitors and took a two-bagger on a hit to Jones. Wright sacrificed and advanced the "old man" to third. Preston scored on Schiel's throw to short, which made a double play, retiring the side. Omaha scored again in the ninth. Gonding got first on Hartzell's error. Henderson bunted, forcing Gonding out at second. Carter fanned the atmosphere. Genins cracked out a long one which looked like a home run, but he was tagged twenty feet from the plate after scoring Henderson on the hit. The grizzlies went out in one, two, three order in this inning. Attendance 3,300.
