

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: SUNDAY, MAY 3, 1903.

Pretty 75c Silk in Shepherd Checks 29c a Yard

Clearing out the broken lines—nothing prettier for the new shirt waist suit—selected from this season's newest silks...

COLORED MISTRELS

Colored Mistrels—all wool, 38-inch—in colors of brown, blue, castor—regular 50c quality, at 29c a yard...

THOMPSON, BELDEN & Co.

Y. M. C. A. Building, Corner Sixteenth and Douglas Sts

How to Vote for Erastus A. Benson for Mayor

Instructions to the Voters of the City of Omaha at the Election to be Held May 5, 1903.

TO THE VOTER:

If you wish to vote for Erastus A. Benson, the Citizens' candidate for Mayor, make a cross in the square [X] opposite the name Erastus A. Benson...

SAMPLE BALLOT.

Table with columns for party names and checkboxes for voting. Includes Republican, Democrat, Socialist, and People's Independent.

FOR MAYOR.

Table listing candidates for mayor: FRANK E. MOORES, EDWARD E. HOWELL, WM. H. MOORE, ERASTUS A. BENSON.

The ticket marked by you as above will be counted for Erastus A. Benson for Mayor.

Section 146 of Chapter 26 of the Compiled Statutes of Nebraska, for 1901, which is the law now in force in Nebraska, provides:

"When a voter shall have made a cross in one of the circles for a STRAIGHT party ticket, and shall have also made crosses in ANY of the squares to the right of the name of ANY candidates, his vote shall be so counted AS A VOTE FOR SAID CANDIDATES, but for all other offices his vote shall be counted for the candidates of that party in whose circle he has made a cross."

These instructions are issued by authority of the Executive Committee of the Citizens' candidate for Mayor, Erastus A. Benson.

C. S. HAYWARD, Chairman. SIDNEY W. SMITH, Secretary.

Temple last night, supposedly for the purpose of conferring with the leaders of the teamsters.

May Discharge Their Men. Some of the wholesale dealers have been quoted as saying that unless a settlement was brought about at once they would have no further use for their freight handlers...

Packing House Laborers' Plans. About 300 members of the South Omaha Packers' Trades Council, an organization of unskilled labor, met at the armory of the cavalry troop last night and discussed wages...

Union Ready to Arbitrate. C. E. Hart, business agent and chairman of the waiters' press committee, has submitted this statement: "We are ready to arbitrate our differences with our employers on any fair and equitable basis..."

Statement of Coal Dealers. The conference committee of the coal dealers, composed of George P. Cronk, George Peterson, George G. Squires, T. C. Havens, Randall K. Brown, John Doe, A. B. Cook, E. A. Blum, C. F. Southard, J. A. Sunderland, H. T. Leonard and C. W. Hall, has given the following statement: "OMAHA, May 2.—To Coal Consumers in the City of Omaha: Yesterday morning, without previous notice, the coal teamsters of the city failed to report for work, and as a consequence dealers are unable to deliver coal to consumers...

On March 15 the team drivers' union adopted a wage scale for the coming year. The scale was presented to the coal dealers for their consideration...

On March 15 the team drivers' union adopted a wage scale for the coming year. The scale was presented to the coal dealers for their consideration...

On March 15 the team drivers' union adopted a wage scale for the coming year. The scale was presented to the coal dealers for their consideration...

On March 15 the team drivers' union adopted a wage scale for the coming year. The scale was presented to the coal dealers for their consideration...

On March 15 the team drivers' union adopted a wage scale for the coming year. The scale was presented to the coal dealers for their consideration...

On March 15 the team drivers' union adopted a wage scale for the coming year. The scale was presented to the coal dealers for their consideration...

On March 15 the team drivers' union adopted a wage scale for the coming year. The scale was presented to the coal dealers for their consideration...

On March 15 the team drivers' union adopted a wage scale for the coming year. The scale was presented to the coal dealers for their consideration...

On March 15 the team drivers' union adopted a wage scale for the coming year. The scale was presented to the coal dealers for their consideration...

On March 15 the team drivers' union adopted a wage scale for the coming year. The scale was presented to the coal dealers for their consideration...

On March 15 the team drivers' union adopted a wage scale for the coming year. The scale was presented to the coal dealers for their consideration...

On March 15 the team drivers' union adopted a wage scale for the coming year. The scale was presented to the coal dealers for their consideration...

On March 15 the team drivers' union adopted a wage scale for the coming year. The scale was presented to the coal dealers for their consideration...

On March 15 the team drivers' union adopted a wage scale for the coming year. The scale was presented to the coal dealers for their consideration...

FAIR DEDICATION CONCLUDES

Thirty Thousand People March in Gorgeous Civic Parade.

GOVERNORS AND VETERANS BOTH IN LINE

Cowboys, Indians and Negroes Also Turn Out, that All Classes of People May Be Duly Represented.

ST. LOUIS, May 2.—A monster civic parade and the dedication by the various governments of the sites selected for each state brought the three-days fair dedication to a close today.

The damp and gloom which have hung over the city since the ceremonies began had quite vanished when the morning broke. Bright sunshine and a semi-holiday combining to bespeak the success of the program.

At 10:30, when the booming guns announced the start of the parade, the three-mile route to the grounds was lined many deep with cheering spectators.

In the solid ranks of the marchers were 30,000 persons representing practically every art and craft in the district.

There were the governors of the various states and the veterans of past wars, the German veritas, athletes, business men, college boys and members of various religious societies, each with their own particular emblem, and each adding something new to the feast of color.

The governors, who headed the procession, left their carriages at the reviewing stand and took their place upon it.

Order of the Parade. Visiting Governors, Accompanied by Their Staffs on Horseback.

World's Fair Commission, from States and Foreign Countries.

The Grand Marshal, Colonel Spencer, and the United States Marine Band.

Medical, Dental, Veterinary, Naval Reserve, United States Veterans, United States Service Men.

Detachment of Mounted Police. Three Hundred Military Officers.

Eight Flights Representing Departments of the Government.

Members of Mercantile Houses, Stock Exchange Tailors.

Catholic Societies, Fraternal Societies, Masonic Organizations.

Macabees, Order of Pythias, Royal Leagues, Traveling Men's Protective Association and Woodmen of the World.

Catholic Knights of America and Other Catholic Societies.

German Carriers, Western Amateur Gymnastic Association, with Six Floats.

Prigo System, Cowboy Band, Cowboys, and a Territorial Representative.

Afro-American Contingent, World's Fair Officials and Workmen.

Building Trades, Goddess of Luck in a Float.

Doorky Welcomes Governors. As soon as possible after the last of the parade had passed the reviewing stand, the crowd entered the Liberal Arts building, where the formal exercises of the day were held.

Governor Doorky welcomed the visiting governors, saying: "Today closes the celebrations in honor of the dedicatory exercises of the exposition, and I am glad to see you here."

Miss Geer and Mr. Chase, after leaving the church, were driven to the home of Rev. H. H. Kealey and were married.

The laws of the Episcopal church forbid me to marry a divorced person. I did not know the circumstances until after the ceremony. I am very sorry to have caused the party any embarrassment, but I could not act otherwise.

The church was crowded with guests. Rev. H. H. Kealey and were married.

HOONDS ACCUSE A PRIEST Brought Out to Track Murderer Dogs Point to Catholic Clergyman.

LORAIN, O., May 2.—Rev. Ferdinand Waiser, the Toledo priest, was arrested today charged with the murder of Miss Agatha Reichlin.

Waiser was a guest at the Reichlin home on Thursday night when the crime was committed. He has been taken to the county jail at Lima.

The city is in a turmoil of excitement. The entire police force was ordered on duty early today to prevent possible violence to the priest.

Bloodhounds were brought here from Fort Wayne, Ind., today and given the scent of the murderer. They circled around the house several times and finally went to the room occupied by Rev. Waiser on the night of the murder. There they again took trail and led the officers directly to St. Joseph's hospital, where Rev. Waiser slept last night.

He was found at the hospital and placed under arrest; the officers claiming there were many suspicious circumstances against him in addition to the bloodhounds following him.

The father showed no excitement and declared he was innocent.

NO WINE AT THE BANQUETS Knights Templars of California Cut It Out of Menu by Unanimous Vote.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3.—The grand commandary of the Knights Templars of California has decided by a unanimous vote that hereafter no wine shall be served at Templar banquets.

The innovation has been introduced, it is claimed, so that the order on this coast might fall in line with the general movement of the same kind in the east and because the use of wine is not in keeping with the principles of Masonry.

It is said that the grand lodge of the Masons at its annual meeting next October will take the same decisive action and order that all banquets given in the auspices of any Masonic lodge of the state be strictly temperate.

HEAVY DAMAGES FOR A BOY Jury Awards Twenty Thousand Dollars for the Loss of His Feet.

NEW YORK, May 2.—Vincent Musmann, a 9-year-old boy, has recovered a verdict of $20,000 against the Metropolitan Street Railway company in the supreme court for the loss of his two feet.

He got for $50,000, and on a former trial got a verdict for $20,000—one of the largest verdicts on record. The company asked for a retrial on appeal. The boy sued through his stepfather, Jacob Rasch.

It is claimed that in crossing the street about a year ago at Fifty-ninth street and Tenth a badly crushed that both had to be amputated above the ankles.

It is claimed on behalf of the company that the boy struck the side of the car and was thrown under the wheels through his own negligence.

Road for Northern California. SAN FRANCISCO, May 2.—According to a report from San Francisco, a road was proposed to connect the coast with the interior, passing through the mountains of California.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

The proposed road would be a toll road, and would be built by the state. It would pass through the mountains of California, and would connect the coast with the interior.

AFFRONT TO LABORERS

(Continued from Page One.)

was a stop put to this practice, but we were treated as roughly as possible until about two weeks before election, when we were called upon and asked if we desired to have objectionable officers removed.

We had presented our views to this board and the board had refused to remove the officers of taxpayers of Omaha, and when we appealed to it, in the language of the street, we got the horse-laugh every time. Facts are facts, and let us be candid with ourselves as we were last fall. Last fall we had a candidate for mayor, and we thought it was our duty to support him.

Bob Houghton Breaks In. At this instant Bob Houghton again broke into the proceedings by denouncing the speaker and saying that the meeting should not listen to anything reflecting upon the Fire and Police commission.

He would not respond to the request of the chairman and the chairman was finally compelled to again call upon the police to restore order. An officer took Houghton by the arm, but before he could do anything with the disturber of the peace W. J. Broatch, coming down the aisle, commanded the officer to let Houghton alone and not in any way assist the chairman in preserving order.

When this became known a motion to adjourn was put and carried and about half of the people left the hall.

The union men were leaving the hall and the socialist pushed to the front and E. J. Morgan was raised to the stage. The socialists formed around the stage in the front chairs, and while the executive committee of the original meeting was working on the subject of the meeting, Mr. Morgan was declared chairman of the socialist meeting, which was organized upon the ruins of the union labor meeting.

From that time there was no pretense of making the meeting one of trades unionists, or of making any further attempt to bring the union alone and not in any way assist the chairman in preserving order.

When this became known a motion to adjourn was put and carried and about half of the people left the hall.

The union men were leaving the hall and the socialist pushed to the front and E. J. Morgan was raised to the stage. The socialists formed around the stage in the front chairs, and while the executive committee of the original meeting was working on the subject of the meeting, Mr. Morgan was declared chairman of the socialist meeting, which was organized upon the ruins of the union labor meeting.

From that time there was no pretense of making the meeting one of trades unionists, or of making any further attempt to bring the union alone and not in any way assist the chairman in preserving order.

When this became known a motion to adjourn was put and carried and about half of the people left the hall.

The union men were leaving the hall and the socialist pushed to the front and E. J. Morgan was raised to the stage. The socialists formed around the stage in the front chairs, and while the executive committee of the original meeting was working on the subject of the meeting, Mr. Morgan was declared chairman of the socialist meeting, which was organized upon the ruins of the union labor meeting.

From that time there was no pretense of making the meeting one of trades unionists, or of making any further attempt to bring the union alone and not in any way assist the chairman in preserving order.

When this became known a motion to adjourn was put and carried and about half of the people left the hall.

The union men were leaving the hall and the socialist pushed to the front and E. J. Morgan was raised to the stage. The socialists formed around the stage in the front chairs, and while the executive committee of the original meeting was working on the subject of the meeting, Mr. Morgan was declared chairman of the socialist meeting, which was organized upon the ruins of the union labor meeting.

From that time there was no pretense of making the meeting one of trades unionists, or of making any further attempt to bring the union alone and not in any way assist the chairman in preserving order.

When this became known a motion to adjourn was put and carried and about half of the people left the hall.

The union men were leaving the hall and the socialist pushed to the front and E. J. Morgan was raised to the stage. The socialists formed around the stage in the front chairs, and while the executive committee of the original meeting was working on the subject of the meeting, Mr. Morgan was declared chairman of the socialist meeting, which was organized upon the ruins of the union labor meeting.

From that time there was no pretense of making the meeting one of trades unionists, or of making any further attempt to bring the union alone and not in any way assist the chairman in preserving order.

When this became known a motion to adjourn was put and carried and about half of the people left the hall.

The union men were leaving the hall and the socialist pushed to the front and E. J. Morgan was raised to the stage. The socialists formed around the stage in the front chairs, and while the executive committee of the original meeting was working on the subject of the meeting, Mr. Morgan was declared chairman of the socialist meeting, which was organized upon the ruins of the union labor meeting.

From that time there was no pretense of making the meeting one of trades unionists, or of making any further attempt to bring the union alone and not in any way assist the chairman in preserving order.

When this became known a motion to adjourn was put and carried and about half of the people left the hall.

The union men were leaving the hall and the socialist pushed to the front and E. J. Morgan was raised to the stage. The socialists formed around the stage in the front chairs, and while the executive committee of the original meeting was working on the subject of the meeting, Mr. Morgan was declared chairman of the socialist meeting, which was organized upon the ruins of the union labor meeting.

From that time there was no pretense of making the meeting one of trades unionists, or of making any further attempt to bring the union alone and not in any way assist the chairman in preserving order.

When this became known a motion to adjourn was put and carried and about half of the people left the hall.

The union men were leaving the hall and the socialist pushed to the front and E. J. Morgan was raised to the stage. The socialists formed around the stage in the front chairs, and while the executive committee of the original meeting was working on the subject of the meeting, Mr. Morgan was declared chairman of the socialist meeting, which was organized upon the ruins of the union labor meeting.

From that time there was no pretense of making the meeting one of trades unionists, or of making any further attempt to bring the union alone and not in any way assist the chairman in preserving order.

When this became known a motion to adjourn was put and carried and about half of the people left the hall.

The union men were leaving the hall and the socialist pushed to the front and E. J. Morgan was raised to the stage. The socialists formed around the stage in the front chairs, and while the executive committee of the original meeting was working on the subject of the meeting, Mr. Morgan was declared chairman of the socialist meeting, which was organized upon the ruins of the union labor meeting.

From that time there was no pretense of making the meeting one of trades unionists, or of making any further attempt to bring the union alone and not in any way assist the chairman in preserving order.

When this became known a motion to adjourn was put and carried and about half of the people left the hall.

The union men were leaving the hall and the socialist pushed to the front and E. J. Morgan was raised to the stage. The socialists formed around the stage in the front chairs, and while the executive committee of the original meeting was working on the subject of the meeting, Mr. Morgan was declared chairman of the socialist meeting, which was organized upon the ruins of the union labor meeting.

From that time there was no pretense of making the meeting one of trades unionists, or of making any further attempt to bring the union alone and not in any way assist the chairman in preserving order.

When this became known a motion to adjourn was put and carried and about half of the people left the hall.

The union men were leaving the hall and the socialist pushed to the front and E. J. Morgan was raised to the stage. The socialists formed around the stage in the front chairs, and while the executive committee of the original meeting was working on the subject of the meeting, Mr. Morgan was declared chairman of the socialist meeting, which was organized upon the ruins of the union labor meeting.

From that time there was no pretense of making the meeting one of trades unionists, or of making any further attempt to bring the union alone and not in any way assist the chairman in preserving order.

When this became known a motion to adjourn was put and carried and about half of the people left the hall.

The union men were leaving the hall and the socialist pushed to the front and E. J. Morgan was raised to the stage. The socialists formed around the stage in the front chairs, and while the executive committee of the original meeting was working on the subject of the meeting, Mr. Morgan was declared chairman of the socialist meeting, which was organized upon the ruins of the union labor meeting.

From that time there was no pretense of making the meeting one of trades unionists, or of making any further attempt to bring the union alone and not in any way assist the chairman in preserving order.

When this became known a motion to adjourn was put and carried and about half of the people left the hall.

The union men were leaving the hall and the socialist pushed to the front and E. J. Morgan was raised to the stage. The socialists formed around the stage in the front chairs, and while the executive committee of the original meeting was working on the subject of the meeting, Mr. Morgan was declared chairman of the socialist meeting, which was organized upon the ruins of the union labor meeting.

From that time there was no pretense of making the meeting one of trades unionists, or of making any further attempt to bring the union alone and not in any way assist the chairman in preserving order.

When this became known a motion to adjourn was put and carried and about half of the people left the hall.

The union men were leaving the hall and the socialist pushed to the front and E. J. Morgan was raised to the stage. The socialists formed around the stage in the front chairs, and while the executive committee of the original meeting was working on the subject of the meeting, Mr. Morgan was declared chairman of the socialist meeting, which was organized upon the ruins of the union labor meeting.

</