

VALUATION OF RAILROADS

State Board of Equalization Takes Up the Work on Tuesday.

PEOPLE OF STATE LIKELY TO BE HEARD

Printed Copies of New Revenue Law Ready, but Legislature Fails to Provide Postage to Send Them Out.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., May 2.—(Special.)—The State Board of Equalization will meet Tuesday, May 5, instead of on Monday, May 4, as announced the first of the week.

The coming meeting of the board will be one of the most important ever held in the state and more interest is being taken in it than is usual.

The board last year did increase the assessment of railroad property to a certain extent, but far below the figures expected by the people.

CONSUL LANGER IS IMMUNE

Higher Court Instructs Local Tribunal to Leave Him Alone.

DEPARTMENT TO SEND WORD OF CAUTION

Trouble Is Over Bill for Furniture Which Langer Claimed Was Not Up to the Contract Specifications.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, May 2.—(Special Telegram.)—Joseph J. Langer, consul to Solingen, Germany, who was fined by a judge of a local court of that city recently for disorderly conduct in the court room, where he was present as a witness, is not likely to suffer for his temerity in antagonizing the local laws.

While there is no international complication expected to grow out of the Solingen incident, wherein Consul Langer seems to have used nature's weapons to advantage against his former countrymen, the incident will not be passed over by the State department.

It is anticipated that a mild reprimand will be issued to Consul Langer and he will be asked to be more circumspect in his conduct toward representatives of the foreign court. An official of the State department said today: "We make a mistake when we credit citizens of our own country with the conduct of their birth. Incidents like this hurt instead of help us."
