SUNDAY DROUTH AT MANAWA

County Attorney Says No Liquor Will Be Sold There on that Day.

APPLIES SAME RULE AS IN THE CITY

Some Question Whether He Has Jurisdiction Over the Manhattan Beach Side of the Resort.

The Sunday closing law, which County Attorney Kilpatrick enforced among the saloons of Council Bluffs will also be enforced at Lake Manawa this summer. This was the authoritative statement of Mr. Kilpatrick yesterday, who said: "There will be no more liquor sold at Lake Manawa on Sundays this summer than will be in the saloons of this city."

In addition to the refreshment pavilion in the plaza at Lake Manawa, where liquor is sold, there are three saloons outside the grounds of the resort proper and these will also be a quide by the Sunday closing order. It is a question, however, whether County Attorney Kilpatrick will be able to stop the sale of liquor on the Manhattan beach side of the lake, as this is said to be on Nebraska soil.

BOTH FACTIONS ARE WINNERS

Peculiar Result of Contests Over Offices in Woman's Club.

The meeting yesterday afternoon of the Council Bluffs Woman's club to nominate officers for the ensuing year proved a most peculiar one.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the club was held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Cleaver, 1214 North 24th street.

The meeting was held at 7 p. m. and was attended by about 40 members.

The first business was the reading of the minutes of the last meeting.

The next item was the election of officers for the coming year.

The election was held by ballot and was a very close one.

The result of the election was a tie between two candidates.

The tie was broken by a vote on a question of procedure.

The result was that both factions were winners.

The new officers were elected and the meeting adjourned.

The meeting was a very successful one and all enjoyed it.

The officers for the coming year are as follows:

President: Mrs. J. H. Cleaver. Vice-president: Mrs. J. H. Cleaver.

Secretary: Mrs. J. H. Cleaver. Treasurer: Mrs. J. H. Cleaver.

Members: Mrs. J. H. Cleaver, Mrs. J. H. Cleaver, Mrs. J. H. Cleaver.
