What might be expected if Howell should as mayor have direction of the police force may be gathered from what happened when Howell ran six years ago and had the whole sayso with the old Herdman police commission, then in the saddle. Half the detective force was detailed to do political work, taking orders direct from the democratic campaign managers and Detectives istry lists, men being taken in squads from Savage and Dempsey had written orders one point to another to be registered for to report to Charley Fanning at Oerter's saloon and do whatever he wanted them to do to help the Howell push. Officer Inda reported to Walter Moise and Officer Sam Hoff reported straight to Ed Howell. Hoff gave the whole story later in sworn testi-

"Doc" Langdon has been manager of an employment bureau east of the corner of Eleventh and Farnam streets, and handles treasury. When Judge Scott heard this he many men for railroads and sends them to be employed by railroads in different last fall primaries he had large bundles of corporation money to carry the primaries for the corporations' candidate, Dave Mercer, for congress. He said he had thousands of dollars to bet that no matter how many Omaha citizens would support the anti-Mercer delegation that he had men enough registered to vote at the republican primaries that would carry the city overwhelmingly for Dave Mercer. The same "Doc" Langdon has been ac tively engaged for the last week in getting nonresident voters in line for the cor-

Many other illegal registrations have been made and most of the men have been spotted, so that warrants will be issued for them and their arrests made as fast as tics of the corporations were pursued and hundreds of names were added to the regrection of one "Doc" Langdon, a labor employment agent. Langdon will also be ar-declared: "They might just as well put their hands in another man's pocket in parts of the west and the country. At the the dead of night and take his money from him." It is known that the same kind of work is being done for Howell again this time, detectives on the pay roll going to Broatch for political assignments to the utter neglect of police duties.

"I don't see how any colored man can vote for Howell or Benson either," says A. C. Jackson, the colored elevator man, who lives at 708 South Twenty-sixth street. "Howell never did anything for a colored man and Benson won't even rent porations, using corporation boodle and a house to a colored man. Mayor Moores working tooth and toenall and spending has done more for our people than any money lavishly on these nonresident men other mayor we have ever had."

Funeral of Wallace D. Godfrey.

Yesterday afternoon funeral services over the remains of Wallace D. Godfrey were held at the family residence, Twenty-third church and N streets. The dwelling was not large enough to hold the large number who attended, and so the windows were opened and crowds thronged the lawn. The servicos were in charge of the Masons of Bee Hive lodge.

Rev. M. A. Head, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, and Rev. James A. Wise delivered short sermons. At the conclusion of the services the remains were escorted to Laurel Hill cemetery for interment.

The active pall bearers were: F. A. Cressey, W. S. King, J. B. Watkins, D. L. Holmes, D. S. Clark and B. E. Wilcox, Following is a list of the honorary pall bearers: C. A. Melcher, John Flynn, J. A. Cavers, J. M. Tanner, John Hughes, S. C.

He has been stay-ing at the Union hotel. Saturday afternoon Pase put the bills in his pocket in his room and then went with a friend, an engineer, to the Union station, afterward returning to the hotel and remaining there during the evening. Sunday morning about 9 o'clock he opened his pocketbook to get som y money and found it empty. He thinks that his troubsers, which were during the ng.t near the door, may have been fished over the transom and the money taken. The police think the case singular and have been unable to recover the money.

Almost all of the ground has been assigned and the seeds distributed to the applicants in the main, being the same ones that were helped last year. The earnestness with which these people have taken hold of the work is very gratifying and in but two cases these where the parties were physically unable, has the committee had the ground prepared. An invitation from Mr. Wood of Calhoun was accepted for the department to picnic ized him to make denial of the meeting at his farm near that place. The date of referred to for them. the picnic is to be decided later.

The May meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution held on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. F Hodgins at Fortieth and Cass streets was largely attended. It was decided during the brief business session to invite Mrs. Fairbanks, president general of the national society, to be the guest of the Omaha chapter at the state congress to be held in Omaha in October. Mrs. Fairbanks has expressed a desire to visit the western chapters and the local chapter hopes that she will find the October date convenient. A program followed, Miss Johnstone reading a paper on "The Creole." Music and a social hour concluded the meeting.

The exhibit of the drawing work of the grades has been postponed for a few days longer and the date not yet definitely set. The specimens that were to have been in this week will not be collected until next week, which will bring the exhibit soon after the middle of the month.

One of the most unique entertainments that has ever been given at the high school is to be presented on Friday afternoon of this week at 2:30 o'clock under the direction of the Latin department. The program is to consist of songs, recitations and dialogues that, with two exceptions, are to be rendered entirely in Latin. A Roman school in 90 B. C., will be one of the special features, the participants to be boys from the ninth grade. This will be the first time that such an affair has ever been undertaken in the high school and it is being anticipated with much interest by the Latin pupils. A small admission fee will be charged to defray expenses.

Though the accounts are not entirely balanced as yet, it is safe to say that the Teachers' Annuity and Aid association will realize at least $1,000 clear from its benefit, "The House That Jack Built." The teachers express themselves as guite satisfied with this result and feel that they have realized from their experience and effort more than the financial gain. In speaking of it one of them said: "The encouragement and co-operation we have had from everybody has been so gratifying and we feel that this common effort of the teach ers and parents to make the performance a success has made us all understand each other better. And then people have comto know of the Annuity association and ef its aim and object and this we consider most valuable."
