JOB FOR THE UNDERTAKERS

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, May 6 .- (Special Telegram.)-Bill Rourke's Omaha leaguers took the measure of Des Moines in an exhibition game in Lincoln this afternoon, in which the heavy batting of Omaha and the loose fielding of the Prohibitionists were the predominating features. Both teams had ridden all night and all day on the return trip from Colorado and were in poor condition to play snappy ball. A late train delayed the beginning of play until after 5 o'clock. Omaha jumped onto "Dummy" Leitner's curves right off the reel and in the second, with the assistance of two bungles by Shortstop O'Leary, chalked up three scores. The next inning yielded a St. Paul Takes Pretty One.

Wright had a bad day on the first sack Wright had a bad day on the first sack, being credited with four errors, but he was there with the stick and straightened out Leitner's curves for four hits. Preston likewise was on deck with his trusty wagen tongue, duplicating Wright's performance at the bat. Two three-cushion drives by Thomas figured materially in Omaha's total of runs.

A brilliant catch of a sizzling liner by Dolan and a brace of fast double plays by Des Moines served to relieve the general monotomy of an otherwise poor exhibition of the national game.

The game between the Field club and the Union Stock Yards Juniors at Vinton Street park yesterday afternoon was one of considerable interest and was largely attended by the enthusiasts from the stock yards. As was expected the yards boys were defeated by a score of 12 to 5, but not until the Field club had played its hardest game of the season. It was one of the best amateur games seen on Vinton street grounds this season. Caughey for the Juniors was invincible up to the seventh inning, allowing but two hits. This was remarkable for the siender boy of 16 years. He, however, weakened in this inning and by bunching hits the Field club cinched the game. Gordy for the Field club did not pitch h s usual steady game. He was wild, allowing nine bases on balls Miller, Clark and Knox did the heavy stick work. The game was full of sharp fielding and good base running. Score: Totals ... 9 13 27 19 3 Played. Won. Lost. P.C.
