"An enumeration of the chances that men take with death in order to entertain the great amusement-loving public would be very incomplete without the addition of that latest and greatest sensation, viz.: the looping of the loop on a blcycle," said Mr. James D. DeWolfe, one of the agents of the Forepaugh-Sells circus, which is scheduled to show here next Saturday. Mr. DeWolfe gave some very interesting statistics concerning this great act, which he declares is "the greatest sensation ever presented anywhere, at any time." In the course of conversation, he said: "It is difficult to conceive how a man of sound mind can be tempted by money to so ar-dently filrt with death. The cost of this act is $1,000 per week, and it consumes just of Wisconsin, who have been guests of six seconds of our entertainment program. Original Drawings of Newspaper Artists Will Be Shown for Several Days.

Monday evening the doors of the Press club will be opened on the first annual exhibition of drawings by the magazine, book and newspaper illustrators of the country. It is expected that the exhibit will not only e one of the social events of the season, but will be decidedly instructive to the general public as well, as here one will be enabled to see what class of work newspaper artists are able to do when they have the time to do it.

Cartoons will be only a small feature of the exhibition, as the work to be shown will embrace every conceivable kind of drawing, the black and white, wash drawings, water colors, charcoals and even some ambitious oils. The collection will comprise sentimental studies, ideal heads, marine views, landscapes, pictures of news events, caricatures and portraits, and in fact almost every imaginary subject will be on display.

The opening night will be reserved for the patrons and patronesses, through whose influence and support the success of the exhibit has been assured. The public, however, will have several days to view the colection, as the rooms will be open from 3 to 10 p. m. each day and no admittance fee will be charged.

WOMAN IN CLUB AND CHARITY

The Omaha Woman's club will hold its annual election of officers on Monday afternoon, and, while the prospects are for a rather tame election, nobody would be especially surprised if quite the opposite would occur, for there has been considerable wire pulling for the two secretary offices. Mrs. A. K. Gault will not be elegible to re-election, as she has served her second term, and her office will have to be filled, but the present corresponding secre tary, Mrs. Edward Johnson, is serving her first term and is eligible to re-election. It has long been evident that there is an undercurrent of feeling against Mrs. F. H. Cole as president, it having frequently manifested itself in the antagonism of some of the older members, whose policy has not received the sanction of all of the present executive board, but Mrs. Cole's popularity with a large majority has prevented the disgruntled ones from openly doing more than oppose her rulings on the floor by a raising of eyebrows or by rising to suggest that she might possibly have there has been a noticeable increase of speakers among the younger and more timid women, who, realizing their limited knowledge of parliamentary rules, have still dared to ask for the floor, trusting to the courtesy and tact of Mrs. Cole to avert any embarrassment to them. This graclousness on her part, together with her firmness, has won Mrs. Cole a strong following that it will be dangerous to antagonize too far. It is said that any opposition to Mrs. Johnson will be due her strong support of Mrs. Cole.

Prior to her departure for her former home in New Haven, Conn., Mrs. Louise Graves, president of the Woman's club of Shelton, Neb., was given a "shower of verses," at the home of Mrs. George Meisner. Each member of the club, including tion for applicants instead of two. Mrs. Graves, was asked to write in rhyme not less than four or more than twenty lines, addressed to the president. After the writing an elaborate dinner was served and then the verses were read, some of them being very good and all highly entertaining. Later they were submitted to a judge, who awarded Mrs. Graves first prize for her composition to herself. The second prize went to Miss Jessie Smith.

The final meeting and election of officers of the bible class of the Woman's club will be held on Thursday. (From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, May 9 .- (Special.) - A party of the grand officers of the Ancient Order of United Workmen of Iowa started from Des Moines for Sloux City today to attend the grand lodge meeting there next week. This included W. M. Narvis of Muscatine, master workman, and B. F. Rehkopf of this city, grand recorder. B. F. Carroll, state auditor, will go on Monday. In spite of this, evening previous the grand lodge of lowa will give a reception to the grand lodge of South Dakota, most of the members of which pass through on their way to Lead, S. The total disbursement of the grand lodge during 1902 was $229,071.64. One of the most important matters to come before the grand lodge will be a proposal that biennial sessions be held instead of annual This was voted down last year, but a great deal of sentiment has been created in its favor since that time, and it is likely to be adopted in the interests of economy Another matter that will cause some discussion will be the proposal of the grand medical examiner, R. L. Cleaver of Council Bluffs, to have but one medical examina

The grand recorder makes a proposal also that the grand lodge erect a permanent building for headquarters and offices in Des Moines at a cost of $50,000. It is understood that Master Workman Narvis and Recorder Rehkopf will be unanimously re-elected, as will also some of the other grand officers. Receiver Carroll will not be a candidate for re-election and it is practically certain that Henry Michelstetter of Slouz City will be elected in his stead.

Killed in an Elevator.

Henry Tolbert, aged 50 years, was instantly killed by falling in an elevator shaft in the Equitable building in this city. Mr. Tolbert was a new man at the elevator and was alone in the cage at the time of the accident. It is surmised that he failed to let loose of the rope at the proper time and was thrown violently out of the door at the second floor. He did not fall on the floor, but slipped through the opening under the cage and fell into the shaft. He fell about forty feet to the cemented floor and when picked up was dead. He leaves a wife and eleven children.

for the deaf at Council Bluffs and of the Iowa college for the blind at Vinton, have been communicated with in reference to a proposed novel exhibit at the St. Louis exposition next year. The exposition management, and especially the department of education is desirous of having a practical demonstration of what is being done in the education of the deaf and the blind, as it is done in the best schools in the country It would be manifestly less expensive to draw on the schools of the states that bor der on Missouri than to go to the eastern chools for material; and so it is proposed that the lowa schools shall contribute teachers and classes to go to St. Louis where they will be conducted the same as at the state schools. The board has made inquiries as to the cost and probable chance of getting both teachers and pupils to do this and will lay the matter before the Iowa commission with recommendations, If the Iowa commission can make recom mendations covering this expense it is probable that the schools at Council Bluffs and Vinton will do their part.

TWENTY YEARS FOR JESSIE

Supreme Court of Kansas Affirms Decision of Lower Court in Morrison Case. TOPEKA, May 3.-The supreme court today affirmed the decision of the lower court in the case of the state against Jessie Morrison. Jessie Morrison was declared guilty of killing Mrs. Olin Castle three years ago at the Castle home in Eldorado. The decision means twenty years imprisonment. The opinion, which was written by Justice John C. Pollock, says: "Upon the theory of the tragedy, as maintained by the state, the murder was a butchery of such savage and victous nature as rarely is equaled and never excelled in the criminal history of the civilized world; that search of a parallel so shocking must be instituted among the traditions of the aborigines. It was a brutal deed, utterly lacking in mitigating circumstances, alike appalling to the mind and shocking to the sensibilities.

PIERRE, S. D., May 9 .- (Special.)-While the coming of homesteaders to the free range was opposed by the owners of large herds as long as they could be kept out, the move is now looked upon by many of the stock owners as permanent and they are preparing to meet the new order of things. Several have announced their intention to ship practically all their steers this fall and reduce their herds to the point where they can handle them on land which they own or control. They will also fit out the new settlers with small bunches of cows and help in the plan of holding numerous smal! bunches instead of the large herds under one ownership.

Judge Gustave Anderson returned yes terday from Peoria, Ill., where he attended the meeting of the imperial grand council of the Red Cross of Constantine and of Rome for the western empire, which was held at Peorla last week. While there the judge secured a permanent chapter for Coeur de Leon conclave of the order at Omaha.

A brief statement of the objects and the history of the order of the Red Cross of Constantine and of Rome was given in these columns last month, at the time of the organization of the Omaha conclave which is the only one so far organized in the state. Judge Anderson was made an officer of the imperial council and served on some of the important committees. He says that the people of Peoria made extensive preparations and gave fine entertainment to the members of the order in at tendance, one of the features being auto mobile rides over the city.
