

THE ISSUES OF THE STRIKE
A Plain Statement from the Business Men's Association.

To reach a correct conclusion of the differences now existing between several labor unions in Omaha and their employers, represented by the Business Men's Association, the first thing necessary is to have correct knowledge of the matters in issue.

THE ISSUES ARE:

First—The labor organizations involved in the present controversy demand that they call "recognition" of their unions. The business men concede recognition in the sense that the laborers have a right to form unions, and, if they see fit, to be represented by these unions in negotiating with their employers.
