BUSCH TELLS OF BOODLING
Former State Senator Makes Sweeping Confession in St. Louis.
INVOLES NAMES OF PROMINENT PEOPLE
Desire for Peace from Mental Torture Drives Him to Tell All He Knows of Legislative Crookedness.

ST. LOUIS, May 15.—Unable to bear the strain of mental torture which he says he has suffered since the grand jury investigation into legislative boodling was instituted, former State Senator Fred L. Busch went before Circuit Attorney Folk this afternoon and made a complete and far-reaching confession of his connection with corrupt deals extending over a period of eight years. Busch's declarations involve several men of prominence, and he names those who have been conspicuous at the state capitol as distributors of boodles.

TO HAPPY HUNTING GROUNDS
Hundred and Sixty-Nine Dogs Are Put to Sleep at the City Pound.
Although early in the season no less than 169 dogs have gone to their last sleep by the charcoal gas route at the city dog pound. Ninety-four were dispatched at the first killing and seventy-five at the second reception to the happy hunting grounds held yesterday. Dog Catcher Gilbert has snared a great many more pets than the number of the dead, but they have been ransomed at $2 per head. So far 2,588 licenses have been issued, which is a goodly number for so early in the year.

QUEER MISTAKES OF AUTHORS
Errors that Have Crept into Well Known Books—Blunders that Are Wonderful.
We are all liable to make mistakes. For this reason we should not be too critical in the treatment of our fellows. Still the critical part of our nature is so largely developed that we sometimes forget to be charitable, especially when the criticism may cause an error to be righted.
