VICTORY COMES AS EASY AS LOSING

Rourkeites Take First from the Distillers in Such Fashion as to Surprise Even Their Closest Friends.

"Pa" Rourke's aggregation of ball tossers got together vesterday at Vinton Street park and knocked a nice, ripe apple off of the tree in the shape of the game by a score of 9 to 4. It was one of those kinds of office at $2 a week he might have become a millionaire, but "Papa" Bill has spoiled that. He has lost his opportunity and now he just has to pitch ball. But he can do that if he keeps on like he did yesterday. They only got seven hits off of him, but they bunched them on him in the seventh. As for Wolfe, the dinky man from the Philadelphia Nationals, little need be said. All who saw the game can readily see how Peoria happened to get him. He was simply pie for Carter and Genins and the other boys drew circles all around him with their

Some Nice Playing.

Omaha started out right. Thiel was first up and lambasted the ball into Dolan's hand, then Shugart drew a pass to first and Lazotte picked out a ball and debbed it over to Stewart, and they were doubled up. The crowd was satisfied that maybe Omaha could play ball anyhow and settled down to watch the same.

So it went with both sides for four cheery innings and nary a side gor past third, although the Rourkeites were landing on the ball in every conceivable manner and quite often. In the fifth Henderson got busy and butted in with a single, then Carter started to make his third hit of the day, but his bat slipped and he fouled out. Genius knocked a single and Henderson reached a base. They got Genins between two luscious distillers and began playing a little town lot game and Henderson started Casey. Wall saw him and sought to cover himself with glory by throwing him out, but he didn't know Henderson's fingers were crossed, and it went under popular Bill Wilson. Then Wolfe rounded up the ball and threw it over second base with the intent of larlating Genins, but Genins BROOKLYN, May 15.—Timely and consemiled and cantered in while they were chasing up the ball. Well, that was all for the inning. In the next they started at it again and they got Dolan around on a pars. a sacrifice and a single. That made it 3 to intent of lariating Genins, but Genins a sacrifice and a single. That made it 3 to 0 and the bleachers smiled Ah! But woe was the lot of one Henderson this next inning. Holly sauntered to first on four wide ones and Friend sent the ball clear to the fence and secured one bag on it. Tibald then came in all of his glory and fancy rags, but it wasn't for him to fouch the ball even. Wolfe dragged a hit out of the rummage sale and there were three on bases. Thiel hadn't a hit and shot it out in right, but Carter ran after it, fell down, got up again and grabbed it by the scruff of the neck, but couldn't get it home before one run had cantered in. Not that it would have mattered much, as Shugart and Lazotte each drew singles and brought in two more anyhow before the killing was over.

Wild Time for Omaha.

Wild Time for Omaha. In its half of the inning Omaha could do nothing, but they laid low and in the eighth got busy for fair. It wasn't bail. It was a holocaust, a massacre and wholesale murder combined. Stewart started it with a double to left and Patterson knocked a pretty one into Lazotte's hands, but he dropped it just for auld lang syne. Then dropped it just for auld lang syne. Then singles and Preston a whacking double six runs cantered in. The Distillers got another score for consolation's sake at the end on a base on balls, an error and a long fly. The same teams meet today. Score:

FOURTEEN INNINGS TO WIN Omaha High School Defeats Lincoln High School in a Fast, Clenn Game.

LINCOLN, May 15—(Special Telegram.)
—In the most brilliant game seen here this season the Omaha High school captured the Interscholastic championship of Nebraska. Lowell pitched a superb game for Omaha. Cool, steady and with perfect control, he let down the aspirants for championship honors with but four him in fourteen innings, besides atriking out fifteen men. He was ably supported behind the bat by Fairbrother. Lowell and Robertson also did good work. For Lincoln Rankin, Fields and Borros were stars, Blake pitched great ball, but weakened in the fourteenth.

The score does not indicate the superiority with which Omaha outbatted, outplayed and outgeneraled its opponents. In the most critical stages of the game, with men on bases, scoring was only prevented by fast, clever fielding, backed by rare Judgment. Lincoln's lone tally was Rankin's home run in the second. In the seventh Robertson, for Omaha, singled, stole second and got to third on Cherrington's out. Kennard's long hit scored him, making the score 1 to 1. Neither side could alter it until the fourteenth, when a base on balls, hits by Robertson and Brome, and a wild throw over first by Raymond brought in three runs. Lincoln was unable to profit by its last bat after getting the bases filled. Scere:
