The members of the local lodges, Nebraska No. 264, and William McKinley No. 621, have made elaborate preparations for the convention and the entertainment of their guests and are anxious to make a most interesting and profitable one.

The headquarters of the delegates are at the Her Grand hotel. Most of the delegates arrived on the early afternoon train yesterday and the remainder during the evening. The delegations now here are:
Ramah Lodge No. 22, Chicago-Henry Friedman, A. B. Sulekman and Joseph H. Herzig.

Footline Telling
does not take into consideration the one essential to woman's happiness—womanly health. There is many a woman whose future seems absolutely unclouded who is marked by her own condition for future disappointment and distress.

CIRCUS GOOD AS PROMISE
Forepaugh-Sells Combination Gives Two Satisfactory Performances to Good Business.
Diavolo! May he live longer than seems at all probable. At yesterday afternoon's performance of Adam Forepaugh & Sells Bros. consolidated circuses he looped the loop while 6,000 people held their breaths. At the night performance he looped it again before a crowd almost equally as large. His bid it easily and gracefully despite his broken ankle and his two fractured vertebrae of the neck, but there was no man in the audience who envied him his position.

Working just forty-seven seconds per day for six days a week he draws a salary of $1,000 per week, or $2,000 per year more than does the president of the United States, working practically 365 days of the year. He is a mutilated, desecrated, decimated and ill-fated specimen of humanity, but he is a man who is a credit to the billboard and that is saying a great deal.

President Streilitzky on the Order.
The incumbent president of the district grand lodge No. 6, is Mr. J. L. Streilitzky, past president of Julius Houseman lodge No. 236, Grand Rapids, Mich. He will preside at the opening session at Continental hall this morning, which opens at 10 o'clock.

Police Surgeon Trotter was called from the police station and also Dr. Hobbs, but the woman was beyond the hope of life when they arrived and died at 5:15 o'clock. Coroner Bradley took charge of the remains and will probably hold an inquest today.

HOW TO DO THE RIGHT THING
Eastern Woman Comes to Teach Omaha People the Proper Thing.
There is a woman in Omaha who, it is whispered, finds a very remunerative occupation in coaching some of the fashionable belles in the "correct" thing. Of course, every place has one of these social boons and all in all, while it may tend to the superficial, it is a good scheme, for it takes a lot of time to read all the "new books" or even the book reviews—not to speak of keeping track of all the popular music and paintings and like things that the up-to-date society man or woman is supposed to know about.

VENNER HELD FOR CONTEMPT
United States Judge Sends the Promoter to Jail for Six Months.
