CHICAGO, May 19.—Chinese laundrymen struck today, the first strike of the kind in Chicago history. Ten Chinamen employed in a south side laundry demanded more pay and when it was refused followed the example of their white brethren and walked out.

Several of the strikers picketed the place while a committee later in the day attempted to carry on peace negotiations, but the proprietor, Willie May, locked himself inside his shop and refused to treat with them.

Italians Riot Again.

NEW YORK, May 19.—Clashes between police and striking Italians took place at several points along the line of the subway today.

The bluecoats on duty along the trench and the reserves at the station houses were called upon to suppress a dozen fights caused by the attempts of the strikers to intimidate their countrymen who tried to return to work.

The strikers were out as usual at day-break in squads of five to pick up workmen as they left their homes. When the men got out they found another set of pickets awaiting them in the side streets just off the subway.

The second line of pickets, when they could not make the men turn back, set on them, but they confined their efforts strictly to workmen of their own nationality.

At Seventy-second street and Columbus avenue a young Italian was set upon by a crowd of strikers. Merchants, messenger boys and laborers passing went to the aid of the man who was being beaten. Three arrests were made. About 2,000 men, or 50 per cent of the required number, are now at work on the subway.

A gang of Italian strikers tried to introduce men at work on a church at West Hoboken, N. J., to quit, the men refused and the strikers attempted to mob them. A squad of police interfered and in the fight which followed the officers were roughly handled. The mob was set upon by an armed seven of the disturbers. Revolvers and knives were used but no one was seriously hurt, although a policeman received a slight stab in the abdomen.

Enjoins Men from Striking.

DENVER, Col., May 19.—No change has taken place in the strike situation here since yesterday. Boycotted houses in various lines are resuming business with non-union forces as rapidly as possible, but labor leaders assert that there are no fewer than 700 members of the union still out.

The State Board of Arbitration has been blocked in its efforts in regard to arbitration in consequence of its failure to secure the consent of the Employers Citizens Alliance, but committees from the printing, labor and business interests have undertaken to mediate between the labor executive committee and the alliance.

Judge Bailey of Fremont county has enjoined the engineers and firemen employed by the Denver Gas and Electric company from going out on a sympathetic strike.

The order is justified on the ground that the Denver Gas and Electric Light company is under the jurisdiction of Judge Bailey's court, being in the hands of a receiver. The men affected say they do not intend of going out on a general labor committee had exempted them from the strike order.

Mobile Considers with Men. MOBILE, May 19.—W. G. Lee, first grand master of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and C. H. Wilkins, grand senior conductor of the Order of Railway Conductors, held a conference with General Manager Clarke and General Counsel Russell of the Mobile & Ohio today with a view to a settlement of the strike.

Mr. Lee is in receipt of an address from Grand Master Mortisey, confirming assurances of conferences and the support of the National Order of Railway Trainmen now in session at Denver. The railroad officers claim the strike is practically over.

Miners Ignore Order. CHARLESTON, W. Va., May 19.—Notices have been posted at all the mines in the New River and Loop Creek fields declaring a strike among the miners and calling upon all to cease work until the union demands are agreed to. Yesterday was the time set for the call to take effect, but so far as can be ascertained it was not largely obeyed. Most of the men were brought in to take the places of those who struck last summer and have not yet become members of the organization. The notices bear the names of President John Mitchell, Vice President Lewis and Secretary-Treasurer Wilson, endorsing the strike.

Iron Workers Quit. CINCINNATI, May 19.—About 200 members of the local sheet iron workers' union struck for shorter hours and more pay.

Fight Against Piecework. LIMA, O., May 19.—Three hundred employees of the Lima Locomotive and Machine company went on strike today because the company sought to put machinists and molders on the piecework basis.

SHEEP AND MEN DIE IN STORM. Montana Ranchers Lose $5,000,000 by Snow and Three Herders Are Lost.

GREAT FALLS, Mont., May 19.—The heaviest snow and cattle loss in the history of Montana, the damage of which will foot up as high as $5,000,000, has been caused by the terrible snowstorm of the last three days. In some sections fully 90 per cent of the flocks have perished. Three herders at least have wandered away in the blinding storm and been frozen to death.

Herders have abandoned their flocks on every hand and fled for safety to the settlements and ranches.

NUMBER OF VICTIMS GROWS

Two Hundred and Thirty-Five Jews Murdered During the Riots.

(Copyright, 1903, by Press Syndicate Co.) BUCHAREST, May 19.—(New York Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—A person visited Kischineff two days after the massacre declared here that the trouble occurred on Wednesday and Thursday of the orthodox Easter week. The pretext alleged, but one that has been disproved, was a ritual murder. The arrest of the principal agitator was the signal for a premeditated fanatical attack upon the Jews throughout the town. At least 200 Jews and shops were wrecked and the Jews were beaten and otherwise maltreated.

One hundred and seventy-five Jews were killed outright and of the 385 wounded sixty afterward succumbed to their injuries, making a total of 235 to be murdered. VIENNA, May 19.—(New York Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The correspondent of the World met today and talked with several fugitive Jews just arrived from Kischineff, where they were eye witnesses to the recent atrocities. One of them is a wealthy merchant named Chaskel, who, with his wife and children, lives in a handsome home. Susset was the proprietor of a fine store. He is an educated man of 50 years. He said:

"I noticed several weeks before the catastrophe how the excitement against the Jews had increased, and the cause is now readily found. Governor Hasban had asked a rich Jew named Perlmutter for the loan of 80,000 roubles (about $40,000). Perlmutter asked two brothers named Alprim to participate in the loan. The brothers refused to do so.

"When the massacre began Perlmutter and the Alprim brothers asked the protection of the governor, promising him any price asked. The governor sent a detachment of Cossacks to guard the homes of the three men, where all remained untouched during the terrible days of the massacre. The price paid for this protection was 20,000 roubles ($10,000).

"On Sunday, April 19, a great number of country folk came to Kischineff, filling the brandy shops and refusing payment for drinks. The Jew shopkeepers, who were much afraid of their patrons, gave them credit, knowing full well they would never see a penny of the money.

"Seventy-five thousand Jews were in the hundreds of temples and schools, when toward evening their little children came running to them, crying that strange men filled the streets and were smashing windows and otherwise destroying things.

"When the Jews rushed to the rescue of their homes they were met in the streets by mobs of excited men, who spat in their faces, pulled their beards, threw them down and beat them. The Jews at first showed fight, but the police commanded them to go to their homes. It was then the crowds again entered the homes of the Jews and began their deeds of violence.

CONFEDERATE VETS MEET

Twentieth Annual Reunion is Held in New Orleans Auditorium.

GENERAL GORDON IS THE ORATOR

Speeches of the Soldiers of the Old South, but Says All Are Now Citizens of a Reunited Nation.

NEW ORLEANS, May 19.—The thirteenth annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans opened today under most favorable auspices.

The great auditorium erected in the center of the race track at the fair grounds was filled with a cheering, enthusiastic multitude long before the hour set for the formal opening of the exercises, and when at noon General J. B. Levert, commanding the Louisiana division, called the convention to order, there was not a vacant seat in the hall, which easily holds 10,000 people.

Rev. J. William Jones, chaplain general of the United Confederate Veterans, invoked the divine blessing, and Hon. T. B. Kruttschnitt of New Orleans, chairman of the local executive committee, under whose direction the auditorium was erected, spoke words of welcome to the delegates and their friends and concluded his address by tendering to the old soldiers the auditorium erected for their especial use.

As commander-in-chief of the veterans, it was the province of General John B. Gordon to reply, and as his soldierly form and battle-scarred visage came to the front of the rostrum, the delegates rose en masse and give him cheer after cheer. "The general repeatedly bowed his acknowledgments of the loyal affectionate greeting.

"An auspicious event in history, General Gordon said in part: "To my thought it is most fitting that this proud and patriotic organization should again meet in this historic city which gave birth to our nation. Since drawn together today, whose past deeds will remain forever an inspiration to American valor and to the future sacrifice of our country for freedom, in an auspicious event in the country's history, wherever and whenever it may occur, the anniversary of her birth into governmental alliance with the world. Some ecclesiastical would have discovered in a meeting of this kind, which is the work of men of good, the cause of liberty, and American ecclesiastical should see in it nothing but a religious gathering. It must of necessity be beneficial and only beneficial.

"Feel No Bitterness. We will not indulge on this centennial, this political millennium morning, nor at other times, in any bitterness. We feel none. We are satisfied with our lot, and we are satisfied with our lot. We are satisfied with our lot, and we are satisfied with our lot. We are satisfied with our lot, and we are satisfied with our lot.

LOSE WAY IN WILDERNESS

Old Man and Boy Have Unpleasant Experience in Long Island Woods.

BAY SHORE, L. I., May 19.—The eldest son of George Davis, a farmer near here, went into the country on Saturday with his aged grandfather. They started for home about dark, but became confused and found themselves in the woods. The boy was not long before he was only more completely lost.

The grandfather stuck to the road and reached home in the afternoon. A searching party started after the boy with the information given that they believed to be the boy was but mistook a wood path and it was not long before he was only more completely lost.

WILL NOT ARBITRATE

Business Men's Association Declines to Hold Further Conference.

EXPRESS BELIEF THEY HAVE FIGHT WON

Consequently Reason There is No Occasion for Another Meeting.

MEN EXPECTED TO MAKE A MOVE TODAY

Big Restaurants Open Up with Force of Nonunion Employees.

BENNETT SETTLES WITH HIS DRIVERS

Thirty Men Return to Work on Terms Satisfactory to the Union and Firm Declared to Be Fair.

The Business Men's Association has rejected the proposition for another conference with representatives of organized labor looking to a settlement of the strike. This action was taken last night at another of the association's secret meetings in Clevelight hall. The union forces will be formally advised today.

The employers take the position that they have the employees "on the run" and that therefore arbitration is not necessary. As one of the enthusiastic members last night put it: "There is nothing to arbitrate, we have it licked."

Last night's meeting of the Business Men's association was expected to yield a final basis of settlement of the serious situation. The union forces had, on invitation, sent a proposition to the association for another conference between the two committees appointed for the purpose of trying to arrive at some common ground. The executive committee of the association held its daily meeting yesterday afternoon and drew up a formal answer to this proposition. The answer was read last night. It went on to state that one conference had been held with the labor organization's committee and the governor and that since then the union forces had shown such manifest signs of weakening as to warrant the belief in the minds of the executive committee that they were vanquished and that therefore it did not seem necessary to go to the trouble of meeting them half way, as provided in the proposal of the union men.

Much Enthusiasm is Shown. This letter and the subject matter were discussed pro and con for some time and finally adopted. The usual rule was observed to withhold any statement from the press and it was further decided not to admit the action of the association to the union forces until this morning. During the discussion some enthusiastic speeches were made by members who were foremost in deprecating the idea of meeting the laboring force half way in an endeavor amicably adjust all differences. W. S. Jardine said that his transfer company had not only enough men, but was besieged with applicants for positions as teamsters whom it had to turn away. Remarks of this character stimulated the feeling that arbitration was a thing of the past and that if a settlement was made it would be done by the union men simply asking to be allowed to return to their work under former conditions, or whatever conditions their employers saw fit to name. Great interest was manifested in the strikers' case last night over the possible outcome of this meeting. It is evident from the state of feeling, the anxiety of the artisans to know whether their employers would agree to treat with them, that general disposition that probably will follow the announcement today of last night's action.

"I look for the employers and employees to get together now and rather than this conference will open the way to a final settlement of all differences," said the chairman of the press committee of the Business Men's association yesterday. "The radical elements seem to have been suppressed by this time on both sides and the conservative men, the men who see the sense of the situation, are endeavoring to bring about a settlement of the strike, are in the saddle. Everything tends toward peace. However, the business men are just as firm as ever so far as their rights are concerned. There is no disposition to concede what they believe to be a thing of the past. It may be well to repeat at this time that the Business Men's association is not organized to disrupt unionism. It has no objection to unions living and thriving so long as they keep within proper bounds and do not become arbitrary. The men who compose this association are business men, and too intelligent to think that they could, if they would, destroy organized labor. The sooner the union men get the idea out of their heads that the Business Men's association is organized to suppress unionism the better it will be for all concerned."

Arrange with Bennett. The thirty team drivers of the Bennett wagon who have been among the strikers yesterday agreed to return to their work and will do so this morning. J. E. Crews, president of the Team Drivers' union, last night stated that the conditions under which the men went back were entirely satisfactory and that from now on Bennett's would be regarded as a "fair" house by organized labor. No formal agreement was signed between the men and the firm, but the former simply go back on the basis of their confidence in their employers that they will do what they please. Shortly before the strike Bennett gave his men a raise in wages and they were not among the precipitators of the strike, in fact were among the last to go out.

These letters have been sent by the respective labor leaders to the Bennett people, advising them that they believe to be the best method of settling the matter. Your consent is not authorized by the union men to go near Bennett's store was not authorized by this union. Your consent is not authorized by this union. Your consent is not authorized by this union.
