FOR NORTHWEST'S GREETING

President Enthusiastically Received in State of Washington.

IMMENSE CROWDS AT ALL STOPS MADE

Grand Event of the Day Transpires at Tacoma, Where State and National Officials Unite in Extending Welcome.

TACOMA, Wash., May 22.—Under a fastidious blue sky, the president of the United States, General Wood, arrived in Tacoma at 4 o'clock this afternoon. A multitude thronged the streets about the station and rent the air with cheers.

Little time was lost in the official reception. While the introductions to the reception committee were made the guns of the revenue cutter McCulloch fired a salute of twenty-one guns. As the president emerged from the canopy of flags at the station and entered the carriage, accompanied by Governor McBride, Mayor Campbell and Secretary Cook, fifteen cars of mounted police and cavalry formed a guard.

At Division avenue the escort of Grand Army of the Republic and Spanish-American veterans dropped out of the parade and the president was taken through the residence section, passing many of the school buildings, where the children were grouped and gave him an enthusiastic reception. All the business and residence streets were decorated with flags and lanterns. Pictures of the president were seen on all sides. The streets were blocked with people and the demonstrations kept the president busy bowing his acknowledgments.

Notables in Carriages. Assisted from the president's distinguished guests in carriages included, among others, Senators Foster and Ankeny of Washington, Mitchell of Oregon, and the president's personal secretary, Captain Bremerton, president C. S. Fellen of the Northern Pacific, Captain Hostwick, U. S. N., Captain Cousin, commander of the revenue cutter McCulloch, and a number of mayors of neighboring cities.

Meets a Former Trooper. Mayor Campbell then presented Otto Winter, who was a Texas trooper in the Cuban campaign. The president shook his hand cordially and said: "Were you with the Texans? Well, I'm awfully glad to see you; how are you getting along?"

The president's friendly remarks to the Grand Army of the Republic and the Spanish-American war veterans were particularly gratifying. He was particularly interested in the park he had been visiting.

Wants a Peace that Lasts. We earnestly believe, and of course I hope with all my heart, that there will always be peace between the United States and other powers; but I wish that peace should come to us in a way that will be in our interest, and that will be in the interest of the world.

HYMENEAL

Edgar, Neb., May 22.—(Special.)—Mr. Bert Beany and Miss Ella Caldwell, daughter of Hon. P. A. Caldwell, were united in marriage last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's father, A. M. Wells, in University Place, Wednesday evening, May 20.

Woodmen to Buy Bonds

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 22.—The Woodmen of the World in Wisconsin today practically ratified the recommendation of the committee of the whole. An appropriation of $5,000 was made toward the building of a new headquarters building at the Wisconsin State Fair grounds. The plan is to invest $50,000 of the reserve fund in government bonds and a large amount in municipal bonds.

Shenandoah Wins from Clarinda

SHENANDOAH, Ia., May 22.—(Special.)—The baseball game between Shenandoah and Clarinda in the second game of the Western Iowa league series here this afternoon before a crowd of 70 people. The day was cloudy, but the rain did not come until evening. Both teams were on their feet and made a disastrous third inning for Clarinda, the contest was good.

Chicago, May 22.—Samuel J. Kline, treasurer of the Chicago Jewish Massacre Relief committee, today called $1,000 to the first installment of Chicago's contribution to the relief of the victims of the Jewish massacre.

DAMAGE WROUGHT BY WIND

Reports to Weather Bureau Indicate Widespread Atmospheric Disturbance.

MANY BUILDINGS IN THE CITY SUFFER

Glass in Vestibule of Street Car is Blown in and Motorman is Severely Cut About the Head.

The wind that howled through Omaha yesterday and which rose to the fury of a gale, was general all over the west. At least that is what the reports received by the local forecast official from the 7 o'clock observations indicate. Not a great deal of rain accompanied the wind. At Havre, Mont., the greatest precipitation was reported, seven-tenths of an inch.

Starting from the yacht club float at Indian Head in a two-masted canoe tender the guests had only got a quarter of a mile off when a squall swept down on them. The men and women in the little canoe sprang to their feet when Mr. and Mrs. Lauder saw the squall coming. They were all and then turned to their excited guests and succeeded in calming them. The tender was tossed about and the passengers were wet with spray, but Mr. Lauder succeeded promptly in bringing the craft about and the guests were able to proceed and place his guests aboard the yacht.

SEASONABLE FASHIONS

Child's jacket for boys or street wear. Designed to be made from bordered material. Little jackets that can be slipped on whenever required are essential to the child's wardrobe and are shown in a variety of charming materials. This dainty one is made of embroidered flouncing and is eminently well suited to the approaching season, but the design suits flannels used for the purpose equally well. When straight edged goods are used the edges can be embroidered or trimmed in various ways.

Laying of Corner Stone

On leaving the park the Masonic grand lodge of Washington, together with the grand commander, Knights Templar, and the commanderies of Tacoma and Seattle, escorted the president to the site of the Masonic temple, where 1,000 Masons and Templars participated in the impressive ceremonies. The president made a few remarks and at the conclusion of the ceremonies re-entered his carriage and was conveyed to the Tacoma hotel.

Senator Foster gave a dinner in honor of the president at the hotel tonight and the press representatives with the party were also given a dinner.

When the president stepped down from the platform to lay the cornerstone he shook hands with the Mason who handed him the trowel, saying: "Are you a Mason?" The president quickly replied: "Why, I'm working overtime on this," which raised a great laugh.

AFTER RUNAWAYS

THE TRUANCY OFFICER IS A BUSY MAN THESE DAYS.

Out-of-Door Sports Offer Unusual Attractions for Young America—An Officer's Experience.

With the first warm days there is a large increase in the number of absences from the public schools and just how the truancy officers have their hands full looking after the youngsters who have溜ed into the superior attractions of out-of-door sports and have deserted the school room. Mr. Jesse L. Heffer, who lives at No. 12 East First street, Omaha, Ind., in truant officer of Elkhart county and who relates many interesting experiences. One of them should be of value to every reader of this paper. He says: "Last year I was so much run down in health that I was hardly able to keep on my feet and it was not until I took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People that I began to feel like myself again. All my strength seemed to have left me. I was languid and without ambition, my appetite failed, my kidneys became affected and my stomach got out of order. Doctors did not do me any good and I kept falling in health and strength until I despaired of every thing well again. Then I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. They helped me very quickly and, after taking them faithfully a short time, I became well and strong again. I am out in all sorts of weather, but have not experienced any return of the symptoms of my old trouble since Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured me."

The best tonic medicine in the world is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Mr. Heffer is not only one out of thousands all over the world who have found this out by personal experience. This medicine, unlike any other, acts both on the blood and nerves, builds up the system and cures where ordinary medicines fail. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are not only a tonic, but have cured such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, neuritis, rheumatism, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after-effects of the grip, pale and sallow complexion, and all forms of weakness in either male or female.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by all dealers or will be sent post-paid on receipt of price. 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y. They are never sold in bulk by the dozen or hundred. Avoid imitations; substitutes never cured anybody.

Rare Books Sold at Auction.

NEW YORK, May 22.—A choice collection of rare books was sold in this city at auction last evening. Some of the items sold were as follows: "The Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam," translated into English verse by Edward Fitzgerald, a fine copy of the first edition, London, 1882, $20; "The Gertrude, Thoughts Toward Nature in Poetry, Literature and Art," by Dante Gabriel Rossetti, $20; a complete set of first editions, in the original parts, of the five works of R. S. Burrows, $24; "The Loving Ballad of Lord Bateman," a fine copy of the first edition, London, 1882, $2; "The Pickwick Papers," by Charles Dickens, first edition, London, 1837, $2. One of the interesting items of the sale, although it brought only $4, was "The King's Book," by Richard Henry Stoddard, the poet who died a short time ago, first edition, New York, 1881, with a letter from Stoddard to Robert Cochin, "Bar Gray," at Fordham, relating to Poe's cottage there.

English as She is Defined.

The definition of an English teacher's job is not infrequently relieved by the unconscious humor of her pupils. The following are definitions culled by the English department of a school not far from Boston.

The word "butress" occurs in the lesson.

"The word 'butress' occurs in the lesson," said the teacher, upon asking for a definition, receive this response: "A buttress is a woman who makes butter."

Even more choice than this is the idea of a little girl of a ruminating animal. She gravely writes: "A ruminating animal is one that chews its cube."—Harper's Magazine.

No Negro Problem Conference.

MADISON, Wis., May 22.—The resolution of State Senator Patton for a conference on the race problem, introduced in the senate in committee and was never reported back to the senate. The committee amended the resolution so that it should refer to a conference and the appointment of a committee to report on the subject. It is finally decided to let it remain in a legislative file until the legislature will adjourn sine die tomorrow.

BY ONE OF CZAR'S SUBJECTS. Russian Horror is Severely Denounced by Novelist Gorki. ARTICLE PRINTED IN GERMAN PAPER. Censorship Prevents its Publication in Nijay Novgorod Press, but Severe Escoriation Finally Reaches the Public.

BERLIN, May 22.—Maxim Gorki, the Russian novelist, recently wrote an article on the Kishineff massacre for a Nijay Novgorod newspaper, but the censor refused to allow its publication. Gorki then sent the article to the St. Petersburg correspondent of the Frankfort Kiesser Press, which prints it today. The article is as follows:

"Russia has been disgraced more and more frequently of recent years by dark deeds, but the most disgraceful of all is the horrible Jewish massacre at Kishineff, which has awakened our horror, shame and indignation. People who are good themselves as Christians; who claim to believe in God's mercy, and sympathy—these people are they who consent to the mutilation of their God from the dead occupy the time in murdering children and aged people, fashional the women and martyring the men of the race which gave them Christ."

"Who bears the blame of this base crime, which will remain on us like a bloody blot for ages? We shall be unable to wash this blot from the sad history of our dark country. It would be unjust and too simple to condemn the mob. The latter was merely the hand which was guided by a corrupt conscience, driving it to murder and robbery. For it is well known that the mob at Kishineff was led by men of the cultivated society. But cultivated society in Russia is really much worse than the people, who are guided by their blinded and artificial darkness created around them. The cultivated classes are a crowd of cowardly slaves, without feeling of personal dignity, ready to accept every led by men of the cultivated society.
