UNION PACIFIC'S ANSWER

Declares Its Position Before Interstate Commerce Commission.

Admits a Rebate Agreement Exists Sets Forth Names and Locations of Elevators to Owners of Which It Pays Percentage for Business Derived Therefrom.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The Union Pacific today filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission its answer to the order of the commission instituting an investigation of the alleged rebates of the Union Pacific to elevators.

The Union Pacific admits that it has an agreement with the Midland Elevator company at Kansas City, and the Omaha Elevator company at Council Bluffs, both companies being representatives of Peavey & Co., under the terms of which agreements the Union Pacific pays 1 1/4 cents per 100 pounds for receiving, transferring and handling all grain which passes through these elevators.

The State department is cooperating with the Agricultural and Treasury departments to carry out the terms of the anti-adulteration act passed by the legislature, and it will not be surprising if the results are of exceeding importance.

The test case, the foundation of which has been laid in the Agricultural and Treasury departments, will be based upon importations of adulterated German Rhine wines.

A great deal of the wine comes to America, and the Agricultural and Treasury departments wish to secure the legal evidence which it may be excluded.

The postmaster general said that he had not yet sent any communication to Mr. Machen.

It developed today that on May 1 First Assistant Postmaster General Wynne, who is chief clerk, John J. Howley, asked Mr. Machen whether there were other items than of the map making work, in which the appropriation was likely to be exhausted before the end of the fiscal year.

The decision was rendered in the test case against the city council of Dayton, brought by the old act for creation of city boards of review.

The decision is based on the ground that the new Ohio code has superseded the old act. This takes from councils all power of appointments except as to its own subordinates.
