

ABOUT PLAYS, PLAYERS AND PLAYHOUSES

While the troubles in the labor world have disturbed business in every other line, the people who undertake to amuse the public...

As yet the theatrical trade is a field practically untouched by the labor organizer; it is virgin and inviting. An abortive attempt was made to secure control of the labor employed in the vaudeville branch of the business...

Approaching the matter seriously, no profession is better paid right now than the theatrical. It is not necessary to single out the high-priced stars to illustrate and emphasize this assertion. In passing, though, it is interesting to note that the basis of the disagreement between Viola Allen and Liebler & Co. is the belief of her relatives that the $1,500 per week she receives for her services is not enough.

The average girl who works in the shop has much better time than the girl who works in the office. You must remember that I have absolutely no recreation from the time the season opens until the season ends. It is a routine of sleep, get ready for the theater, and then act, and the same old story day after day, except Sunday. Deorum makes it necessary for me to stay at the house on my days off, and so you look at it from my viewpoint, you must agree that I am really the one to be pitied.

Advertisement for Malt-Two Flakes Food Co. featuring illustrations of a man and a woman, and text describing the benefits of their food.

and will doubtless please the Ferris audiences. It is said to be full of quick action and stirring climaxes. Its scenes are laid in the south during the civil war...

Mr. N. C. Goodwin will present here on Friday and Saturday next his success, "The Altar of Friendship," with all the original scenic accessories. The play is based upon the sacrifices made for friendship's sake.

The Luella Forepaugh-Flah Wild West show here on Tuesday at the show grounds, Twentieth and Paul streets, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and 8 o'clock at night.

Saturday, May 30, the Western Amusement company, of which W. W. Cole is general manager, will open Krug's park for the season. The new park is in a gayest and beautiful than ever, many new pastimes especially arranged for the children...

Trickie Friganza anticipates joining the Weber and Fields forces in the fall. Omaha's outdoor vaudeville and music parks will open next Saturday for the summer. E. H. Sothorn "stood 'em up" all last week at the Broadway in Denver, playing "If I Were King."

Western Amusement Company advertisement for Grand Opening at Grand Park on Saturday, May 30. Features Huster's Band, Munkacsky, and John Hall.

Boyd's Music and Musicians advertisement for N. C. Goodwin's "The Altar of Friendship" at the Grand Park.

Boyd's Music and Musicians advertisement for Ferris Stock Co. and Linwood.

Boyd's Music and Musicians advertisement for Base Ball and Luella-Forepaugh-Fish Shows.

Boyd's Music and Musicians advertisement for Mr. Kelly's singing and the Boer Colony in Mexico.