Montana Finds Imitators Among Omaha Maidens Who Take Much Pleasure in Imitating the Men Folks.

Society has taken down its busy day sign which by the way has been covered with dust for more than a fortnight, and substituted for it its summer address.

By far the most interesting announcements of late week were those regarding the engagement of Miss Helen Peterson.

On Tuesday Miss Yates will be hostess of the meeting of the Euchre club which a reorganization is to be effected and the meetings held in the morning for the summer.

On Wednesday Mrs. George Eddy entertains at cards in the afternoon, Mrs. Colin C. Jostyn of Minneapolis to be the guest of honor.

On Thursday Miss Brady entertains the Debutantes' luncheon; Mrs. George Eddy gives a card party in the afternoon; Mrs. Hitecheek will be hostess of the South Side Whist club and Miss Jean Campbell gives a card party in compliment to Miss Edith Snell and Miss Anne Taylor.

On Saturday Mrs. Mawhinney will give a Kensington afternoon; The Manawa Post club opening and the tournament at the Country club.

There's no use talking about it, the woman who does not play euchre nowadays is behind the times and that is all there is of it. It has been the popular game all winter—except among the whole lot of us, of course, and it bids fair to supersede golf this summer for a half dozen clubs have been formed within the last few weeks.

Among the affairs of the week that did not get into the society columns by the way, or to the ears of very many, was a gathering held one morning last week at the home of a young woman who has a reputation for original ideas.

Mrs. Pauline Schenck will entertain informally on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Lulu Edwards.

Mrs. J. C. Hutton is visiting Mercur, Park City and other mining points in Utah and Idaho.

Word has been received that Mrs. Clifford Smith and small son, who are now in Italy, will sail for New York on June 2.
