SEASONABLE FASHIONS

Woman's Waist 4417-Waists made with square yokes are much liked and are pe-cultarly well adapted to the season's fine and soft materials. This very stylish model includes that feature and, in addition, the epaulettes which give the broad shouldered line now so much in vogue. As shown it is made of white batiste with trimming of Valenciennes lace and tiny white bands, but it could be reproduced in any of the washable fabrics and also in the fashionable simple silks and soft wools.

The waist is made over a fitted founds tion and closes with it at the center back Both its fronts and backs are gathered and joined to the yoke, then allowed to fall in soft and becoming folds that are gathered again at the waist line. The epaulettes are arranged over the shoulders and held in place by the bands. The sleeves are new and graceful. The full portions extend to the elbows, where they are gath ered into bands to which are joined the drooping pointed frills. If the transparent effect is desired the lining beneath the yoke can be cut away and the sleeves made quite
