PUTS UP INGENIOUS DEFENSE Man Charged with House Breaking Has Something Superior

yesterday for daylight housebreaking and entering. The compaining witness was Mrs. C. W. Young, 1712 South Seventh street. It is charged that Hyde entered the house and had just emerged therefrom when Mrs. Young returned from a call-Hyde jumped a fence and disappeared down the alley. An investigation of the premises showed that a couple of small fron safes was out hunting for work and got hungry and went up to the house, arriving there just as Mrs. Young did. On the way there he had picked up in the alley a small iron sufe, a revolver, a razor and a key. He also noticed a man running down the alley. Later he found a coat and a shirt under the opinion of the prosecuting attorney and judge that as a lucky finder Hyde was unequalled, but as there was some doubt as to his integrity in the matter, Judge Berka bound him over to district court in the sum of $500.
