NEW LINE TO DES MOINES

Rumor that Stokney Has Bought De Moines and Southern Rights.

MEANS ANOTHER GREAT WESTERN BRANCH

Landslide at West End of Union Pacific Bridge Results in Another Northwestern Engine Going Off Track.

Much interest is taken, locally, in the report that the Chicago Great Western has bought the right of way and charter of the Des Moines & Southern railway. If this proves true, President Stokney will eventually be enabled to connect Omaha and Des Moines by a direct short line which, it is generally recognized, would be a most valuable acquisition to both cities. President Stokney has not denied the report of this purchase and this serves to stimulate the interest. The report goes so far as to say that the Great Western will let very little time elapse before starting on the new line, which it hopes to complete before the expiration of the present year.

Trouble at the Bridge.

The collapse of the railroad embankment at the Nebraska entrance to the Missouri river bridge is still causing serious inconvenience. Northwestern train No. 1 was stalled and consequently other trains following this one yesterday, because the Northwestern's engine jumped the track again, as it did Tuesday morning. The curve in the temporary track, improvised as soon as the landslide occurred, is so short that it is difficult for trains to get around it. Every effort will be made to repair the damaged track as soon as possible. It is now said that an undercurrent from the river flows through the embankment and adds to the insecurity of the roadbed. Some extensive work, it is said, will be required before this trackage will be safe and substantial.

Movements of Officials.

John Francis, general passenger agent of the B. & M., is in Chicago, and his presence there is said to have some connection with his reported promotion soon to the position of general passenger agent of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy system.

General Passenger Agent E. L. Lomax of the Union Pacific is due to arrive Friday from the west. Mr. Lomax has been absent for some time and has made a very extensive and thorough tour of the Union Pacific, also other western lines, skirting the Pacific coast and attending the recent convention of passenger officials in Portland, Ore.

Always Ahead

As usual, we lead all our competitors with a new line of women's Oxfords. So new and so many different styles that they have never been shown in Omaha before. The best we can do is to ask you to come to the store and see them—it's impossible for us or any one else to give an adequate description. There are, however, the shiny leather Oxfords with the Louis XV and common sense heel.

Our $2.50 line is creating a great deal of favorable comment from the women who have seen them.

WILL PAY CEDAR COUNTY

Treasurer T. F. Ziegler's Bondsmen Agree on Their Apportionment.

FRIENDS ARE TO MAKE GOOD $10,000

Fidelity Bonding Company Will Stand the Remaining $15,000 of the Shortage and Make Over Some of His Oil Stock.

The result of a conference at the Millard hotel yesterday was an agreement that the treasury of Cedar county, Nebraska, shall be reimbursed with $2,000 by the friends who were sureties for T. F. Ziegler during one of his terms as county treasurer and by the Fidelity Bonding Company of New Jersey, which was his surety during his other term. The formal transaction is to be at Hartington, the county seat, next Saturday morning at a special meeting of the county commissioners, and will end, so far as the county is concerned, a case that has been a general topic there for many months and amounted to an official scandal.

Those at yesterday's conference were a representative of the bonding company, County Attorney R. J. Millard of Cedar county and Frans Nelson, president of the First National bank of Hartington.

Who Have to Pay.

Mr. Nelson is one of and represents the personal bondsmen, of whom there were eighteen, including such prominent Cedar county citizens as Z. Boughton, John Lord, W. T. Linkhart, J. W. Linkhart, Paul Buel, Louis Mallett, J. C. Ziegler, Dr. McKenzie, Warner Marx and S. O. Reese.

It is conceded that the greater portion of Ziegler's alleged irregularities were during the term when the company was bonding him, but it has been difficult to make an exact apportionment. Finally the company proposed that if the personal bondsmen would advance, in round numbers, $10,000 cash or its equivalent the company would advance the remaining $15,000 and make over to the personal bondsmen some of Ziegler's oil stock and other holdings the company had become possessed of, so that individual loss will not be so severe.

Why He Doesn't Prosecute.

"We have been criticized some for not prosecuting Ziegler," said County Attorney Millard, "but that was because people did not understand the application of the statute of limitations under which murder, arson, forgery and treason are the only crimes for which we can prosecute after the expiration of three years, provided the offender has been resident in the state during that period, as Ziegler was."

"When N. E. Butterfield, republican, was elected county treasurer and took office in January, 1902, his predecessor, H. B. Sulng, had some difficulty in getting his books balance and we had them examined by an expert, with the result that Mr. Sulng (not because of any manipulation, I believe, but because of clerical errors), had to pay the county $5,000.

Goes Into Ziegler's Terms.

"Sulng's predecessor for two terms had been Ziegler, and though Ziegler is a democrat and I a populist, I advised the county board that since work on the books had been begun it might as well proceed back into Ziegler's terms. The result was the discovery of the $25,000 discrepancy which we are just now arranging to clear up. Mr. Ziegler remained in Cedar county during all of Sulng's two terms and until just before the investigation started, or more than the three years specified by the statute of limitation applying in such cases. Then he moved to La Harpe, Kan., and is visiting in Omaha today, but immune from any action by me. He did not attend this conference, but his explanation of the discrepancy in his books is that he didn't do any manipulating himself nor make any money by the error. Oddly, his books had been examined and O. K.'d by both an examiner for the state and an examiner for the bonding company."

Announcements of the Theaters.

The story of "The Altar of Friendship" which Mr. N. C. Goodwin will present at the Boyd tomorrow and Saturday nights is one of self-sacrifice. The sacrifice an elder brother is willing to make to protect the beloved sister from humiliation, and in making this sacrifice he nearly loses the woman of his choice. The play will have most sumptuous mounting, the environment being more novelty and interesting features is the Gentry Bros' famous shows. Their trained animals have long been one of the leading attractions of the country, and nothing can be said in their praise that is not merited. Their performance is clean, entertaining and moral, and is patronized and endorsed everywhere it exhibits by the elite of the land. It will exhibit here, afternoon and night, for three days, commencing Thursday, June 4. Tents located at Douglas and Eighteenth streets.

Cramer's Kidney and Liver Cure—Cures backache—is highly endorsed by Omaha people. Come in two sizes. Our price, and Dr. Schaefer's Cut Price Drug Store, 15th and Chicago streets.
