When he attempted to reconnoiter the whole show seemed to grow suspicious. The elephant trumpeted omniously and blew cinders in his face. The dromedary twitched nervously a hind foot that looked, to Hensel, like the main entrance to St. Joseph's hospital. The bronchoes bit great holes in the hickory stakes and pointed their ears toward Forest Lawn cemetery. The Injuns began a war dance, the cowboys took to shooting holes in each others' hats and even the lady riders smelled of powder. Constable Hensel is a veteran and a war rior who has met all sorts of foe, from a Johnnie Red to an irate tenant, but the Wild West proposition looked a little too stiff for one lone. God-fearing man to tackle single handed. Besides, the papers he had brought from Justice Foster's court only called for about $25 in settlement of the wage claim of nine discharged "razor backs," and it seemed to him that diple macy ought to be able to bring about satisfaction without recourse to methods milltary.

Accordingly he approached the box office read his order in attachment and suggested that the discharged employes' bills be paid before he should be compelled to proceed stincts are aroused, are not a train to speak, and in such circumstances it is not their words. Every American humane sentiment has been shocked by a late attack on the Jews in Russia, an attack murderous, atrodous and in every way revolting. As members of the family of mankind, and as citizens of a free nation, we are here to give voice to the feeling that should stir every true man and every American worthy of the name. There is something horrible in the wholesale murder of defenseless men, wo-men and children, when assured of safety under the protection of a professedly civ-ilized government. Such things give rise to a distressing fear that even the enlight-emment of the twentieth century has neither destroyed nor subduct the bar-barity of human nature nor wholly re-deemed the civilized world from "man's inhumanity to man." We and all our countrymen protest in the strongest language at our command and with the moral force which our Amer-ican citizenship gives us, against these murders and outrages, and we insist that sight and condiar punchmen ought to be visited upon their barbarous perpetrators. Nor it this all, we will in a fashion, quite American and with open handedness, al-ways display when human distress appeals and robbed of support by murder, and hunger and want, have been driven from their homes. I know how easily our indignation promots us to the use of strong language and robbed of support by murder, and hunger and want, have been driven from their homes. I know how naturally we are tempted to indulge in overdrawn statements and extravagant demands on such occasions as this, and I am sure that in our char-acterisation of the crimes we here con-template and in expressing our detestathrough an interpreter, he said: On the Jewish passover there was much rioting. The houses of Jews were stoned and threats made to kill them. The next day, when the Christians came out of their church the crowds, armed with stones and iron bars, attacked the Jewish people in the streets and began to sack the houses, killing men, women and children. I saw the mob enter the yard of the poacemaker to death. While I was hidden in the cellar with my family I heard the nob enter our house and break the furni-ture and smash the windows. We were released from the cellar by our landlord. The next day the chief of police announced that the rioting must stop, and that we would be safe in the streets. I saw in the cemetery fifty bodies of men and women waiting to be buried. These were badly mutilated, some with erushed heads, and some with large holes through the head from ear to car, made by spikes that were driven through them. Schuelmeister said that he left Kishineff and was smuggled across the frontier. where "an agent" helped him to get to

ANY WOMAN MAY BE CURED. MRS. FRANCES KINGSLEY, First Vice-President of the Historical Club, 544 Garfield Ave., Chicago, Ill., says

CHICAGO, ILL., 544 Garfield Avenue, October, 9, 1902. After doctoring for eleven months and taking forty-three bottles of medicine and finding no relief for leucorrhose resulting from irritation of a fallen womb I took Wine of Cardui and fourteen bottles cured me. This seems strange but it is the simple truth. Wine of Cardui helped me from the time I began taking it and having heard it praised so highly by friends who had tried it I felt satisfied that it would help me, and it did. It cured me. Took every bit of ache, pain and headache, cramps and dragging down sensations away till I felt young, strong and happy once more. It is a wonderful medicine and a true friend to women. When I look back on the months of torture I had it seems like a hideons nightmare. Wine of Cardui will cure any woman I believe. I have more faith in it than all other medicines combined.

Who would go on suffering female troubles after reading the earnest statement of this prominent woman? Are you suffering from lea-orrheea? Have you the irritation of a fallen or misplaced uterus? Do you have periodical headaches? Do you have aches, pains or cramps in the abdomen? Have you "bearing down pains"? Do you feel as if you were never "young, strong and happy"? How can you refuse relief when you know these troubles are torturing you, are growing worse day after day? If you go to a phy-sician after a local examination, he will probably tell you an operation is necessary. Mrs. Kingsley took Wine of Cardui and she was cured without an operation. And this is what you may do. Shooting pains, irregularity, inflammation and bearing down pains make thousands of women miserable. Why drag through life never enjoying anything? Wine of Cardui has made over 1,500,000 weak and suf-fering women well and strong. We aak you to go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui and begin to take it at once. Do that and the health Mrs. Kingsley writes about will soon be yours. If you think special di-rections are needed in your case, address, giving symptoms, Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.
