Board of Equalization The quarterly meeting of the council as a special board of equalization, June 3, 10 and 11, has brought the question of an official paper, or the lack of it, before the city clerk again, and he is going to ask City Attorney Wright for a written opinion as to how legal publication can be made of the necessary notices. As has been related before, the last legislature in providbids be received in June and the public printer named in July, but neglected to arrange for an official paper in Omaha during the first six months of the year. Recently City Clerk Elbourn made a disinterested effort to have the council name The Bee and the World-Herald as official papers temporarily as makeshift to cover the omission, but Councilman Hascall killed the resolution. Although there are only

It is Expected to Save Time and Money in School Build-An innovation in systematizing the general work of the buildings and property committee of the school board has been made by Chairman Stubbendorf, and it promises to save considerable incidental expense. Recently circulars were sent out to all principals asking them to make a list of the necessary repairs and new furniture and fittings required and which will be placed during the vacation time. The principals were urged to give the matter careful attention and the replies received show that the ground has been covered thoroughly. Now Mr. Stubbendorf will make a personal visit to each building and determine whether the judgement of the principal is correct. From his revised list the superintendent of buildings will make the repairs and replacements. Heretofore the work has been done in a rather desultory manner and much time of laborers was lost owing to small jobs being scat-

Comptroller Lobeck announced yesterday the full list of employes in his office. The number is the same as that under former Comptroller Westberg and there is no prospect of an increase. The list is as follows: Deputy, Fred H. Cosgrove; book-keeper, Otto Wolfe; clerks, S. R. Crickmore, W. A. Robertson, William Siemers and Frank Planck; stenographer, Miss Amy Bergstrom. Wolfe and Crickmore are retained from the former regime because of ability and familiarity with the
