Mr. Kennedy Lectures Again.

Mr. William Kennedy, Bennett's capable advertising man, will deliver his highly entertaining lecture, "Ireland in Song and Story," in Washington hall, Friday evening. This is the same lecture with which Mr. Kennedy packed the City hall in South Omaha on May 5, and which was so enthusiastically received at that time. Mr. Kennedy is a most pleasing, humorous speaker, sings well and treats in detail of Ireland's most charming points of interest. Will J. Stevens will have charge of the lantern and Gladys Chandler, Omaha's musical prodigy, will sing two Irish songs. The proceeds will be used for the building purchase fund of Rev. Charles W. Baidwin of the People's church. The admission is 25 cents; children 10 cents.

All Buncombe!

The manufacturers of the DR. MILF'S remedies are claiming in their big ads that their goods are NEVER SOLD AT CUT PRICE! The fact of this matter is just this: Those people adopted a plan, the PURPOSE OF WHICH was to prevent their goods from being sold at cut price each and every bottle is numbered and by this number an attempt to keep tabs on cutters is made; then they have a contract which they require every druggist (who will be before they will allow any jobber to sell him their goods). A great many druggists (?) have signed this contract, thereby agreeing not to cut the price, and then they turn right around and cut the price, thus repudiating themselves. There is a fine for this offense incorporated in the contract, but the repudiators say "LET'S SEE YOU COLLECT IT!" and there you are. Now we wish it distinctly understood that we DID NOT SIGN that contract, and that we do have DR. MILF'S REMEDIES, even if jobbers won't sell them to us, and we do sell them at CUT PRICE IF ANY WANT THEM. WANT THEM? WHAT BELONGS TO US FOR PRICES WHICH PLEASE OUR CUSTOMERS? AND OURSELVES—NOT DRUG COMBINES. OPEN ALL NIGHT.

The horse sense of a horse

Just watch him when he's put to the strain—when every stitch in his harness is brought into play. You notice how willingly, if he's a horse of horse sense, he pulls or backs the load, if his harness fits him.

Made in Omaha.

Why should you demand a harness that is not made in Omaha when that made in Omaha is not only better, but just as low in price and more to the point, is guaranteed by a man in Omaha whom you can easily reach if any imperfections are found. Your custom will bring other customers.
