Coffee Market.

Coffee Market. NEW YORK, May 29.-The market for coffee futures opened steady at unchanged prices at a decline of 5 points under heavier port receipts and expectations of early ar-rivals of new crop coffee and ruled rather easy as a result of liquidation and short sales in the absence of bull auport, closing quiet and net unchanged to 10 points lower, with total sales reported at 27.750 bags. Dry Goods Market.

Dry Goods Market. NEW YORK, May 33.-DRY GOODS-The market has shown more willingness on the part of buyers to accept the advances which have been made during the week. Bellers are more independent than ever and advices from the mills are that unless the new schedule of prices is obtained, the mills will be closed. Computatory curtain-ment will be necessary in a great many instances on account of the short supply of cotton. 25% 3134 6034
