HARVARD BY SMALL MARGIN

Only One Point to the Good in Trial Events with Yale Athletes.

OTHER UNIVERSITIES SHOW UP WELL

Cornell, Pennsylvania, Syracuse and Princeton Each Have Representatives in the Final Events.

NEW YORK, May 29.—Harvard led Yale in the trial events in the intercollegiate games here today by exactly one point, the Crimson's total score being 21, while Yale's was 20. Cornell, Pennsylvania, Syracuse, Princeton and Williams showed up well and will all take their share of points away from the two great rivals battling for the intercollegiate cup. This trophy has been won five times by Yale and four times each by Harvard and Pennsylvania. The semi-finals and finals will be run off tomorrow.

Beck of Yale broke the intecollegiate shot-put record, with 44 feet 11¼ inches, three inches better than the standard, his own performance last year. Dewitt of Princeton failed by half an inch to qualify, but easily made the best hammer throw.

Arthur E. Duffy, the world's record-holder in the 100-yard dash, was in good form and won his heat easily.

The summaries:

100-yard run: First heat, won by M. T. Lightner, Harvard; J. W. Elwell, University of Pennsylvania, second; time, 10 seconds. Second heat, won by W. A. Schick, jr., Harvard; J. S. EVENTS ON RUNNING TRACKS

Plater Wins the Patchogue Stakes at New York, but by Only a Short Head.

NEW YORK, May 29.—Plater, carrying most of the money and hard ridden, won the Patchogue stakes at Gravesend today. The Musketeer and Plater ran almost head and head the entire distance, the latter horse beating the Farrell sprinter by a short head. Fuller, the rider of The Musketeer, made a claim of foul, which was dismissed. Only one favorite won. The weather was cool and the track fast. Results:

First race, about six furlongs, selling: Right and True won, Irish Jewel second, Neither One third. Time: 1:10 2-5.

Second race, mile and a furlong: Golden Maxim won, Carbuncle second, River Pirate third. Time: 1:53 2-5.

Third race, mile and seventy yards: Akela won, Mackey Dwyer second, Stroller third. Time: 1:45 2-5.

Fourth race, The Patchogue stakes, about six furlongs: Plater won, The Musketeer second, Operator third. Time: 1:09.

Fifth race, five furlongs: Seymour won, Collector Jessup second, Tim Payne third. Time: 1:00 2-5.

Sixth race, about six furlongs: Damon won, Many Thanks second, Triste third. Time: 1:11 2-5.

Seventh race, about six furlongs, selling: Roue won, Highlander second, Courtmald third. Time: 1:10 3-5.

CHICAGO, May 29.—At Hawthorne today but two favorites were successful. The other four events went to second choices and outsiders. Weather cloudy and cool; track slow. Results:

First race, four half furlongs: Sol Smith won, Ida Davis second, Soldier of Fortune third. Time: 0:58⅘.

Second race, one mile: Calba won, Sherry second, Animula third. Time: 1:50⅘.

Third race, six furlongs: Epicure won, Tom Maybin second, Floyd K third. Time: 1:20.

Fourth race, one mile: Airlight won, Flying Torpedo second, The Forum third. Time: 1:48⅘.

Fifth race, one and one-sixteenth miles: Lampoon won, El Ghor second, Sidney Sabbath third. Time: 1:57⅘.

Sixth race, six half furlongs: Safeguard won, Mary Moore second, Jet third. Time: 1:28.

ST. LOUIS, May 29.—A heavy rain last night made the fair grounds track a sea of mud today. Not a favorite succeeded in reaching the wire first, second choices and outsiders going through the entire card. Light Opera won the feature, the fourth race, in a drive from Lady Strathmore, the outsider in the betting. Burke Cochran, ranging from 60 to 100 to 1, won the third race at a mile, beating Dr. Kier a nose on the wire. Burke Cochran was much the best, coming from behind, and won going away. Track muddy. Results:

First race, four and one-half furlongs, purse: Tom Kiley won, Rhyme and Reason second, Gretchel third. Time: 0:58⅘.

Second race, six furlongs, selling: Fannie Knox won, Katie Gibbons second, Aline S third. Time: 1:19.

Third race, one mile, purse: Burke Cochran won, Dr. Kier second, Deutschland third. Time: 1:45⅘.

Fourth race, one mile and an eighth, handicap: Light Opera won, Lady Strathmore second, Southbreeze third. Time: 2:00.

Fifth race, six furlongs: Maverick won, Boodler second, Countess Clara third. Time: 1:15⅘.

Sixth race, seven furlongs, purse: Echodale won, Sweet Dream second, Jake Weber third. Time: 1:32⅘.

CINCINNATI, May 29.—The steeplechase at Latonia today was marred by an exciting accident. In going over the first jump Dagmar and Balloon bumped into each other and the riders were thrown several feet in the air. McClure, Dagmar's rider, was dashed against a tree, but very fortunately escaped with a five-inch scalp wound. Whitcomb, Balloon's rider, escaped without injury. Sherin was the only winning favorite. The surprise of the day was Avoidsky, at 30 to 1. Weather pleasant; track slow. Results:

First race, one mile: D. I. Moore won, Moyle second, Kentucky Muddle third. Time: 1:42⅘.

Second race, four and a half furlongs: Ocyrohe won, H. Luehrmann jr. second, Dr. Cartledge third. Time: 0:56⅘.

Third race,
